—The public schools of this city will close on Friday next, to be re-opened first Monday in January.

—The cotton compress is doing a good thing for Jackson, as well as for the farmers in the surrounding country.

—It is rumored that Jackson is to lose one of its fairest belles on the 15th inst. Names and full particulars later.

—Mr. Erskine Watkins is arranging for the building of a residence on State street. H. M. Taylor, Esq., is the contractor.

—The popular firm of Whiting & Gray has been dissolved, Mr. Gray retiring from the business, which will hereafter be conducted by Mr. W. A. Whiting.

—The Edwards House and belongings were sold at auction yesterday. Mr. Robt. A. Saunders, administrator of the estate of the late Jno. W. Robinson, was the purchaser.

—Mississippi Commandery, Knights Templar, will meet next Monday night, when officers are to be chosen for the ensuing year. The Sir Knights are requested to take due notice.

—We heard a well-informed citizen of Jackson say, a few days since, that the Federal Building would certainly be placed on the old Bowman House lot. He said his reasons for the assertion were conclusive.

—It is expected that work will be commenced during the month on the new truck-house of Pearl Hook and Ladder Company No. 1. The house is to be two stories high, and is to cover the entire lot owned by the company.

—The Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Honor and other benevolent fraternities, will all hold meetings during this month for the election of officers for next year. A full vote is desirable. Let every member attend, if possible.

—The "faithful few" members of the Christian Church in this city are making an earnest effort to secure the services of a pastor for next year, and are receiving help from many not accustomed to worship with that congregation.

—The teachers of the Presbyterian Sabbath School have inaugurated Wednesday night meetings for the study of the lesson for the succeeding Sabbath. The International Lesson for next Sabbath is "The Last Days of Moses."

—The Public School Board, selected by the Board of Aldermen Saturday, is composed of the following gentlemen: College Green School—W. M. Patton, J. L. Power, Sol. Dreyfus; West Jackson School—Jno. A. Webb, Geo. Lemon, J. M. Fuller; Colored School—J. J. Spellman, N. S. Temple, Smith Robertson.

—Our late honored fellow-citizen, Gen. Jno. D. Freeman, has established a law office and mining agency at Canon City, Colorado. His many friends of this State, by which he served eight years in the office of Attorney-General, and two years in Congress,) are all wishing him success. He has talents and the driving power of conquerable energy.

—Prof. Dobyns, with characteristic thoughtfulness, is arranging for a Christmas tree for the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institute. He has sent out notices of his intention to the parents and guardians of the children under his care, requesting them to send such presents as they may see proper, adding that anything will be acceptable "save toy-pistols and tin-horns."

—Mr. Skellenger, lessee and manager of the Blind Institute Shops, has our thanks for an appreciated present in the shape of half a dozen excellent brooms, made at the Institute. The brooms are of the best workmanship, as well as nice appearance. Mr. Skellenger has made a decided success of the work-department of the Institute, and has the shops fitted up and prepared to do everything in his line in the best style.

—The many admirers of Sol Smith Russell will be pleased to learn that the great comedian will appear at the Opera House next Monday evening in his now famous character of Tom Dilloway, in the new American comedy entitled "Edgewood Folks." As he has never appeared in Jackson on the regular dramatic stage, but only in connection with a concert company, no little interest will be manifested to see how he acquits himself in the role of an actor in a regular comedy part. "Edgewood Folks" is a bright, clean comedy, and is well spoken of by the press in other cities.

—Gen. Geo. C. McKee and family are occupying the residence on President street, formerly occupied by W. E. Cage, Esq.

—The State Teachers' Association will assemble in Jackson on Tuesday, 27th inst. The programme of exercises, and topics for discussion, as arranged by the Executive Committee, cannot fail to interest all who attend. Our talented young townsman, Robert Shotwell, Esq., will deliver the opening, or welcome address. If there are defects in the Public School Law, this is the best possible opportunity for discussing and pointing them out. The Legislature will give special consideration to suggestions emanating from such a body of practical educators.

