THE STAR.

PANOLA, MISSISSIPPI.

M. S. WARD, - - Editor.

WEDNESDAY, APL. 15.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All Persons knowing themselves indebted to me, are earnestly requested to make Immediate Payment, as I MUST have Money to pay my debts.

M. S. WARD.

How to Make Money.

The spring trade is just opening, and all business men can make money by advertising in "The Weekly Panola Star" Our circulation is steadily increasing, and as the Railroad is now completed to the centre of Panola county, our paper presents a medium for advertising such as was never known in this county before.

WANTED. A Journeyman Printer, at this Office.

OUR NEW CONTRIBUTOR.—Read the article from "Lillian," on the first page of this paper. We hope to hear from Lillian often.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The next term of the Circuit and Chancery Court for Panola County, will commence on the 11th of May next.

☞ If you want a good ambrotype picture, call on Mr. Sandel, at the Planter's Hotel. His rooms have been thronged with ladies for two or three days past.

☞ The ladies will hold a fair and give a concert of vocal and instrumental music, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the 11th and 12th of May next, the proceeds to be applied in the completion of our new Presbyterian Church. A magnificent supper will be prepared on the occasion, and the Masonic Hall will serve as a parlor.

☞ Dr Wrenn, Chairman of the Building Committee of the New Presbyterian Church, makes the last appeal to subscribers to pay up. Subscribers had almost as well owe the printer, as to owe for their Church. Pay up, gentlemen, pay up—and the Committee will finish the work in a short time. When it is finished, it will not only be an honor to those who have assisted in building it, but to Panola. Nothing speaks better for a town than its public buildings, and we hope the subscribers will not procrastinate longer, but PAY UP.

☞ The Memphis Theatre is now open, under the management of D. T. Ash. We have received the Theatrical Bulletin, and return our thanks for the kind notice of the Star.

Morning Bulletin.

We are under renewed obligations to the proprietors of this able paper, for an exchange of their Daily. The liberality of Col. McMahon, its chief editor, towards us, have far exceeded our merits, and we make but an indifferent return when we advise our friends to patronize the Bulletin.

Business in Panola.

Our merchants have received their spring stock of goods, and are now ready to supply every article in their line on as good terms as they can be had in Memphis. We hope our citizens will not fail to come in soon and examine for themselves. If you want "pick and choice" come at once, and we know you will be pleased.

If you would like to see a fine large store room, well filled with handsome new goods, call at Bradford & Martin's, and you will not be disappointed.

Read R. J. Tramel's advertisement of town property for sale.

Speaking of puffing, reminds us that we are indebted to our merchants Messrs. Greenbaum & Earnest, for a box of fine cigars. They are business men who understand how to "puff" their goods, and make us puff also. They are fond of the ladies, and keep one standing on their counter as a show.

Everybody now a-days want fine jewelry, and if you will call at Bradford & Martin's, the Doctor will "ring you in" and "fit you out" with everything fine and nice, in just no time at all. Read their card.

☞ Don't it make your mouth water to read Clarke's advertisement of fine Brandy and Champagne? Read it anyhow!

GUNSMOKE!—W. W. Elliott's mill is again in operation. Read his portland card in another column and "pitch in" your corn and wheat.

Memphis Advertisements.

Greenbaum & Earnest.—When in Memphis a few days since, we examined the stock of clothing and furnishing goods, of this extensive establishment, and found the latest styles and finest qualities of goods. Read what they say for themselves in this paper.

G. H. Lucas. Auctioneer and Real Estate Agent. It will be seen by referring to another column, that Col. Locke is going to sell the Overton tract of land, adjoining the city of Memphis, on the 1st and 2d days of May. This will be the monmouth sale of real estate in that growing city. The tract contains 183 acres of land, and we understand Mr. Overton has refused the sum of five hundred thousand dollars for it. It will be sold in small lots and on liberal terms, thus presenting an opportunity for profitable investment that will never occur again in Memphis.

Hicks, Terry & Anderson, have their wholesale and retail rooms well filled with spring and summer goods, and wish the citizens of Panola county to give them a call. Read their advertisement in this week's paper.

W. N. Ivey & Co., No. 10 Madison street, have just received their stock of spring clothing—hats, boots and shoes, trunks, carpet bags, and furnishing goods. We recommend our friends to read their card in the Star, and profit thereby.

J. H. Unthank, Esq., offers for sale a valuable tract of land on Yocknea River, in Panola county. See his advertisement.

THE CAROLINA HOUSE.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the proprietor of this hotel in Memphis.

Though other voices greet me,
And other forms I see—
Though I may never meet thee,
I'll think of thee!

When bitten by mosquitos,
Or tortured by a flea,
Or plagued by rats and bedbugs,
I'll think of thee!

SAL GREEN.

[Yes, Sal, you'll think of "thee" when your other beau ain't near "Thee" heard your little conflab the other day—heard you say "he is not much." (Meaning "thee.") "Thee" thanks you for your kind remembrance, but hopes you won't "tarry" on "Thee's" account, as "Thee" has made arrangements for some one else to "think of 'thee.'"]

Communications.

COL. WARD—I do not know who is the author of the following newspaper waif, but it breathes a sentiment that should forever abide in every husband's heart. BENEDICT.

BE GENTLE TO THY WIFE.

Be gentle! for you little know
How many trials rise;
Although to thee they may be small,
To her of giant size.

Be gentle! though perchance that lip
May speak a murmuring tone,
The heart may beat with kindness yet,
And joy to be thine own.

Be gentle! weary hours of pain
'Tis woman's lot to bear,
Then yield her what support thou canst,
And all her sorrows share.

