That Car of Cattle.

Sam Belew writes this office from Ft. Worth under the date of Sept. 25th, as follows: "I see an item in your paper concerning me and a 'crooked' car of cattle. I will be home in time to explain to all how I came by all cattle shipped by me at that time. I am not dodging from anything but am only away on a business transaction." Wootsen, who was arrested in connection with this case, has given bond at Ft. Smith, and Ben Sanders is authority for the statement that "Dink" Douthitt, who escaped from Deputy Tom Prather, is going to surrender and give bond.

The Cattle Market.

Office of SCALING & TABRAYN, Live Stock Commission Merchants, Kansas City Stock Yards, Sep. 27, '92.

We have had plenty of cattle for the last week and there are more common cattle now coming to market than have been seen in a long time. Other markets have also been crowded, which has caused prices to go still lower. We have been thinking that prices had reached the bottom and we would soon see a stronger market, but each day shows still lower prices. If receipts are lighter we may expect some better prices, otherwise we see nothing encouraging in the near future. There is seemingly but a small per cent. of the receipts that can be considered choice.

Market to-day on Texas and Indian cattle was a little lower on all kinds and grades with but little life in trade. Chicago is glutted and the shippers are not dealing very extensively. We quote to-day:

Choice Texas and Indian steers	$2 75 @ $3 00
Medium	2 25 @ 2 50
Common	1 50 @ 2 00
Choice cows and heifers	2 25 @ 2 50
Medium and common	1 25 @ 2 00
Calves	5 00 @ 7 00

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS, ILLS., Sept. 27th, 1892.

Estimated receipts to-day, 4,500 cattle—1,500 Natives, 3,000 Texans and Indians. The receipts to day consisted largely of cows. There was nothing good in the steer line on sale, and nothing so good as the heifers so'd yesterday. As compared with sales made yesterday, steers to-day were 5 @ 10c lower, and cows were stronger, but there was not much difference in cow values. Cows shipped out to Chicago yesterday sold there for the same money which was bid for them here, and it had a bad effect on the late market to-day. About everything was sold.

By Wednesday last week the Texas cow market was good and strong; the best cows and heifers were selling at $2.90 @ $2.25, and ordinary stock was selling at $1.50 @ $1.80. The Thursday market was dull and slow, but not so much lower on cows as on steers. On Friday the decline was not in cows, so that the close of the week was not so much different as the opening, except that there was a decline to report on Saturday. Cows sold best, relatively speaking, every day in the week. The steers declined mostly on Thursday, but the Friday market was a little easier, and including Saturday, closing values show a decline of 30 @ 40c below the prices paid on Monday; and the lower end of the steer cattle were within 10c of the lowest days of this year.

TO-DAY'S QUOTATIONS:

Good to choice grass steers	$2 60 @ 2 90
Common to fair	2 00 @ 2 50
Good to choice cows	1 70 @ 1 85
Common to fair cows	1 50 @ 1 60
Bulls, common to choice	1 25 @ 1 75
Calves, good, each	7 00 @ 8 00
Calves, common to fair, each	3 00 @ 6 00

DISHONEST PHOTOGRAPHERS.

MAYSVILLE, ARK., Sep. 20, '92.

ED. CHIEFTAIN:—The Hubard Bros., photographers, with headquarters at Tahlequah, and who were the beneficiaries of a "write up" by the Tahlequah press, have done up the people on Beatties Prairie to the tune of $5.00 to $8.00 in nearly every family. It was done by making negatives and sending them to their headquarters. The money being paid in many instances in advance, and they got nothing for their money, proving the outfit to be a lot of vampires that had fastened upon the public with plausible stories and nice pictures as samples of work. All letters written them are never heard from.

Your humble servant has been one of their dupes and to prevent others from being "gulled," I believe it a duty I owe to the people to place the brothers in their true light.

Respectfully,

J. L. WARD.

FALL FESTIVITIES.

St. Louis Extends a Cordial Invitation to All.

The city of St. Louis has become famous the country over through the agency of her annual fall festivities, and from that source has gained the sobriquet of the "Carnival City of America."

For the season of 1892 all previous efforts in the line of entertainments will be eclipsed. The great St. Louis exposition will throw its doors open to the public Wednesday, September 7th, and will continue to entertain and delight thousands during a period extending over 40 days. One of the chief attractions announced by the management is the engagement of Col. P. S. Gilmore and his world-renowned band, one hundred strong. The illumination by gas and electricity of the streets will extend over a larger area and be on a grander scale than any similar exhibition ever attempted in the world. The thirty-second great St. Louis Fair and Zoological Gardens, Oct. 3rd to 8th, whose fame has been heralded broadcast, will be one of the main attractions of that week, and as has been customary for the last thirteen years, the Veiled Prophet will again appear in his favorite city, on the evening of Tuesday, October 4th. The hotel accommodations of St. Louis have been materially increased since last year and strangers are assured of hospitable treatment.

The Missouri Pacific Railway and Iron Mountain Route, with their vast network of lines extending over the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Indian Territory, Arkansas, the West, South and Southwest, in order to encourage travel, have made a remarkably low round trip rate from points on their lines to St. Louis and return during the festivities.

For further information relative to dates of sale and limits of tickets, call on or address any Missouri Pacific or Iron Mountain ticket agent, who will be pleased to furnish same. sep

Hunt up Half a Hundred Forceful and Incisive Adjectives, Suitable for Description of Sublime and Inspiring Scenery; Then take a trip to the Grand Canon of the Colorado, And You Will Throw Them Aside As Being Inadequate.

The world's greatest wonder is the Grand Canon of the Colorado river, in Arizona; Yellowstone Park and Yosemite take second place; Niagara Falls is dwarfed, and the Adirondacks seem like mere hills compared with the stupendous chasms and heights of the Grand Canon.

This hitherto inaccessible region has just been opened for tourists by stage line from Flagstaff, A. T., on the trans-continental highway of the Santa Fe Route. The round trip can be made comfortably, quickly, and at reasonable expense.

Nearest agent of Frisco Line will quote excursion rates on application. An illustrated pamphlet is in preparation, fully describing the diary beauties and wonders of the Grand Canon. Write to D. Wishart, General Passenger Agent, Frisco Line, St. Louis, Mo., for free copy, which will be mailed when ready for distribution.
