READING IS AT REST

Voluntary Receivership Checks All Bear Operations.

MONEY GROWS MUCH HARDER

Wheat Goes Up a Shade, Owing to the Supply, and Pork Declines Three Cents.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Money on call firm, ranging from 2½ to 6; last loan, at 2½; closing offered at 2½.

Posted rates, 487 to 489.

Government bonds dull and steady.

Trading at the stock exchange returned to something like its normal condition today and the dealings were reduced to a little over ½ over what they were yesterday. While fluctuations were still large among the coal stocks, industrials were scarcely out of usual line.

The fact of the matter is the placing of Reading in the hands of the receivers practically takes it, for at least some time to come, out of the speculative arena and the forced liquidation being complete, the street is no longer afraid of any sharp movement which would disturb values in the general list. As for Reading itself, the opinion seems to be that the receivership was a sharp move to head off the enemies of the management in their attacks, and has been so far completely unsuccessful.

The 6 per cent for money prevailed some time ago seems to have arrived, although there were plenty of loans made, both yesterday and today at low rates. The hardening tendency of money acts to depress exchange, and though offerings of commercial bills are still small, bankers' bills issued against the late gold shipments have supplied the market to such an extent that rates eased off materially today, and it is felt that no more gold will go abroad. Trading in stocks was today largely professional, and the covering of shorts comprised the bulk of the buying. At the same time the selling was largely for the account of local operators who bought at low prices of yesterday. London sent some buying orders in three or four stocks, among which St. Paul and Louisville were prominent; but these orders were soon executed and the pressure to sell soon weakened the entire market, and a general decline took place all along the line.

There was a mild recurrence of the excitement in Reading, but it lasted for only a few minutes and it soon became possible to execute an order or sell 100 shares, which has not been done for the last three days. The large trading in the stock was all done in the first fifteen minutes, and during that time its lowest price was reached, which was only 2¼ per cent below its first price, which was 1 per cent better than its last night's closing. New England closely followed the course of Reading. The other coal stocks, however, were affected apparently by the belief that the disruption of the Reading system means lower prices for coal.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—There was a rather firm tone in wheat today notwithstanding the fact that nearly all the outside news seemed of a bearish nature. Cables were easier. The amount on ocean passage was 1,440,000 larger than a week ago; and the weather in the west and southwest was favorable, with receipts everywhere quite generous. The strength seemed to be some of that growing out of the decrease of 70,000 bushels in the American visible and 1,000,000 bushels decrease in the English visible supply. The market lost some of its force late in the day, but was still ⅛c higher than the final quotations of yesterday when the session closed. Corn showed considerable steadiness during most of the day, but closed with scarcely any change from Monday prices. Oats also started firm, but weakened in the latter part of the session and closed at a decline of ⅛c. The products were dull and lower; the receipts of live hogs were larger than expected, and prices 15 to 20c lower at the yards. There was a good deal of long stuff offered and not much done. Pork declined 3c and ribs 2½c. Lard closed unchanged.

Closing prices:

Wheat—February, 73½c; May, 76⅞c; July, 75⅞c.

Corn—February, 40⅝c; March, 41⅛c; May, 43⅝c; July, 44⅛c.

Oats—May, 33⅝c.

Pork—February, $18.90; May, $19.25; July, $19.25.

Lard—February, $12.50; May, $12.85; September, $12.12.

Ribs—February, $10.20; May, $10.25; July, $10.15.

Chicago Livestock.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Chicago, Feb. 21.—Cattle—Receipts, 8,000; weak; common to extra steers, $3.40 to $6.00; cows and bulls, $1.90.

Hogs—Receipts, 19,000; weak; 5 to 10c lower; heavy, $7.15 to $7.40; mixed and medium, $7.30 to $8.20; light, $7.60 to $7.85.

Sheep—Receipts, 17,000; weak; 10 to 15c lower; poor to extra, $3.00 to $5.35; lambs, $4.00 to $6.20.

Detroit Grain.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 21.—Wheat—No. 2 red, 72½c; May, 75½c; July, 76½c; No. 1 white, 71½c.

Corn—No. 2, 42⅝c.

Oats—No. 2, 35½c.

LOCAL MARKETS.

The local market yesterday was quiet, with but few changes noted in quotations. Wheat was advanced to 70 cents. Eggs were dull and buyers were looking for cheaper stock. Bananas are not quoted, as the supply is too uncertain. Sweet potatoes will not be in the market until the weather moderates. Staples in the provision market continue quiet, but trade was very good Monday and Tuesday. Meats are unchanged and the supply comes in steadily. Flour has dropped 5 cents a hundred. Dry wood is offered in small lots on the market, the farmers' stock on hand having become pretty well reduced. Green wood, however, is offered in quantities sufficient to fill all orders. Hay is also growing scarcer. The continued cold weather has caused more hay to be consumed than for several years past. It is predicted on the market that hay will advance to $16 before many weeks. Buckwheat flour has advanced a few cents within the last few days.
