COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, AUGUST 5, 1871.

During the past week we have but little to report in the way of domestic trade. The usual amount of goods have been furnished to the country trade, otherwise, except the shipments by vessels bound foreign, trade and commerce have been dull.

The arrival and departure of the Australian and New Zealand steamers for the past week have added somewhat to the liveliness of trade, but nothing that we have heard of is its volume or importance.

A majority of our plantations have taken in their crops, though so far all the products have not gone forward to the markets.

During the next few months our exports of domestic produce will not be large, although they will be regular and considerable.

SHIPPING NEWS.

The California, New Zealand and Australia Mail Steamship Wonga Wonga, on the trip from this port had strong trades and head seas during the passage and arrived over on the afternoon of the 8th ult in 11 days and 2 hours. Left San Francisco on return trip at 7 p m on the 16th, had pleasant weather with moderate trades the entire passage, and arrived at the wharf at 10 a m on the 27th.

The United States, New Zealand and Australia Mail Steamship Co's Steamship Nevada, arrived at this port at 7 a m on Friday, and furnishes the following report: On the outward passage had pleasant weather until the latter part, then experienced a severe gale which lasted three days, during which the vessel was put under easy steam. Arrived at Auckland June 26, 11 days and 2 hours from this port; from thence proceeded to the various ports to the southward, and returned July 12th. On the return trip to Honolulu, left Auckland at noon on the 12th and met with strong gales from N N W with heavy rain squalls the first two days out. At 4.30 p m on the 14th, in lat 30 30 south, long 179 west, passed over the position assigned to Curtis' Island without observing anything; had steady winds with occasional rain squalls until the 17th and then got the southeast trades, after which had pleasant weather until the 26th. During the next 48 hours had frequent squalls with much thunder and lightning, then strong the following day. Had a strong easterly gale on the 31st and crossed the equator the next day at 3.30 p m in long 180 31 west, with the wind fresh from the eastward. From the 1st to the 20th had fresh breezes with squalls and rain, then fine weather, which continued the remainder of the passage. On the 26th, in lat 13 20 south, long 170 30 west, exchanged signals with a large ship under the North German flag, steering to the southward, probably the Tarpeiahoe, bound for the guano islands. At noon on the 27th was 120 miles from this port and entered the port morning, having made a degree of 400 miles in 24 days. After the first five days the wind averaged well to the eastward, and the best days run was 270 miles. The round trip occupied fifty days.

Report of C G Taylor.—Left Nanaimo June 26th for Victoria and sailed from the latter port July 5th with a strong breeze from the southwest. Passed Cape Flattery the following day. Had experienced strong westerly gales the first three days, then light winds and calms until getting into the trades, which were very light until a few days previous to arrival, and had them fresh the remainder of the passage. Sighted the land at 4 p m on the 27th and arrived the next morning. Five days after leaving the Sound saw a bark steering north, supposed to be from San Francisco, and two days after saw a schooner steering to the westward.

The C G Taylor was formerly the U S gunboat Winona, which became famous during the late American war, from being the leading vessel which passed the forts below New Orleans during the engagement which resulted in the capture of that city. At the close of the war she was sold and shortly after converted into a sailing vessel. She brings a cargo of coal to this port for the use of the Wonga steamers.

The bark Alaska sailed on Monday afternoon for Newcastle, N S W, in ballast and will return to this port with a cargo of coal for the Wonga steamers.

American bark Powhattan arrived at Hilo July 22d with a cargo of lumber from Puget Sound. She will return to the Sound from that port in ballast.

The United States, New Zealand and Australia Mail Steamship Co's Steamship Ajax, N T Bennett commander, on the passage hence had strong head winds and arrived July 30th, in 12 days. Returning, left San Francisco at 4 p m on the 16th with 180 tons of freight and 37 passengers for Honolulu, New Zealand and Australia, experienced light winds and pleasant weather the whole trip, and arrived at this port at 3 a m on the 30th, making the passage in 6 days and 8 hours.

