HORSE THIEVES CAGED.—On Friday, Hon. Jno. McGill, Mayor and ex officio Justice of the Peace, committed Jack Williams and Thos. Masons, both colored, to jail, in default of bail to await the action of the Circuit Court. They were charged with horse stealing.

FRANKLIN FEMALE COLLEGE.—We are indebted to Prof. W. Clark, Holly Springs, for a polite invitation to be present at the concert by the young ladies of his college on the 14th inst. We regret that "circumstances over which we have no control," prevent our attendance.

CENTRAL FEMALE INSTITUTE.—We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the exercises of Commencement Week at Central Female Institute. The principal exercises are announced in another column. This is Mr. Hillman's 23d annual commencement at Clinton, and he has enough school work in him for a quarter of a century more.

ESTABLISHED IN 1841.—This refers to the well known carriage repository of Mr. H. E. Sizer, which was established in this city in that year, and has consequently been one of the institutions of Jackson for the last thirty-five years. It is complete in all its branches and cannot be excelled in the South. Read his advertisement and go and see him.

MISSISSIPPI COLLEGE.—In another column will be found the programme for Commencement Week at Clinton. The College, under the Presidency of Dr. Webb, is in a prosperous condition—about one hundred and fifty young men being in attendance. Hon. C. E. Hooker delivers the address before the Literary Societies on the 26th.

FLOWER GATHERERS.—Going through the cemetery a few Sabbath evenings since, we saw a number of persons gathering bouquets (and they were not all darkies either.) We suggest to the city officials that a policeman stationed in the cemetery for a few Sundays might do something toward replenishing the city purse, besides convincing the flower gatherers that the relatives and friends of those interred there, planted the flowers to ornament the grounds, and not to supply the demand for Sabbath evening bouquets. Suppose it's tried just to see.

Rev. Chas B. Galloway.

At the last regular Church Conference of the Jackson Station, (Miss. Conference) held at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning, the 11th inst., the following preamble and resolutions, offered by M. A Van Hook, Esq., were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In the opinion of this Church Conference, some respite from continuous labor is essential in every pursuit and avocation to enable the man to recuperate the energies wasted by an unintermitted strain upon the physical and mental structure, and appreciating the abundant labors in the cause of Christ of our beloved pastor, who in fair weather and foul, with congregations or without, is always to be found where duty calls, and of whom it might be said, if he had fallen, "He died at his post," and believing that we can, in no other way more gratifying and acceptable to him, give expression to the respect and affection, the brotherly love which enshrines him in our hearts, not only as our pastor, but as friend and brother, than by a temporary release from his official and pastoral duties; therefore,

Resolved, That leave of absence for one month during the present summer, be, and is hereby tendered to our beloved pastor, Rev. C. B. Galloway, invoking the protection and blessing of God upon him and us during our separation.

He Kept His Word.

They walked into one of the stores on State street, and the polite clerk was very prompt to inquire, "Is there anything that I can do for you?" Without replying, she turned to her companion and remarked: "You know, Jim, you sed if I'd take yer, you was to gwine to gim'e a new dress."

"To be sho' I did; certainly, of course, dat's what I fotch yer ter town fur. Boss, jes' han' down some of dem five-cent callikers; look at dem, and don't balk yer fancy. Pick your choose, yut, pick your choose, but don't you disremember, Hanner, dat it only takes ten yards fur to make you a dress."

And as he walked out he remarked to an acquaintance: "If I'd know'd dat nigger gal was goin' to be so distravigant dis soon, I wouldn't 'ev marred her, sho'."

AN important notice to the owners of real estate in Hinds county, will be found in another column of this paper, signed by John Shelton, Esq., President of the Board of Supervisors. It will be seen that every land-holder, whose assessment is incorrect, can have the same corrected in July next. For the convenience of the Board, as well as to secure accuracy in the matter, it will be seen that the Board has adopted certain rules, and they should be strictly complied with. It is proper to say that the law does not authorize payment for the notice as published, and that the expense attaching thereto is borne one-half by the printer, and the other half from the private purses of the Supervisors. Our Legislature presumes that every one is familiar with the laws, but this presumption often works great hardships.—Raymond Gazette.

