The Wanamaker Store.

Typical Wanamaker Store News

Every Word and Figure Below Is of Importance

THIS is all legitimate and typical news. It treats chiefly of new goods at their legitimate and regular prices, as we judge such things. It is not the season for sensational reductions.

The manifest and genuine advantages and economies that are shown below, are, therefore, tenfold significant of power. They come, not because of the season, but in spite of it. We have great respect for the glittering bargain, and are strenuous in our pursuit of it in your interest, but the real test of a store lies in its regular prices, after all.

There is now no waning season nor multifold disaster to cloud the issue. Superior values at this time in Fall goods are the direct result of superior methods and command. So test us.

We have never carried such stocks since the beginning of our dry-goods business. We have never had more to show you of goods that can be found nowhere else. We have never had more that is beautiful, new, original, worthy and exclusive within our doors. And we have never offered so much for so little.

We might add that we have never had such large daily audiences. But that's to be expected when there is so much to see in a store so easily reached.

Here's a Sensational Bicycle Item

This news will make a stir in wheeling circles. There's a touch of solemnity in it, too, for it marks "Finis" to the story of the greatest wheel ever built,—the Humber.

Choose Any Model in a Humber Bicycle at $25
(Built to sell at $100, $102 and $106).
Choose Any Continental Bicycle at $18
(Built to sell at $50, lately selling at $25 and $26.50).

Eighteen Thousand White Aprons

The main isle will be found avalanched with white lawn. You will have a new idea of 18,000 as a quantity when you see it, for it will not nearly hold all these goods.

Big as the quantity is it will not last long,—these drifts of white lawn will melt swiftly in the sunshine of your favor. For never were such good aprons so cheap.

Many, many, many styles, alike in only one thing,—they are all made from a fine grade of sheer white lawn. Beyond that, infinite in variety. Some are very plain, some are highly elaborate in trimming. Some are dainty enough for ornament, some are honest work-a-day aprons with a serious purpose. Five different divisions of cheapness:—

Regular 25c. Aprons, 15c. Regular 35c. Aprons, 18c. Regular 40c. Aprons, 20c. Regular 50c. Aprons, 25c. Regular 75c. Aprons, 35c.

Women's Knit Fall Underwear

Timely for you to think of. We thought of them and ordered them half a year ago. Therefore, fabrics and trimmings were made, and cut, and finished according to our own design. That makes them doubly Wanamaker's, and that makes them reliable.

Cotton, Silk, Silk Mixtures, Wool and Merino, the best of them all, made into comfortable, good-looking, long-wearing garments that ought to command bigger prices than these—and generally do command them:

50c.—Ribbed cotton vests and drawers; medium or heavy weight; drawers have French band; side buttons.
75c.—Ribbed merino vests; low neck, short or no sleeves. High neck, short sleeves, 85c.; with long sleeves, $1.
86c.—Swiss ribbed wool vests, white; low neck, short or no sleeves. High neck, short sleeves, $1; with long sleeves, $1.25.
$12—Silk ribbed vests; necks hand-crocheted in four styles.
$1.50—Merino Union suits, white or silver gray; buttoned across chest; medium weight in white.
$3—Silk-and-wool combination suits, cream colored; low neck, no sleeves; closed fronts. High neck, short sleeves, $3.75; with long sleeves, $4.25.
$6.50—All-Silk Swiss ribbed combination suits; heavy weight; high neck; long sleeves; cream or black.

The New Black Dress Goods

This is only a branch of our dress goods stock, but it's one of the most important of all, and we treat it with the care and attention that it deserves. In twenty-two years of providing you with dress fabrics, we have never had so much in black to show you.

There are more than one thousand styles in that one color, for you to choose among. We show them in the Tenth St.-Fourth Ave. corner of the main floor, under a clear, pure north light that is merciless in its disclosure of faults. Nothing but a good, rich smooth black will endure this test. We have nothing else.

There is no longer attached to black an exclusive significance of mourning. Madame Fashion has long since recognized its richness and effectiveness, and it holds a high place in her favor this season. The new weaves include some magnificent effects obtained through the introduction of chenille, spangles and cut jet. The whole stock is one worth examining with care.

The New Costumes and Wraps

Among these are two hundred new Golf and Tourists Capes, chiefly from Berlin designers. Made from Scotch rugs of the finest, in soft but brilliant plaids, and in quiet, plain colors. Many new details of arrangement and trimming are shown, but the novelty of the patterns and colors will strike you most forcibly and favorably. They are astonishingly cheap for such obviously high-class garments. $17 to $35.

Some new Evening Wraps and Opera Capes, also,—exquisite things. Chiefly in cloths, trimmed with lace and fur. They must be seen,—words won't describe them. $34 to $100.

Some new Tailor-made suits from Paris have just come in. You will get a wholly new standard of judgment on elaboration of detail, by looking these over.

New Tailored Suits from American makers are arrivals of every day. $10 to $75. When you come in, ask to be shown the suits at $22.50, if only as an object lesson in superior suit-value-for-price.

Decorated Plates $1.50 Kinds at 50c.

They are shown for the first time this morning. Several beautiful styles, all full dinner size. There's going to be quick selling of these—that's a foregone conclusion, justified by the extremely low price. Plates with festoon border, two broad gold bands on rim with circle of flowers between, gold rosette in center. Regularly $15 a dozen. But you may have choice of the above, and other equally good and just as attractively decorated plates, at 50c. each.

No Better Clothing Than Ours

We say, without the possibility of intelligent contradiction, that there is no better clothing made than that made for us. We have been studying cloth and tailoring for more than twenty-five years, and we know whereof we speak.

We do more than merely clothe men and boys. We dress them. Fit and style are matters of policy with us, and high quality is a principle. Nevertheless, this is also true,—Quality for quality, we sell clothing cheaper than any house we know.

Let this list give you what it can of suggestion, then come in and see. The stocks are magnificently complete. If you wish a hint of the exceptional, accept these:—

The Men's light Evening Oversack, at $30.
