

OPENING of TOYLAND

Tomorrow morning, we will formally declare TOYLAND open, and most cordially do we invite you and yours to inspect the great array of Toys, Dolls, Games, etc., etc., which we have prepared for the delight of young and old. On Toyland's broad streets wonderful vehicles glide swiftly—regardless of traffic squads. Whizzing past till one fairly grows dizzy are engines and trains that almost leave their tracks, so rapidly do their tiny wheels revolve.

Prancing steeds invite the equestrian to ride if horsemanship is among his hobbies, and for the commercially inclined youngster there are delivery wagons with merchandise.
