Men's $30.00 and $32.50 Suits

Choice at $18.50

Fifth Floor.

Two- and Three-button Sack Coats, in the different desirable lengths; medium or long lapels, regular and stout sizes, 34 to 44.

Materials: Smooth- and rough-finished worsteds, fine cassimeres, tweeds and serviceable flannels. No matter which weave you choose you may rely upon it being all wool through and through. No cotton in any of them.

They are in popular shades of blue and gray. There isn't a commonplace design in the lot. Shadow-stripes, plain checks, checks combined with overplaids, mixtures—looms have never wrought neater, prettier styles. They are for men who have quiet tastes and prefer unobtrusive Clothing.

The tailoring is practically just like the workmanship on Suits ordered from high-priced custom shops. They were made to retail at $25.00, $27.50, $30.00, $32.50. Choice at $18.50

Panama Hats

Fifth Floor. 34th St.

Two weeks ago Secret Service Agents of the United States Government seized all the Panama Hats in bonded warehouses. Over a millions dollars' worth of Panama Hats—about two-thirds of the stock depended on by the trade—will be held by the Customs authorities until the slow process of investigating the charge of undervaluation has been finished. This means a scarcity—and when the Hats are released the legal duty and probably heavy fines will have been exacted. All this can mean but one thing—high prices for Panamas. We bought our Panamas months ago and they have been reposing in our own stock rooms ever since their arrival.

Prices haven't been increased—$3.96, $4.96, $7.49, $9.99, $12.94, $16.49.

Other stores are charging 50 per cent. more for the same qualities.
