DON'T FAIL TO SEE THE BELLES OF BLACKVILLE at Tschida Hall, next Thursday evening, Nov. 9, given by Queen of Sheba Chapter No. 70, Order of the Eastern Star. There is a most excellent cast under the management of Mrs. Mattie R. Hicks, Mrs. Gertrude Barber, stage manager, and Mme. May B. Mason, musical director. Admission 35 cents. Music by McCullough Orchestra.

The Hallowe'en Party which was given by the Catholic Men's Club at Bowlby Hall last Tuesday evening was a most delightful affair and was quite well attended mostly by young folks who always can have a good time if allowed to follow the bent of their inclination. Of course, the popular music played by the McCullough Orchestra was as pleasing as ever and was fully enjoyed.

Mr. F. L. McGhee, who was sick for several days, has recovered.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Frances E. Preston, the well-known reader and W. C. T. U. worker, was entertained at 6 o'clock dinner by Mrs. Bettie Patterson Jones. Those present besides the guest of honor were: Mesdames Ione E. Gibbs, Ida Sellers, J. M. Allison, Mr. Hyatt of Minneapolis, Mrs. E. J. Murphy of St. Paul. Mrs. Jones was assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Barbour.

While passing St. Paul Monday, Oct. 30, enroute to the coast, Mrs. J. A. Sales, of 108 E. 12th street, entertained at breakfast Mr. and Mrs. J. Alfred Wilson and Mr. William Cumby. Wilson and Cumby are better known in vaudeville as the "Band Man and His Band." Mrs. Wilson was Miss Carrie Lee Allen, who once lived in St. Paul. She is now a bride of three weeks, and is accompanying her husband to the coast, where they expect to spend the winter.

A quiet but very pleasant wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. W. A. Williams, uncle of the bride, on Rice street, Tuesday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Albert Jones and Miss Carrie Williams. Rev. E. H. McDonald performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. E. H. Jones. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Williams, and Miss Frances Goins acted as bridesmaid. A splendid supper followed and the affair was very pleasant in every particular.

IN MR. FRANCIS' HONOR.

A Splendid Supper Given by Mr. John H. Dillingham.

On last Monday evening the residence of Mr. J. H. Dillingham was the scene of one of the most unique and pleasant social affairs our city has ever witnessed.

Very few men among us have ever had so spontaneous and unanimous expression of regard and high esteem bestowed upon them as the stag supper which was given in honor of W. T. Francis Esq., by Mr. Dillingham.

As is well known Mr. Francis, who has graduated as a stenographer, a telegrapher, a doctor and a lawyer, is one of the most versatile men of our city. He has been found in the fore front at all times and on all occasions looking to interests and welfare of his fellow men, and it was very fitting to thus honor him while he was living and could himself enjoy the enconiums which were justly bestowed upon him.

It would be vain to attempt to tell of all the good things that were set before the twenty-nine gentlemen who gathered beneath the hospitable roof of the host as evidence of the rare culinary skill of his better half, and vainer still to tell of the good things said of the guest-of-honor. But some idea may be gleaned when it is told that the speakers were: T. H. Lyles, T. D. Parker, O. C. Hall, C. H. Miller, O'Howell, Walker Williams, B. S. Smith, C. S. Smith, J. H. Loomis, G. W. James, A. Payne, F. D. McCrackney, C. F. Adams, J. Q. Adams, W. R. Morris and J. H. Dillingham, all of whom outdid themselves in words of commendation, respect and esteem. The other gentlemen present were: S. E. Hall, F. B. Simpson, Dr. Voldo Turner, G. B. Lowe, E. De Baptiste, Ed. James, R. D. Chapman, Geo. W. Wills, W. V. Howard, L. M. Terrill, J. H. Charleston, C. H. Booker, W. H. Parker.

Mr. Frances is at present chief clerk of the Legal Department of the Northern Pacific Railway to which position he rose by personal merit from office boy. He was the leading candidate for the position of minister to Haiti a short time ago and for which he is still in the lead, and it was in recognition of the magnificent showing he made in that matter that prompted Mr. Dillingham to give the splendid supper for which both he and Mr. Francis are to be heartily congratulated. It certainly was good to be there as it was one of the jolliest and most helpful and uplifting social functions our city ever had.

