There is no place like home—when Pearline is used in it. There is no place about home where Pearline can't be used. Pearline takes the hard work and drudgery out of—keeping a home clean. It is next to having the washing and cleaning done for you, and well done at that.

It washes everything that can be washed. It cleans paint, marble, carpets, hangings—in fact everything cleanable. It is a luxury in the bath. It is emphatically without harm to person or things. With Pearline you have rest; it rests with you to have Pearline.

Beware of imitations. 249 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

"Royal Ruby" Rye Whisky is free from all foreign flavor and adulterants; naturally ripened and matured by eleven years storage in wood, it is "a Rye as is a Rye," and costs no more than inferior brands. Try it and you will never be satisfied to use any other.

A pure old whisky is always free from fusel oil, which is a poison, and should not be taken into the system. Age eliminates it from the spirit of oxidation, and it is converted into fragrant ethers, which give the bouquet to whisky.

When you want a whisky for medicinal use you want it pure. "Royal Ruby" Rye is guaranteed pure in every particular, and recommended for the invalid and the convalescent. (Bottled at distillery.) $1.25 per quart bottle. ROYAL WINE CO., CHICAGO. For sale by Scribner & Aldworth, druggists.

NOT INFLUENCED BY CHICAGO

The Bears Were the Only Ones Who Brought Any Particular Selling Pressure on the Market.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Money on call has been easy, ranging from 2 to 3 per cent; last loan at 2½ per cent, and closing offered at 2½ per cent.

Posted rates, $4.87½@4.90½.

Government bonds easier.

While the movements in the stock market were erratic again today there was on the whole a steadier feeling, and final quotations generally show net gains. Notwithstanding the numerous failures reported from Chicago and the strained financial conditions at the west, there was no particular pressure to sell here except from bear sources.

The general list opened higher in sympathy with an advance in quotations at London. The lowest were generally touched before 1 o'clock, following which a rally set in the general list. Closing prices in a majority of instances were ⅛@1¼c above Saturday's final figures. The sales were only 198,000, of which 13,000 were unlisted. The market closed firm in tone.

SUGAR—Raw, firm, quiet. Fair refining, 3¾c; centrifugals, 96 deg test, 4⅛@4⅜c; refined firmer, fairly active; No. 6, 4 1-16@4⅜c.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Wheat opened steady. There was a break of 1⅛c in July and September, but on bullish crop news there was a recovery of ⅜@⅝c. There was a good market for cash corn and it held fairly well during the morning, but at 1 o'clock there was a break of from ⅜@⅝c in September. Oats were heavy and lower in sympathy with corn and the general demoralization. September pork has declined to $21.50. Lard and ribs were dull and lower.

Closing prices:

WHEAT—June, 66⅝c; July, 66⅝c; September, 70⅝c.

CORN—June, 37¼c; July, 38c; September, 40½c.

OATS—June, 27c; July, 27⅛c; September, 25⅝c.

CORN—No. 2, cash, 40c.

OATS—No. 2 white, cash, 35½c.

London Grain.

LONDON, June 5.—The grain markets opened this morning quiet. At Liverpool wheat is in very light demand; corn firm, but not active. Wheat on passage quiet. Corn quiet but steady. The French markets were quiet. The weather in the United Kingdom was showery.

LOCAL MARKETS.

MONDAY, June 5.—The wheat market continues dull and unsettled, the prices still ruling downward. Consequently very little is offered for sale, holders, in most cases, preferring to take the chances for a higher price being paid in the near future than submit to quoted prices of today. The condition of the money market and the apparently improved condition of the growing crop, as well as the unloading of vast amounts of the cereal long held by the farmers throughout the country are, no doubt, the principal causes for the state of the market today. The price fell to 64 cents last Saturday, and today (Monday) a further decline took place, the quotation now being 62 cents. Oats have also declined to 35 cents. Other grains remain as previously quoted. The sugar market has also taken a downward move, all the grades sharing alike, at a reduction of 6 cents per 100 pounds. Full cream cheese is more plentiful at 10½@11½c per pound. Butter and eggs are quite plentiful at former prices. Strawberries are held at 4.00@4.25 for thirty two quart cases. There are no changes in other farm produce excepting asparagus, which is quoted at 25@30 cents per dozen bunches. Meats and all kinds of fish and fowls are in moderate supply at steady prices. No reaction in tanned leather and green hides has taken place of late, but a slight reduction is likely to soon follow. Below are the latest quotations:

Not to Be Imposed Upon.

