OF BLAZING FOREST AT CHANTILLY

was built by the famous constable of France, Anne de Montmorency, who inher-rinces of Condé. In 1886 the domain was presented as a free gift to France by its art treasures, including pictures by Raphael, Watteau, Delacroix and Dela-roche, and a splendid library. There is a famous race course at Chantilly, which is reached by a footpath leading from the station through the forest.

Drawn by Frederic de Haenen from a sketch by Frederic Villiers.

ng association by special arrangement with the "Illustrated London News."