The schooner Mary Ellen, which is the oldest course in the fleet, has recently changed hands, being now owned by Messrs Walker & Allen. She was originally the Southside, and arrived here from San Francisco about 1850. Her name was changed shortly after to the Kekauonohi, when she became a coaster and for a number of years was on the Kona route. Several years since she was rebuilt and her name changed to the Mary Ellen. Since then she has been a regular packet between this port and Waiehu, and will continue on the same route as heretofore.

Bark D C Murray arrived at San Francisco July 19th, and had a lengthy passage of 20 days over. She was to sail again for this port about the 20th ult.

Bark Camden arrived at Port Gamble July 14th, 27 days hence, having met with light winds and calms the entire passage over.

British bark Linda and Rose was to leave San Francisco during the latter part of July in Macondray's line for Hongkong, and would probably touch at this port en route.

The clipper ship Golden arrived at Hongkong May 21st, 40 days from this port.

A schooner of about 70 tons, called the Sea Breeze, left Auckland July 5th for this port, and is now 28 days out. She is consigned to Thos H Davies and will be offered for sale on arrival.

The U S Ship of war Jamestown sailed from Valparaiso June 30, for San Francisco via this port.

The sale of cattle belonging to the estate of Owen J. Holt, advertised to take place at Sartow's Sales Room, on the 5th inst., is postponed until Saturday noon 12th inst.

The Next Vessel.—The Queen Emma will be the next vessel for San Francisco, sailing on Saturday or Monday next. The D. C. Murray will probably bring our next mail, due about the 18th.

The Steamer for Kauai.—As will be noticed by advertisement, the Kilauea will make a trip to Kauai next week, leaving at the usual hour on Thursday afternoon, returning at noon on Saturday. She will resume her trips to windward the following Monday.

The Lancashire Bell-Ringers.—This celebrated troupe, as we are informed by letter, intend visiting Honolulu en route for San Francisco, in the Nebraska. They will give one or two performances during their short stay here. The troupe is very highly spoken of by our Colonial exchanges, and we have no doubt their performance here will be a great treat to the theatre-going public.

Passengers East.—The steamer Ajax took a large number of passengers from Honolulu, among whom were our respected fellow townsman E. O. Hall, Esq., formerly Editor of the Polynesian, accompanied by his daughter Mrs. P. C. Jones, and Hon. Henry Kahaulelio, who intend to visit the United States for a short time. Several other well known residents here took passage in the Ajax.

Lecture.—On Friday evening, at Buffum's Hall, Rev. Archdeacon Mason will deliver a lecture on the "Indirect influence of popular writers of fiction on social institutions, as exemplified by the writings of Charles Dickens." The proceeds of the lecture are to be applied to a fund for building a school room at Punaho.

The well known ability of Mr. Mason is sufficient guarantee that the lecture will be most interesting and instructive. It can always be remarked of the Reverend gentleman's lectures, that he has quite as good taste and judgment in choosing subjects that will interest his audience, as he has ability to make the best of his subjects.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Jacob Meek Hiller, who went East in company with Judge Widemann, on a visit to his parents, after a residence here of nearly fifteen years, died suddenly at Erie, Pennsylvania, on the 17th of July. The report of his sudden death was transmitted to his uncle, our venerable townsman Capt. John Meek by telegraph to San Francisco. We are therefore unable to say whether Mr. Hiller was on his way from the residence of his parents in Lynn, Massachusetts, to his home here or not. Mr. Hiller, during his long residence here, had gained, by his upright and honorable course, the respect and confidence of all who knew him. He was thirty-five years of age at the time of his death.