A GREAT MASS MEETING.

Held at Old Capitol Last Sunday for Crispus Attucks Orphanage and Old Folks' Home.

Pursuant to a widely circulated call a large crowd of the citizens of the Twin Cities met at the old Capitol last Sunday afternoon for the purpose of furthering the interests of the Crispus Attucks Orphanage and Old Folks' Home. The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. H. Hickman and on motion of Mr. O'Howell, Mr. T. H. Lyles was selected as chairman. Father Stephen Theobold offered the invocation. Mr. O'Howell stated the object and aims of the meeting and exhibited a large painting of the proposed new building which is to be erected in the near future unless all signs fail.

The I. X. L. band was present and discoursed splendid music.

Mr. W. R. Morris made a splendid address. The orphans from the home under the direction of Mr. J. Will King, the matron, rendered a song delightfully.

His Honor, Mayor H. P. Kellar, then made a splendid address full of words of good cheer and encouragement.

St. Philip's choir rendered a selection.

Mrs. R. C. Minor played "America" in which all joined in singing.

Mrs. J. H. Hickman made a splendid address, as also did Mr. Cardigan, Rev. A. H. Lealtad, Rev. E. H. McDonald, Mrs. Ione Gibbs and Rev. J. R. White. A handsome collection was raised and several hundreds of dollars were subscribed.

Taken all together it was a splendid meeting out of which much good must surely come. Appeals will be made to the public for subscriptions and it is hoped all will subscribe liberally.

THE SOCIAL TEN

Will Give a Grand Ball and Reception.

The Social Ten will give a Grand Ball and Reception on Monday evening, November 6, at Tschida Hall, corner Arundel and Lafond Streets.

Two prizes will be awarded. Reception given later.

Full orchestra will be in attendance, beginning at 8:30 and lasting until late.

Come and spend the night at the most beautiful hall and help make this Social Ten a grand success.

THE McCALL DRUG CO.

No. 400 Second Avenue South, Minneapolis.

The McCall Drug Co., 400 Second Avenue, So., Minneapolis, see advertisement in this issue, is one of the leading drug stores of not only the Twin Cities but of the entire northwest.

They carry an up-to-date assortment of everything usually kept in a well appointed drug store, including a stock of fine candy, cigars, soda water, etc.

That they are up-to-date is significant from the fact that of their employees four are Afro-Americans and among them are Samuel and Roy Scott, two very deservedly popular young men, who began at the soda fountain but now assist in all parts of the store. When you wish anything in their line call in and see Sam or Roy, they'll treat you right.

Children Teething.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

The mother of Olga Wilson of 532 St. Anthony avenue, gave her daughter a very delightful Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening, in which about thirty young folks had a splendid time.

The Art Club gave a Hallowe'en party at the residence of Mr. J. B. Stokes on Tuesday night. The guests were dressed in fantastic costumes and all had a jolly time. Whist was played and Mr. C. H. Miller won first prize. Mr. Malcolm Bradshaw secured the "booby." A supper of apples, doughnuts, cider, etc., was enjoyed by all. About twenty were present.

The fifteen white "red caps" that have been holding forth at the Union Depot for a long time were all discharged last Wednesday and their places were filled by Afro-Americans, as it was found by the experiment that they suited the public better. Good.

"THE HOUSE NEXT DOOR."

The Next Attraction at the Grand Opera House.

If Christianity and Judaism took the commandment "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself" and contented themselves with interpreting the word "Neighbor" in a somewhat limited way, by applying it to the one who lives in "The House Next Door," then the sentiment of race hatred around which this beautiful, entertaining and morally educating comedy has been woven would be a thing of the past. It could no longer be the mainspring of a modern play. But alas, this is not the case and racial prejudice, above all—of Gentile against Jew—is a sad but real fact in life. Therefore, both Christian and Jew should be thankful for an opportunity to witness a performance of "The House Next Door." It is a play that on the whole should prove an efficient force on behalf of sympathy and good will between Christian and Jew. Both, in seeing it, will derive much pleasure and cannot possibly escape moral profit. While it aims merely to entertain it incidentally innoculates mutual understanding and amity between the two races. The original production of this great play will be the offering by the Schiller Amusement Co. at the Grand next week, commencing Sunday matinee, Nov. 5.