—Mr. C. C. Johnston and Miss Kate M. Mitchell, both of Jackson, were married on Wednesday evening last at the Episcopal Church, Rev. Dr. Tucker conducting the impressive ceremonies, which were witnessed by a few intimate friends of the parties. From the Church the bridal party repaired to the residence of Col. W. L. Nugent, were congratulations were freely bestowed, and the hours intervening till the departure of the south-bound train pleasantly passed. At 11 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston left for a week's visit to New Orleans. They are expected home this evening; and to-morrow, from 11 to 3 o'clock, they will "receive" their friends at the residence of Mr. W. H. H. Green.

—We are glad to note that the efforts of some of our live young men to organize a military company have been successful. On Monday night a number of the charter members of the old Capital Light Guards (organized several years ago) met, and turned over their charter to the new organization. The officers are: Captain, Collins F. Hemingway; 1st Lieutenant, Thos. H. Kelly; 2d Lieutenant, R. L. Daniel; Junior 2d Lieutenant, A. M. Nelson, Jr. Sergeants—Jas. Lusk, Ed. Daniel and George Hunter. Corporals—Frank Council, N. M. Campbell, E. Yerger, J. S. Ware. Quartermaster, Geo. C. Eyrich. There are 38 names on the Company rolls, and this will be largely increased at the next meeting.

BEATTY ORGANS AND PIANOS.—We learn that Mayor Beatty, of Washington, New Jersey, is receiving hundreds of orders for his Pianos and Organs for Christmas presents. We advise our readers to order early and avoid the rush. Read his advertisement.

A FAVORITE PAPER.—For judicious editing, select and popular contributors, and sprightly and entertaining reading, the Youth's Companion, of Boston, has no superior among the youth's publications. It has more than two hundred thousand subscribers, and unquestionably merits its success.

MR. SMYLIE, Swamp Land Commissioner, paid into the State Treasury, in October and November, the sum of $41,132 11, on account of sales of swamp lands. There will be no more sales until after action by the Legislature on patents recently received from Washington. State patents will, however, continue to be issued for applications now filed, and in the order in which they have been received.

The Most Attractive and Desirable Excursion Ever Offered to the Crescent City. Collin's Great Winter Excursion to New Orleans Thursday, Dec. 15, 1881.

A few of the features which will render this a strictly first-class excursion are: 1. All passengers will be provided with a regular coupon ticket good for first-class passage to New Orleans and return. 2. All tickets will be good to return at pleasure on regular trains for ten days. 3. Accommodations will be ample and strictly first-class, including Pullman Palace Sleeping Coaches, etc. 4. Baggage checks will be provided and all baggage promptly checked through to New Orleans from the points taken. These, together with other features of attraction, tend to make this one of the most pleasant and available excursions ever offered the public.

Just think of the rates for this kind of an Excursion. From Canton or Jackson to New Orleans and Return only $5 00, and from all other stations in proportion.

"Edgewood Folks."

Mr. Sol Smith Russell presented his new play at the Academy of Music last evening to a large audience, and its reception was as hearty and as enthusiastic as its author could have desired. The play itself is cleverly constructed as to plot, incident and dialogue, and is presented by an admirable company. It is a pastoral story of New England village life with enough romance in it to fairly divide the interest of the audience with the wonderful comicalities of "Tom Dilloway," the hero, with whom the denouement rests.

Mr. Russell, whose mirth-provoking face is familiar to the Charleston public, has improved with age, and in his new play manages to keep his audience in a continuous roar of laughter. The numerous comic songs which are interpolated in the drama were all encored again and again, and Mr. Russell was repeatedly called before the curtain. The support is far above the average and contributes not a little to the success of the play. All in all, it would be difficult to find any entertainment more laughable than "Edgewood Folks." It will be repeated to-night and is well worth seeing.—Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier.

Woman.

HOPE FOR SUFFERING WOMAN!—SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

By reason of her peculiar relations, and her peculiar ailments, woman has been compelled to suffer, not only her own ills, but those arising from the want of knowledge, or of consideration on the part of those with whom she stands connected in their special organization. The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have thus been aggravated to a degree which no language can express. In the mansions of the rich and the hovel of the poor alike, woman has been the patient victim of ills unknown to man, and which none but she could endure—and without a remedy. But now the hour of her redemption has come. She need not suffer longer, when she can find relief in Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, "Woman's Best Friend." Prepared by Dr. J. Bradfield, Atlanta, Ga. Price: trial size, 75c; large size, $1.50. For sale by Byron Lemly and R. R. Ledbetter.