Be gentle! for the noblest hearts
At times may have some grief,
And even in a petish word
May seek to find relief.

Be gentle! for unkindness now
May rouse an angry storm,
That all the after years of life
In vain may strive to calm.

Be gentle! none are perfect—
Thou'rt dearer far than life,
Then, husband, bear and still forbear—
Be gentle to thy wife.

[For the Star.]

MR. EDITOR: Permit me, through your excellent paper, to call the attention of the Democrats of North Mississippi, to the name of C. E. HOOKER, of Jackson, as a candidate for the office of Attorney General. He is a lawyer every way qualified for the office. As a speaker, he excels him, and he is a State Rights Democrat of the Jefferson School. I know no way to call the attention of all true Democrats to his name than through your widely circulating paper; therefore, Democrats—one and all—you are hereby notified, that he will accept the nomination, if you, in your wisdom, shall confer it; and you need not doubt his ability to fill the duties incumbent thereon. And if any American, (alias Know Nothing) dare to meet him on the stump, (no matter who) they will find in him a foe worthy of thier steel.

NORTH MISSISSIPPI.

Tribute of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Yonkees Lodge, No. 301, of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, held at Hobbs, Panola County, Miss., on Saturday January 31st, A. D. 1857,

A motion was made that there be a Committee appointed to prepare a suitable preamble and resolution, appropriate to the death of brother A. A. McKinney.

WHEREUPON, Brethren S. D. Johns, H. D. Miles and N. J. Benson, were appointed a committee to prepare the said preamble and resolution by our next regular communication.

Saturday, Feb. 28th, 1857.

The Committee to whom was referred the preamble and resolution of the death of brother A. A. McKinney, at our last regular communication, report the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Him who does all things well, to remove from this world, our esteemed brother and friend A. A. McKinney, who departed this life the 9th of December, 1856.

Brother McKinney had not attained the high and honorable position of a Master Mason, but was aspiring to that degree when God saw fit to remove him. To the Grand Lodge above, where he presided as Grand Master. Brother McKinney was a kind and faithful friend—honorable upright and manly in all his dealings, and a gentleman in every sense of the term.

In the death of Brother McKinney, we are again reminded that we too must die, and we know not how soon. It should teach us to be ever ready, and to be in possession of the proper passport, which will gain us admission into the Celestial Lodge above.—Therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we do deeply sympathize with his wife in her affliction, and her irreparable loss; also with his relatives and numerous friends.

Resolved, That we do tender unto Mr. and Mrs. Bowles, our heart-felt thanks for their parental attention bestowed upon our Brother while on his bed of affliction and death at their house.

Resolved, That we present Mrs. Bowles with a Mantle of no ordinary material, as a present. Also as a proof of our sincerity for her superior carefulness in preparing every necessary comfort for our brother during his sickness.

Resolved, That these proceedings be spread upon the Lodge Record, and a copy be sent to the widow, who resides in Tennessee. Also a copy to Mr. and Mrs. Bowles, and one to the Panola Star for publication.

S. D. JOHNS, H. D. MILES, N. J. BENSON, } Committee.

JAS. McCLAIN. W. M.

JOHN SHANKLE, Secretary.

THE PANOLA STAR.

Our old friend Ward, of the Panola Star, was in the city a few days ago, and fatter than ever. Though with all his flesh, he has lost none of his energies or good fellowship. He is editing and publishing in the town of Panola, near the present terminus of the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad, one of the handsomest country papers we know of anywhere. If our merchants want to advertise in a paper that will "do them good" among the wealthy planters and merchants of this populous region, we would advise them to send their favors to the Panola Star. — [Memphis Theatrical Bulletin.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—A Louisville paper says: "A young lady appeared in our streets, the sole occupant of a conspicuous seat on a load of wood, having driven the team a distance of several miles into the city without assistance of any one. She sold her wood very readily, and, purchasing some family necessaries, she threw them and herself into the wood-wagon with the agility of an active young man, and pursued her way home to the rapid measure of "Pop goes the Weazel," which she whistled with masculine taste and spirit. The young lady appears to be about eighteen years of age, and does not adopt the novel calling from necessity (for her father has taxables to the amount of $10,000) but merely as a right.

An angry woman in a room is as bad as lighted crackers, for when once she goes off, there is no stopping her, and when she does go out, it is sure to be with a bang.

MARRIED:

In Somerville, Tenn., on Sunday morning, 29th ult., by Rev. A. R. Wilson, B. L. BALLARD, of Panola, to Mrs. WINNIFRED HAYNES, of Somerville, Tenn.

ESTRAY—Taken up by T. T. Sorsby, living eight miles west of Panola, on the Tallahatchie River, one sorrell House, with a 'ball' face, and appraised to $50 00. P. R. JONES,

YOCKNEY LAND FOR SALE.

EXTRACT from the Report of Louis F. Carr, a competent and disinterested examiner, from actual survey, made 6th September, 1856:

"S. W. quarter of Sec. 35, T. 10, R. 7 west, adjoining the lands of David Chapman on the west, J. G. Brody on the south, and the heirs of Rayburn on the east and north. This land is very rich, but also rolling—heavily timbered with poplar, oak and hickory; some forty acres in several pieces, of table land, could be got, and some forty or fifty acres of bottom. This land is a little north of Yockney Bottom, and is in the vicinity of the supposed location of the railroad, and is east of D. Chapman's on the road from Panola to Brody—Value $6 per acre.

(Signed) LOUIS F. CARR."

I offer the above described land for sale on liberal terms. As to time, &c., address J. H. UNTHANK,
