The Wanamaker Store.

The First Showing

Of Fall Millinery Styles

HERE they are,—the first-comers of a rush of beauty, and the first lesson in Fall styles. We like to lead, especially with such models as these.

Linn Faulkner, Lewis, Pouyanne, Borocco and Louise Pujol the elder, all Parisians, send these. Leaders among leaders in the millinery world and authorities that are safe to follow.

The styles are marked. Note the odd little revival of the fashion of sixty years ago, elaborated and refined to a 1900 taste. Note the use of feathers. Note the "butterfly" effects. Note all and note carefully, for these are not experiments, these are models.

Visiting buyers of millinery are welcome.

Silk Remnants The difference between remnants from our standpoint and remnants from yours, is that we do not like them, and you do. We are anxious to get rid of them,—you are anxious to get them; a condition that breeds bargains faster than we can write them down. This morning, a case in point. A big tableful in the 10th st. aisle, filled up with the prettiest short-ends of silks you ever picked over. And cheap, of course, —half prices, chiefly; some less, few more. Among them:

Plain colored taffetas, and some in stripes and figures, satins, India silks, bengalines, poplins, surahs and plain black silks in about every weave.

From 1-yd. to 16-yd. lengths.

Women's Summer Gowns A writer in a fashion article this week makes the statement that a woman cannot have too many of these simple, pretty, inexpensive gowns. Apparently you agree with her, for we seem to be unable to offer you too many. At prices like these, especially, it is easy to make your seashore toilet one continual round of variation:

$17.50—Exquisite white and colored piques, best styles, variously trimmed; values up to $38.

$20—White and colored organdies and elaborate piques; varied assortment; values up to $50.

$5—Mainly piques, handsomely designed and trimmed; values up to $14.

$10—White or ga ze, ribbon-trimmed; also piques on several colors; insertion trimmed; value to $23.

$13.50—Mostly of piques in various colors, some imported; all handsomely trimmed; value $27.50.

Second floor, Broadway.

The Humber and Some Other Kings The Humber was king, but even in its fall from kingship it retains the admiration of all. Only a few of these wheels left, now,—they are not being manufactured this year, and those we have were made in the Spring of 1898, before the crash came. Made to uphold the prices of $100, $102 and $106, but selling now for $35 for any Model.

Broadway.

Men's Bathing Suits, $1.50 They have been $1.75 to $2.25, and were cheap then. All of excellent worsted, well made; ravy blue or black; sizes 36 to 46. Perhaps enough for to-day and to-morrow morning at $1.50.

Men's Collars, 2 for 25c. Fully equal in all respects of appearance and wear to sorts selling regularly at twice the price. Five ply, and linen on both sides, so as to hold their shape in warm weather. All good styles, including three heights of the popular "turnover lock-front." 12½c., though 25c. would be reasonable.

Men's Silk Scarfs at 50c. Though now half a dollar, that is only one-half and one-third their regular values. Choose from fifty dozen, in many patterns, at 50c. each.

Men's Furnishing Store, Ninth street.

Men's and Women's Bicycle Hosiery Various good styles in this particular collection, but all at one value, and that's a fair dollar's worth. The price, however, is only 50c. pair.

Fast black lisle thread; sizes 8½ to 11; fancy cuffs in black-and-white, and in numerous black and colored effects. Men's and women's, 50c., instead of $1.

Men's Underwear It is light-weight balbriggan—incomplete as to sizes. Pink, blue and lavender, with faint white stripes. Your size is here in one of those colors, and you may choose at 50c. a garment, though yesterday they sold at $1.

Men's Sun Umbrellas, $1 Large, light-colored umbrellas, faced in cool green, warranted fast color; easy to carry; in vogue for outing, seashore or country use. $1 each.

The Boys' Clothing Store Is a Bargain Corner Worthiness first—then moderate cost. They are the points most considered by those that have boys to clothe. And those points receive due consideration here. But there's an additional incentive—one for the boy himself, —style. We've taken unusual care of that, too. Here are various lots, all durable, stylish, and—priced so:

At $2.50—Double-breasted Jacket Suits, of linen; $3, $4, $5 kinds.

At $5—Bicycle Suits, in fancy plaids; sizes 8 to 19 years; values up to $10.

At $1—About 250 washable Sailor Suits in striped galateas, linens and blue crecle; handsomely trimmed; were $1.50 and $1.75.

At 50c.—Washable Knee Trousers in white duck, brown linen, blue crecle, and linen crash. A splendid selection.

At 50c.—Blouses and Shirt Waists, percales; were 75c.
