The Wanamaker Store.

Our Insured Shoes Make Trouble

SOME two month ago we first advertised Men's black and russet calfskin Shoes at $3.50, under this guarantee—

"We guarantee the upper leather of these shoes for twelve months from time of purchase. If any break occurs caused by actual wear, we will exchange the shoes for another pair without charge."

And we put our name to it.

Now, we believe that those who read that announcement, and the subsequent statements about these shoes, believed us in a broad, easy, non-contradictory way—we know that our advertisements are believed. But, if the general public appreciated our newspaper statements as fully as do manufacturers, our present stores would not begin to accommodate those who would come to us for supplies.

These statements are sober and candid.

We have no patents on methods—we have no secrets. This business grows because of the work and study given to it. Its possibilities have warranted our sending buyers entirely around the globe and in maintaining organizations here and in Europe that make best service possible.

We have before us whole pages of excited trade discussion about our insuring of shoes. The gist of it is, as stated in words in one interview, "The advertisement means what it says"—we, as leather merchants and shoemakers, can only wait to see how it comes out. They fear the day is coming when shoemakers will have to guarantee what they make. Serious. There is a risk in promising that even the most carefully selected leather will not break through within a year. We take the risk—so far as it concerns you: no matter who stands by us. The shoe producers of the land join in a symposium of discussion over a simple forward step by this shoe store. And progress in other lines is watched as closely by the trades concerned. Is there a moral?

WE HAVE DUPLICATED THE BOOK STORE

To make holiday buying easy in this busiest of book stores, we have opened an Annex at 74 E. Ninth street—just across the street from the regular store. Every book obtainable in the main store (and that means all books fit to buy) may be had in the holiday branch. Come to whichever seems roomiest at the time you want to shop or browse.

Men's Business Suits at $15

Broadly stated, in general effect the ready-made suit at $15 is to be judged by the $22 suit made to order. We say this as tailors who furnish both kinds. The reason is plain—whatever is said to the contrary, normal figures lend themselves to a certain possibility of fit from regularly graduated sizes of garments. The curve and slope is intelligently taken—and as a rule, the cutter of clothing to come into our class of ready-made is a higher salaried man than the custom tailor—because he must be most certain; because the blunders of blunderers would be most costly.

The custom tailor is a man of work and worry — his time and your convenience seldom dovetail, and his charges, though highest, are seldom more profitable than those of the seller of ready-made.

But the suits to-day are better than $15 suits—they are the round-up of certain good lots of this season, suits whose fellows have sold until to-day at $18, $20 and $22.50. They're the suits that a hundred and seventy-four men may share to-day.

Overcoats, $8.50 to $55.

Here's one lot: Of cheviot—Oxford gray or black; wool lined, satin shoulder lining, and the price is $15. Second floor. Fourth avenue.

Men's Shirts and Ties

TWO BARGAINS

We have twenty-five hundred fine Shirts—of madras and percale—to sell to-day at 50c instead of $1 and $1.50. The greater half are of the finer quality. Good colorings, fine shirt making—but just at the moment the rage is for up-and-down stripes. These have cross-wise stripes. The fashion changes every whip-stitch.

Batswing Ties, 50c. Of the same silks used in the wider ties at $1 and $1.50. We find that it takes so much less silk to make the quite-popular batswing style, that we shall sell them cheaper. It's only fair. Wonder nobody ever thought of it — or, if they did, how they hoped to keep the wrongly-high price in force. Men's Store, Ninth street.

Handkerchiefs for Gifts

Why prefer Wanamaker's as a handkerchief store? Because it has become the best through a score of years of study. The linen man is among the looms of Europe half his time. Too bad, but he'll be abroad for his Christmas dinner.

And we cannot be coaxed, cajoled or driven into letting trashy handkerchiefs into the store. Every one, at all times, is of pure linen, unless it is silk. We are generally considered over particular by manufacturers. But think of the charm of having the best store.

Women's Embroidered Handkerchiefs close to half price—a lot that the maker sorted out for flaws, too little to hurt. A stitch or a dozen stitches will make the worst one perfect. Values up to $2.50. Prices, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1.

Pretty gift boxes free with purchases of several hankerchiefs from the special and regular stocks—our Christmas compliment. Main floor, near Broadway.

Forty-ninth Annual Thanksgiving Dinner at the Five Points Mission, Site of the Old Brewery, 63 Park St.
Eight hundred little ones are anxiously hoping for the usual Thanksgiving dinner. Without it they must go hungry. During the year 900 taught in the school, 105,740 dinners served, 23,206 articles of clothing and 1,482 pairs of shoes distributed. Number taught and cared for since Mission was opened, May 1850, 55,540. We greatly need and earnestly solicit donations of money, clothing or food to make this 49th Thanksgiving dinner as plenteous and joyous as those which have preceded it.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Thanksgiving Tables Big and Small.

What would some of the Puritans, with the guests of the first Thanksgiving Day to entertain, have thought of dining tables that will stretch out to fourteen feet? Flemish, Renaissance, Colonial, every beautiful style; all having the finely polished tops so essential nowadays.

Side tables are as beautiful; plain or finished with delicate carvings or lines of inlay. Daintiest of all are our little carving tables—low, with a shelf that slides out, providing a place for plates.

These would delight every housewife who would keep her table decorations intact, and could be had only when you