New Publication.—There has just been published at this office Mr. J. A. Hassinger's "Hawaiian Tariff and Digest of Customs Laws and Regulations, Position and Bearing of Lighthouses, Currency Tables, Postage rates, List of Diplomatic and Consular agents of this Kingdom," &c. It is probably not necessary to recommend this publication to our business community, nearly all of whom are, as we believe, already supplied with copies and are able to judge for themselves. Those desiring to become acquainted with the Customs regulations of this kingdom will find in this compilation of Mr. Hassinger a most valuable assistant. Among the most valuable portions of the work are the tables reducing the various European currencies to dollars and cents. The Book may be had at Mr. Thrum's Book Store.

The Steamers—During the past week we have had three steamers in port, which for a few days gave a lively aspect to things generally. Their departure however, leaves us with but little excitement. The arrival of the Wonga Wonga on Thursday morning gave a satisfactory explanation for the disappointment which was caused by her arriving a week later than the time she was at first expected. As she had been advertised to leave on the 16th ult, it would have created considerable confusion and disappointment to those who intended to travel by her had she left earlier. As it was, several through passengers arrived by train from the East only a few hours previous to her departure and were transferred at the last moment. Her freight for this place is valued at $6,000, and for Fiji and Sydney at $12,000. She had also forty five passengers, twelve of whom remained here. The Wonga Wonga continued her voyage on Saturday forenoon, with nine passengers from Honolulu. The Nevada from Auckland, arrived on Friday morning with forty-one through passengers and three for this place, together with a small amount of freight for Honolulu and about fifty tons for San Francisco. She remained in port twenty-four hours over her time awaiting the arrival of the Ajax, and left on her return trip on Sunday afternoon with thirty-three passengers, eight of whom were from here. The Ajax arrived early on Sunday morning. She did not leave San Francisco until the afternoon of the 30th ult, having been detained by the Hon. Julius Vogel, who with his family, arrived by her en route for Auckland. The Ajax sailed yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, taking a large number of passengers and a full freight from here. We understand that after the next trip of the Nevadas the vessels of the Webb line will run through direct from Auckland, stopping here to take in coal and cargo both ways.

Promised Operatic Entertainment.—We are advised from private sources in San Francisco that the Opera Troupe of Madame States will leave that city in the steamer of Aug. 16th, for Australia, intending to make arrangements to give one or two entertainments here. This determination will give the music-loving people of Honolulu a rare opportunity of listening to the vocal performances of one of the first Operatic Troupes that have visited the United States. The following notice of Madame States we take from the Bulletin:

"The patrons of the Opera in San Francisco will welcome the return of Madame States, after an absence of eight years. She left this city in June, 1863, direct for Milan, where she resided several months under the tuition of the celebrated Maestro Mantanara. Thence she went to Florence to meet an engagement at La Pergola, where she made her debut in the Sicilian Vespers with great success. At Florence she became, and remained for three years, a pupil of Romani, then the greatest singing maestro in Italy. During that time she filled several engagements at La Pergola and the Pagliano, appearing in Ernani, Lucia, Trovatore, besides the Sicilian Vespers. In company with the brilliant artists, Liverani and Bricardi, tenors, Raffaili, baritone, and the great basso, Zucchini, and gained a place among artists of the first rank. She received in 1866 an engagement for the Royal Theatre, Madrid, where, with the tenor, Franceschi, the baritone, Merli, and the basso, Salvi, she, among other successes, had the honor of producing for the first time in Madrid, Patti's new opera, Sonnambula. In the season of 1867, she sang at the Italian Opera in Paris. There, from among many other prima donnas, Mme States was selected to sing the Columella, on its first rendering in that city, and which was repeated for ten consecutive nights. John Russell, manager of the Covent Garden Theatre, London, being in Paris at this time, at once engaged Madame States for the next season, during which her success was so complete, that the impressario offered her an engagement for three years, but which, as she was called by personal matters to New York, she declined. Arriving in America at the commencement of the opera season of 1869, she sang in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, St. Louis, Cincinnati, and Boston, with success, and though seven prima donnas were enlisted in the operatic campaign, her services were required for three performances out of five a week. During this season was produced for the first time in New York the opera Lucilee, in which Madame States assumed the title role. During the year 1870, and part of 1871, she filled engagements in South America, singing at Valparaiso, Santiago, Montevideo, Buenos Ayres, and Rio Janeiro, receiving everywhere the most enthusiastic ovations. Since her return, she has had a brilliant success in New York, in a season most remunerative to the management. Madame States left New York on the 10th inst. for San Francisco, in company with Grazziolla Ridgway, a soprano, who has lately achieved much success, and the celebrated tenor, Cecchi, together with Susini, basso, Orlandini, baritone, who have already established reputations in this city, and Signor Giorza, the celebrated composer and director."

