"THE UNION AS IT WAS."

WASHINGTON, July 31.

An atrocious case, illustrative of slave-holding barbarism, was told by a crippled negro who appeared at the office of the Freedmen's Bureau to-day, asking relief. This colored man says he was formerly free, and working for wages in Maryland, across the eastern branch. He went South in 1857, with a Dr. Lee, for whom he had worked, persuaded by the specious promises of higher pay, going first to Athens, Ga., afterwards to Knoxville, Tenn., where Dr. Lee for a time kept the Knoxville Hotel, and subsequently removing to Jonesboro. Receiving wages at first, he was at length held and treated as a slave. In the winter of 1863, Dr. Lee hired him out to the rebel Quartermaster at Jonesboro. After remaining there ten months he attempted to escape to the lines of the national army. He got twenty miles away, but was caught and taken back, when this rebel Quartermaster took him to Surgeon Wailling, in charge of the rebel hospital there, and ordered him to cut off his feet and hands, to prevent, as he said his attempt to run away again. The Doctor partially complied, amputating both legs just above the ankle. He left the stumps undressed over night, but finding him alive next day, said. "What, you d—d nigger, are you alive yet? I intended to kill you." He then had him placed in an ambulance and taken to the hut of an old colored man, where he remained until our troops occupied the place.

This colored man brings vouchers from white people, corroborative of his statements, which are believed by the officers of the Bureau.

ARTEMAS WARD'S BROTHER.

SHECARGO, March 11, 1865.

To the Edytur of the Sunday Times:

Four years ago, while in Indianopeles, injyania, I wrote to Mr. Prentiss, off the Louseville Jurnill, regarding the whereabouts of my brother, Artymas Ward, of hoom I hav not hurd sinst he was a boi,

"And we roamed the feelds tugether," happy as a Mackeral in Kashmeer Sox.—There was four of us brothers, all bois. The follering is a pedagog of our family; Our parents, off wich there was twu, consisted off our father and mother, namli:

Hanner and Erysipelas Ward. The latter (my pa) was given heavily to Plugg tobacker, of which he chewed incessantly, though Biled Bacon, done raire, was his best hold. He was a man who could not go long between drinks. The kamil did not perdominate in him, and G. Hover took him at the age of 60 after 2 daze sickniss. The follering is applicable to his case:

"O, kum, O kum with me."—S. Spere.

After the old man's deth, our mother was left with the four bois aforesaid, to whizz namely, i. e:

Erysipelas (named after father.)
Artymas (the Long Lost.)
Rodney and myself.
Olonzo (named after Olonzo off Pizzaronean celebrity.)

My eldest brother Ery went into the wool bizziness, while Rod went out to the Orrigone territory, and imbarkt in the Fur traid. Ery did poorly at the wool, and busted, but Rod is still in the Fur, coining munny.

Artymas, at the tender age off eleven, was suddenly mist from home. In this konnexshin I wood remark on old stocking belonging to mother, containing fore dollars in silver and fifty-too cents in kopper disappeered about the same time. There was a party of awkrabats, of dubble summersett proclivitys, in our naberhood a few daze previs, and it was serposed Arty had been inviggled—

"To leve his ga and happy home,
Sands eyes, sands teeth brushes,
Sands' pale ale.
The worrild is all a stage,
The rest is lemon and vanilla.—Jack Spear.

APPLES.—Albert Knight, Esq., of this place, has several trees in his garden bearing large fine looking apples. He has fifteen or twenty really fine looking apple trees, sufficiently large to bear, beside as many more smaller ones—altogether a fine looking orchard.—St. Peter Tribune.

INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmer's Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have progeny and descendants no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings.

☞ See "Costar's" advertisement in this paper.

1865.

"COSTAR'S" RAT EXTERMINATOR is simple, safe, and safe and sure—the most perfect RAT-ification meeting we have ever attended. Every Rat that can get it, properly prepared according to directions, will eat it, and every one that eats it will die, generally at some place as distant as possible from where the medicine was taken. —Lake Shore, Mich., Mirror.
