CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC CURATIVES.—THE GREAT peculiarity and excellence of these marvellous articles, consists in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by outward application, in place of the usual method of drugging and physicking the patient till exhausted nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction. They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, invigorate the entire energies, and can never do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since, more than 75,000 persons, including all ages, classes and conditions, among whom were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to nervous complaints, have been entirely and permanently cured, when all hope of relief had been given up, and everything else had been tried in vain. D. C. MOREHEAD, M. D., General Agent for the U. S., 132 Broadway, N. Y.

MRS. JERVIS'S COLD CANDY.—SPRING COUGHS and Colds:—

The vapors of the steaming earth,
Evolved beneath the Sun of Spring,
To hoarseness, cough and cold give birth,
And Death amidst them waves his wing.

The "Sun of March," so Shakspeare wrote,
Is very apt to nourish agues;
And influenza, croup, sore-throat,
Too frequently it brings to plague you.

Be wise in time, Disease and Death
Tighten their hold, if you delay;
"To-morrow," many a victim saith,
Whose fate, perchance, hangs on to-day.

Don't say "this cold will soon go off,"
Or think your chest and lungs impervious;
But when attacked with could or cough,
Hasten at once to Mrs. Jervis.

Surely as day gives place to night,
Or spring succeeds to winter's throne,
Her candy puts a cough to flight,
And gives the lungs a healthy tone.

Sold, wholesale and retail, by Mrs. W. JERVIS, No. 366 Broadway, one door above Franklin street, and sold by Druggists generally.

FATAL TO THE INSECT RACE, LYON'S powder shall have place;
Far beyond all other things
That man's hand, to slay them, flings.
Then his pills for rats and mice,
Which they eat up in a trice,
Stretch them kicking on the floor
Dying, and yet craving more!
Yet 'tis a maxim diatestic,
That these things, well named magnetic,
Kill not man, or child, or woman,
Being harmless to the "human."
