Bears Failed to Take Advantage of Stock Market.

CHICAGO GAS WAS WEAK

Senate Action on Silver Influenced Trading--Wheat Lower but Provisions Were Firm on Advance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Money on call has been easy, ranging from 1½ to 2 per cent, last loan at 1½ per cent and closing offered at 1½ per cent.

Posted rates, $4.83@4.85.

Government bonds easier.

As of late the course of the stock market was controlled by advices from Washington. Without knowing anything of a definite character operators settled down to the opinion that the senate will dispose of the silver repeal bill at an early date, and that the outcome will be favorable for the advocates for the suspension of the monthly purchases of white metal. The opening was almost buoyant, prices advancing ⅛ to ¼ per cent, the Grangers, the Industrials and Western Union leading the upward movement. The rise was followed by a drop in Chicago Gas of 1½ per cent, and the general list receded ⅛ to ¾. The advices from Washington at this time were very conflicting as to the final disposition and it was questioned whether anything but unconditional repeal could give satisfaction. The bears, however, did not take advantage of the uncertainty and are evidently in the minority. In the afternoon when Sugar and Lackawanna advanced to 94½ and 158 respectively the other stocks moved up sympathetically.

Wheat Down a Point.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The market for wheat today was rather an irregular one. Receipts in the northwest were 919 cars and represented the first discouraging item of the day's news. About an hour before the close wheat began to be offered quite freely and it soon appeared that there was not such a unanimous desire to buy as existed earlier. It did not take long for traders to discover the lack of support and soon there was as much anxiety to sell as there had been early to buy. It was difficult to say who were the leaders, but Logan & Co., Schwartz & Dupee and H. V. Lester & Co. were very prominent on the selling side. December closed at 64⅝, ⅛@⅜c below yesterday.

Closing prices were:
