We are often asked how it is that Furniture is sold on credit with no money down. Our answer is that it isn't, unless the buyer can give real estate security. That part is only explained after you get to the "no money down" store. Ours is not one of that kind.

We are still harping on Bedroom Suits, because we fully believe we are offering the best value ever seen in those goods—Birch, Cherry and Oak. Prices, $10.50, $12.50, $15, $20, $30, and $40.

Departures from the Beaten Track.

Among the high novelties in table linens now displayed at the Linen Store are some unusually rich effects in design, of which the following are a few of the prominent features: A strikingly original pattern shows bunches of the Sweet Pea tied with broad satin ribbon at each corner of the table, streamers of the ribbon, with here and there a sweet pea blossom escaping from underneath them, form the table border. Another, quite as novel in design, has a deep festooned outer border of Pansies, the table border being formed by a broad band of the flowers massed together; the blossoms almost stand out from the cloth so effectively is it woven. A handsome Lilac pattern has natural-sized clusters of the flower gathered in graceful bunches with the flowers dependent for the outer border; the table border is developed from branches of the Lilac, with clusters of flowers and leaves clinging to them.

Equally artistic and rich in effect is a Clematis design, which also has a table border of blossoms and leaves, arranged somewhat after the style of the Lilac just mentioned; a distinctive feature of this design is the amount of the plain satin damask which it shows.

FREE.—Photographic sketches of these and other of our special table linen designs, with price list sent on application.
