FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

A bedroom suit in birdseye maple is exceptionally beautiful. The main lines of the pieces are curves—the forms, ovals. Head and foot boards of the twin beds are in sweeping curves, outlined with a delicate beading and carved with Louis Seize wreath and ribbons. The bureau is a beauty oval, surmounted by an oval mirror—the ends and central drawer being carved with a beribboned wreath.

Little wonder that we are accorded the palm for forming the styles of the nineteenth century.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by grocers, labelled thus:
