MILLINERY.

Our Millinery Department, under new management this season, is receiving the most marked evidences of popular favor. Both our imported hats and those from our own designers have been pronounced the most tasteful and stylish to be had, even among goods of double their price.

One other reason our evening hats are so popular is because they are the correct thing and their wearers do not obstruct the view of others.

FURNITURE

IN NEW ANNEX.

Our New Furniture Department continues to boom, increasing daily even upon the wonderful success of its opening week. The impression we have made upon the trade is evidenced by the following quotation from the principal trade paper:

(From the "AMERICAN CABINET MAKER AND UPHOLSTERER," October 3, 1896.)

What ready cash will do with manufacturers nowadays is demonstrated in the furniture department of R. H. Macy & Co. It is said that they secured most of their goods for nearly 50 cents on the dollar. Taking, for instance a sideboard which was purchased from a firm in Grand Rapids, Mich. It is offered by a Twenty-third street dealer for $120. R. H. Macy & Co., who, it is stated, purchased goods from the same firm, offer the identical sideboard for $59.66.

Every grade of all styles of furniture at prices proportionate to the quoted example.

THE BIG STORE.

First in the Hearts of the People.

This store might well be called the "Washington" of stores. First in size, first in merchandise, first in low prices, first in enterprise, and as a consequence must naturally be first in the hearts of the people.

Washington in his day was pre-eminently the leading man, the man whom other seekers for fame tried to imitate, and when they could not successfully imitate tried to disparage. "The Big Store" has from the day of its opening stood first in everything, and it will be the pride and pleasure of the Siegel-Cooper Co. to ever offer that good quality of merchandise and that remarkable lowness of price which will always keep it first in the hearts of the economy-loving people.