"No, sir," exclaimed the determined old lady from Upthecreek, putting her purse back into her pocket. "I just won't pay 35 cents for two doughnuts and a cup of coffee. Cyrus, hunt up that Fisheries buildin and see if you can't get a can o' salmon fur 15 cents."—Chicago Tribune.

Quite a Difference.

Husband—I think I will run over to Chicago for a week during the fair.

Wife—Then I think I will go with you. What is fair for one is fair for two.

Husband—No, my dear. What is fare for one is far from being fare for two.—New York Herald.

She—Have you been to the beauty show?

He (looking at her)—No. That's why I came to call.

Chicago Hospitality.

The large hospitality which Chicago residents are planning promises a cordial admiration. One woman who lives in the outskirts of the city and has a large lawn as well as big house, says: "We have secured a number of tents, which we propose to pitch on the lawn and provide with cots and conveniences. Here we'll quarter the men when our homes overflow, as we expect it will most of the time."—Exchange.

Rubinstein's New Opera.

Rubinstein's sacred opera entitled "Moses," on which the composer has been at work since 1881, has just been put on the stage at Brunn, Moravia. The opera is a series of eight acts, the presentation of which occupies two evenings. The most interesting part of the work from a theatrical point of view is the scene depicting the historic events on Mount Sinai.

A Consul's Son Does a Skirt Dance.

At a recent party at Biarritz Nigel Bellairs, son of the British consul there, electrified the assembly by dancing, and most gracefully too, a skirt dance, apareled in the regulation mazes of filmy gauze and lace petticoats. He looked like an ordinary nun and good looking young girl and was recalled again and again by the delighted audience.—Chicago Herald.

She Knew Him.

The youth of 30 summers was talking to the girl of 20 about his teeth.

"Just think of it," he said. "I'm cutting a wisdom tooth in my upper jaw."

"People don't have wisdom teeth in the upper jaw," she contended.

"But I'm cutting one," he insisted.

"Pshaw," she said, as women argue, "that isn't a wisdom tooth; that's just an ordinary intelligence tooth." And the young man refused to continue the discussion.—Detroit Free Press.

Making Him Comfortable.

Judge—Have you any remarks to offer that may lead to a mitigation of your sentence?

Prisoner—Yes, I will thank you to have a sofa put in my cell.—Seifenblasen.

One Too Many.

Johnny—Papa, what is a bigamist?

Papa—A bigamist, Johnny, is a man who loves not wisely, but two well.—Texas Siftings.

There is a horse in Florida that becomes wildly excited and unmanageable whenever any one approaches him having a breath that smells of whisky.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup company, printed near the bottom of the package.

CROAKERS MUST CROAK OR NOTHING

If Greenly would put down the price of horses low enough; if Belknap, Baker & Co. would chip in a landeau and blanket or two; and Berry Mills would furnish necessary ornamental clothing for a driver; then about all the clerks in our office would have teams to come from their homes to work and return, and their wives would probably come down with them. At least, this is about the kind of argument that Kate Field is using in the papers with regard to filling up the Fair—and I don't mind giving you a pointer—she is getting paid a big price for the space she is filling with stuff of this kind in a leading Chicago journal. Just like Henry Watterson carried away from here recently two hundred dollars for teaching us for an hour and half the misery that comes from being rich. She thinks that, if the railroads would go into an insolvency as far as their passenger business is concerned, it would help the Fair, but she has not stated how the employes of the railroads would get to see the Fair, when the business would be carried on at such rates that there would be no salaries—and there are about a million of these people working for railroads, and immediately dependent upon them—according to the census—three to five millions others, and dependent upon these stores such as Spring's, Voight, Herpolsheimer & Co., and Mohl's cigar stand. It takes to pay the salaries of the railroad employes four hundred and fifty millions of dollars every year. We don't think it will help the fair to ruin the railroads any more than the failures of the banks are helping money affairs. To be prosperous, all of us; we must all be prosperous. The Fair is all right—the time is coming for crowds to take holidays, and already crowds are on their way. If it has been merely a matter of railway fare, how is it that the Chicago people have not made their visits yet? Their fare is 10 cents the round trip and never will be lower—yet few citizens of that big town have helped than outsiders. The Fair is all right. Don't waste any time on the protestations of these pessimists, but get your little round trip ticket and get over there in good shape on the White City Flyer, which leaves via the West Michigan at 7:15 every morning and stops at the Midway Plaisance.