Late Foreign News.

By the Ajax, bringing later dates from San Francisco, we have the following additional telegrams from Europe and the United States.

EUROPEAN.

Paris, July 19th.—The indictment upon which Rochefort is to be tried contains four counts, viz: first, provocation to hatred among citizens; second, incitement to civil war and pillage; third, publication of false news and spurious dispatches, knowing them to be false, and consequently counterfeiting public and private writings; fourth, complicity in murder, by instigating the arrest and execution of hostages.

The friends of the ex-Minister of the Government of the National Defence deny the story that has been put out regarding his prostration and weakness. They assert that he is in vowing cast down; but it must be admitted that his position, with such a list of charges, and members of the Court Martial for his judges, is a sufficiently serious one.

Gambetta was before the Committee of Investigation appointed by the Assembly to inquire into the doings of the Government of the National Defence. His testimony to-day was principally with regard to raising troops during its administration.

On the 25th ult., at Rome, the Pope held a Consistory, at which he named the Bishops of Zippo, in Hungary; of Oporto, in Portugal; and of St. Iago, in Cape De Verdes, and afterward published the nominations made since last month—namely: The Patriarch of Lisbon, and the Bishops of Bragansa and Miranda, Portugal, and the Bishops of Mezo and Ellase, in Partibus. He then addressed the Secret College, to which he announced his decision in these words:

"We are, my very dear Brothers, in the hands of Divine Providence. We have nothing to expect from human aid; for man has abandoned us. Why should we dissemble? It is better that I should tell you the Kings and Governments, forgetting their promises, leave us to our fate. They have addressed us in fine phrases. They sent us the warmest congratulations on the day of our Jubilee; but they saw fit from taking steps in support of their messages. We can hope no help from any quarter. King Victor Emanuel will be here in a few days, and will be attended by the Ministers of the Catholic States. We have done all that was in our power, but our efforts have failed. All is lost. You will tell me, perhaps, that we have still hope in France; but France can do nothing. She is going through a frightful crisis, which may be succeeded by others yet more dreadful. I repeat it, all is lost, and only a miracle can save us. Turn, then, to the Almighty, and seek His intervention."

Arrived, out—The steamers New York and City of Limerick, from New York; the Berlin, from Baltimore; the Aleppo, from Boston, and the St. Patrick, from Quebec.

A Card.

San Francisco, May 20, 1871.

We the Undersigned, Sole Agents for the Pacific States, China, Japan, Sandwich Islands, and Australia for the Delaney's Patent Wire Cushions, have received the following unsolicited testimonial from A. P. Rudolphe, acknowledged to be the best player of the day. Parties wishing Billiard Tables with the "Delaney's Wire Cushion" are cautioned against certain agents who are trying to infringe on our patent. JACOB STRAHLE & CO.

San Francisco, May 20th, 1871.

Messrs. Jacob Strahle & Co., Billiard Manufacturers, 563 Market Street, San Francisco, California.

Gentlemen: I am happy to declare to all amateurs of Billiards that, after my long experience in the principal cities of the world, I feel convinced of the superiority of the Billiard Tables manufactured by Jacob Strahle & Co.

I also find the "Delaney Patent Wire Cushion" very superior for its elasticity, durability, truth, and correctness to anything now in use; in short, the whole has my most unqualified approval.
