EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. In half-pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus: JAMES EPPS & Co., Ltd., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England.

Some one wrote lately: "Have you any marked-down serge suits?"

Of course not; can hardly make 'em fast enough as it is, though we always have good clothes marked down: broken sizes or suits that don't sell as fast as we expected.

For instance: two suits of strong and fine gray cassimere—one delicately striped, the other all mixed up with checks and faint blue cross-stripes, so as to cheat anybody who is looking for a pattern—we can't see why they didn't sell fast at eighteen and twenty dollars. They didn't; that's all there is about it.

$15—that'll fix 'em, we guess.