The notice referred to in the foregoing will be found in another column. Real estate owners in Hinds county should avail themselves of this opportunity to make corrections in existing assessments, where the increase or depreciation in value may require.

In order to drive the dull trade of this season, we have in contemplation a series of "Jobs" that we propose to run each week, and in some instances for one week only. These lots represent goods that are perfect in every particular, and are being offered at sacrificed prices for two reasons—to give our friends a benefit in these hard times, and to benefit ourselves from the stir they will inevitably create.

Old Age is Honorable.

This is true, but how few of us like to look old. Age, with its grey hairs, is never welcome, and the various arts have been brought into requisition to hide its ravages. In too many instances agents are used for that purpose, which inflict serious injury on the constitution. Especially is this the case with a large majority of the Hair Dyes of the present day. For an elegant preparation that will impart a perfectly natural color, without doing the least harm to the hair or health, we recommend that made by Dr. Tutt, of New York. It possesses qualities that no other Hair Dye does, and as its analysis proves is as innocent as mountain spring water. may 14-2w.

Pardon.

At the April term, 1876, of the Circuit Court of Lee county, Jos. Smith, colored, was convicted of "shooting with intent to kill," and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the State Penitentiary. On June 7th, he was pardoned by His Excellency, Governor Stone.

The pardon was recommended by Hon. B. B. Boone, (Judge), John M. Allen, (District Attorney) J. M. Eckford, S. J. High Thomas B. Smith, Osgood Taylor, and many white and colored citizens residing in the neighborhood. The reason assigned for the pardon was: Smith suspected the party with whom the difficulty occured with too great intimacy with his (Sam's) wife. On the day of the difficulty, Smith was returning from church, and met his wife in company with the suspected party. When he interfered to induce his wife to accompany him home, he was attacked by the other party with a razor, when S. fired his pistol, in the air, it is alleged, and not at the attacking party.

The evil Fruits of weak Digestion

There is no pathological fact more clearly ascertained than that the most formidable phases of nervous disease are traceable to imperfect digestion. Ingomnia, with its train of direful consequences, proceeds more frequently from weakness of the Stomach than from any other cause. Mere sedatives are powerless to cure nervousness and soon cease to palliate its symptoms. The true way to strengthen the nervous system is to invigorate the digestive and assimilative organs, upon whose unobstructed action its equilibrium is absolutely dependent. The daily use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will do more to brace and soothe the weakened and irritated nerves and induce sound, refreshing sleep—nature's grand catholicon—than all the so-called nervines to be found in the pharmacopœa or out of it. A wine-glassful of the Bitters should be taken before each meal.

Tucker, of Chickasaw, President; Richard P. Lake of Grenada, Vice-President; D. P. Black, Secretary and Treasurer, and Martin & Bates, Attorneys.

The following named members of the Board were appointed as an Executive Committee for the ensuing year: S. Myers, T. J. Buchanan, W. F. Tucker, H. C. Horton, L. C. Lee, and J. B. Crowder.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by this Board of Directors, That the regular salaries of the officers, viz.: President, Chief-Engineer, Secretary and Treasurer and Attorneys, be suspended until this Board of Directors shall deem it right and proper the same be allowed and paid.

Resolved, That the officers and directors of the Vicksburg & Nashville Railroad Company pledge themselves to hold all the bonds voted to the road by the several counties, and now in the hands of the Company, until such time as in the opinion of the directors there is a favorable prospect for the resumption of work on the road.

The Board adjourned to meet in Grenada on the call of the President.

Elsewhere will be found the proceedings of the Director's meeting of the Nashville & Vicksburg R. R. at their recent session in Okalona. To Owners of Real Estate IN HINDS COUNTY!!

IN ACCORDANCE with the provisions of a Law approved 26th February, 1876, the Board of Supervisors will hold a meeting in the court-house in Raymond, beginning on the first Monday in July, and continuing as long as may be necessary, for the purpose of correcting the Land Assessment Rolls of said county, with full power to increase or diminish the assessment of any property, and to assess that which may not have been assessed, etc.

With the adjournment of the July meeting, the powers of the Board in this regard will wholly end, and the matter, therefore, demands the early attention of Land Owners. The Board will expect all who may desire changes made in the assessment of their lands to file with their clerk, on or before the first day of said meeting, written statements showing how their real estate is now assessed, and the alterations they desire made.
