Wanamaker's

Wheel Notes

IF in doubt, get a Humber. In that there is absolute safety. In all the turmoil and flurry the Humber maintains its position at the top, without a shadow of suspicion or doubt or belittlement. It costs $73, $75, and $79,—top prices, to be sure, but worth them.

For a smaller outlay, there's the Rodman, at Twenty Dollars. There is no wheel on the present market, excited as it is, that offers such a genuine and satisfactory value-for-price. It is not enough to say that it is a fifty-dollar wheel. It was built to compete with fifty-dollar wheels, and surpass them.

Bicycle Sundries on the same basis. For instance,—

Christy Saddles, $1.65

This is for the 1898 model, of course.

The New Idea Foot Pump, the fastest and most convenient of all tire-tillers, at 60c. each. And these remarks of other wheel accessories:—

Lovekin Saddles, 1898, $1.50.
Wanamaker Tires, 1898, $5.
Twentieth Century Lamps, 1898, $1.50.
Searchlight Lamps, 1898, $2.50.
Banner Lamps, spring bracket, 1898, $1.30.
Banner Lamps, rigid bracket, 1898, $1.65.
Neverout Lamp, 1898, $2.70.
Plew Saddles, $1.75.
Brown Saddles, $2.
Veeder Cyclometer, 65c.

More Summer Dresses, at a Price THERE are one hundred in the lot, and we will not sell one of them until nine-thirty this morning. That's to give a fair chance to such women as cannot be here at eight, for an hour's selling will break up the assortment, and a half-day will finish it.

Summer Dresses, they are, in linens and lawns, light summer colors in Vassar checks and black with floral designs. Prettily made and trimmed. They are sorts that should bring from $4.50 to $7.

Choose at $2.25 each.

Second floor, Broadway.

Handsome Silk Waists at Smallest Prices Certainly lower-priced than you've seen garments of such high grade as these. They're of plain or fancy taffetas, and of light or dark satin; all in the season's most approved styles; a great many in handsome plaited effects. Values in this lot are $7.50 to $14. Most of them were $10. Choose a beautiful silk waist to-day at $5.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

"The" Glove for One Dollar OF course it's the Princess May. No other dollar glove deserves the distinction of the definite article. If summer-time needs demand of you a good glove, and your summer pleasuring exacts a glove that takes hard wear kindly and doesn't cost much, then the Princess May is exactly the glove for you.

We take pride in telling prospective voyagers to Europe to take a few pairs of Princess May with them, for it is better than any five-franc glove that Paris shows. When New York can beat Paris in one of her own specialties, there's excuse for some exultation. The Princess May is, so far as we can learn, the only fine real kid glove sold at $1 in all America.

Tenth street.

Rare Bargains for Children THREE especially attractive offerings to-day, the first of which is a lot of handsome pique coats, about fifty, prices on which have been $6 to $23.50. They're now marked $3 to $9.

Very low priced is this line of children's guimps. They have dotted Swiss yokes, neck, and sleeves trimmed with neat embroidery; sizes 4 to 10 years. At 50c. each, they're unusually cheap.

Then there's another half-price offering. Girls' blouse waists at 25c. They are of very pretty, light, striped and figured lawns, in sizes 6 to 16 years. Not a waist in the lot worth less than a half dollar.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.
