GREAT FIRE IN CHICAGO!

Vivid Description of the Fire and Its Ravages.

Incidents in its Progress.

The Citizens Helpless Spectators.

Scenes of Suffering and Distress.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10th.—The following eloquent and truthful description has been furnished by a gentleman who participated in the work throughout:

None but an eye-witness can form an idea of the fury and power of the fire, as it destroyed the palatial buildings and warehouses on the south side of the city. With the wind blowing a hurricane, at times it seemed but the work of a moment for the fire to enter the south ends of buildings fronting on Randolph, Lake and Water streets, and reappear at the north. The doors and windows would then belch forth in fierce flames, which often licked the opposite buildings, and the flames belching from the buildings on both sides of the street would unite and present completely filling the street from side to side, and shooting upward a hundred feet into the air above the house-tops in their mad career. Then was street after street filled with flame and fire, and the roar which came from the flames can only be described by combining the noise of the ocean, during a tempest, dashing upon a rocky beach with the howling of a strong wind. Huge walls would topple and fall into

A SOLID MASS OF FIRE,

THE SEA OF FIRE

Without apparently giving a sound, as the roar of the flames was so great that all minor sounds were swallowed up, and the fall of walls was only perceptible to the eye and not to the ear.

If our readers will recall to their minds the fierce snow storm in their experience, and imagine snow all of fire, as it surged hither and thither, they will be able to form a faint conception of the flames as they raged through the streets of our doomed city. Many of the buildings situated along South Water street, buried their red-hot, rear walls in the waters of the river, into which they plunged with a hiss like unto nothing earthly, throwing up a billow of water, which would gradually subside until another wall would follow.

THE HEAT WAS SO INTENSE

At times, from some of the burning buildings, that they could not be approached within 150 feet, which accounts for the manner in which the fire worked back, and often against the wind. The fire after reaching the business part of Randolph and South Water streets, leaped the river on to the North Side in an incredible short space of time, and thence among the wooden buildings on that side it reached the lake shore, after destroying block after block of before happy dwellings.

A SCENE OF MORE POWERLESS EFFORT to fight an enemy was never presented, than that of the people struggling to arrest the flames. It soon became apparent that the effort was hopeless, and it was abandoned. The citizens were thus compelled to stand helpless while their property was destroyed. Nothing of the past history of civilized nations chronicles any such disaster to which this present one can be compared. So in all future time the great Chicago fire, when mentioned, will bring a pang of anguish to the hearts of its participants, and to all future generations it will be a simile of everything that is fearful and terrible. While there were a great many

INSTANCES OF GENEROUS DEVOTION

On the part of rich and poor in dividing with the destitute, there are painful instances of moodiness and selfishness. One man was trying to remove some valuable papers from an office and asked two firemen to help him, which they refused to do unless he paid them $500, and the papers were destroyed. Drivers of express wagons have taken $100, and even $500, for an hour's use of their vehicles in taking distressed people away. Among

THE BAD ACCOMPANIMENTS OF THE CALAMITY

Was to see hundred of men and boys, beastly intoxicated, around the streets of the North Division, where the saloon keepers' stocks, turned into the streets, furnished a convenient opportunity for the gratification of their slavish propensities. There can hardly be a doubt that many of these poor wretches found their death in the flames from which they were too helpless to escape. One poor man had crawled for refuge into a water-main lying in the street near the water works, but the fire found him before he could get his body wholly in safety, and robbed him of his life.

NO WATER EXCEPT FROM THE LAKE.

In the city there is no water except what is gotten from the lake. Very great fears of outrages by thieves on the west side are felt on every hand.

GENERAL SHERIDAN STILL WORKING.

General Sheridan, who has been a hard worker all through the fire, is still asking for troops from different points to keep order. All business and work is suspended, and every one is intent on securing food, something to eat, and next, shelter.

The sufferings on the north side are heart-rending—men, women and children, 50,000 of them, huddled together like so many wild animals, and in another place 17,000.

The Germans and Irish are praying for relief, and helpless children are asking for bread of heartbroken parents who know not which way to turn or what to say. There is nothing further to do but to wait the distribution of supplies, which at best must be a slow proceeding, as there are parts of the burnt district over which it is almost impossible to travel. Women in the pains of childbirth and patients who have been removed from beds of sickness, to save lives that at best were nearly spent, were all exposed to the rain of last night and the cold raw winds of to-day.

SEVERAL DEATHS

Have occurred in Lincoln Park, and three women have brought children into the world only to die. There are people who, in the bitterness of their souls, ascribe the calamity to God's judgment. A German said to me, "This is a second Sodom and Gomorrah, and the curse is on it."

Another night must be spent in Lincoln Park and the brick fields at Division street, and yet another and another.

PEOPLE LEAVING THE CITY.

Each train and extra are loaded to their fullest capacity, taking people away, who in many instances have no place to go to, yet cannot stay here, and every train is obliged to have five times as many as they have room for. [Every precaution is being taken by the authorities to guard the people to-night, and if morning comes without robberies, murders, or a renewal of fires, then all will thank God and go forward with courage.

The expression of sympathy on all hands is most gratifying, but

MORE HELP MUST COME.

The Evening Journal got out a half sheet to-night, and other papers will follow to-morrow, some presses have been found. The private residence of Horace White and William Brown, of the Tribune were consumed. Mr. Medill and Mr. Cowles, also of the Tribune, were more fortunate, also Mr. Storey of the Times, and Mr. Wilson, of the Journal. The general agent of the Ætna Fire Insurance Company of Hartford announces that that company will pay every dollar of its insurance. Meetings of the citizens on West and South sides will be kept up the rest of the night.

THE COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK,

Will commence rebuilding on the old site to-morrow; meanwhile they re-open for business on West Washington street. They opened their vault this afternoon, and all their books, papers, money and securities were in perfect order. There is a rumor that in a burnt blacksmith shop, on Rush street, the bodies of

FIFTEEN MEN WERE FOUND BURNED,

To a crisp, they having rushed into the shop to escape from the flames which had surrounded them, before they had discovered their peril.

AN UNKNOWN NUMBER OF PEOPLE ARE MISSING,

And, for the purpose of aiding in their discovery, a central intelligence office has been established, where the names of all missing ones are taken and they are given to the police.

The large hotel in West Division, just completed, has been taken by Gage Brothers & Rice, late of the Sherman House, and they will open it in ten days. It will be known as the Sherman House. The entire

NORTH DIVISION IS SWEPT CLEAN

From the Chicago river to Wright's Grove, a distance of more than three miles, and but one house, that of Mahlon D. Ogden, formerly the residence of Hon. Wm. B. Ogden, remains standing in the entire district. A large portion of the population driven from this desolated ground are encamped on the prairie to the north, where they have nothing but the canopy of Heaven to cover them, and scarcely sufficient food to satisfy their hunger.

A MEETING OF CITIZENS OF THE STATE

Was held this afternoon, at which resolutions were passed recommending Governor Palmer to call an extra session of the Legislature at once. Ex Governor Oglesby was appointed to proceed to Springfield with the matter before Governor Palmer.

All the packing-houses in Chicago and many of the elevators remain uninjured, and these two branches of Chicago's past prosperity will be but slightly interrupted. The Directors of the Chamber of Commerce met to-day and resolved to proceed at once to the renovation of their late elegant edifice.

GOVERNMENT AID ARRIVING.

Two companies of United States Infantry arrived here this evening, and will be at once put on patrol duty. Three hundred wall tents and a large number of rations have also arrived with them. These all came in response to a telegraphic order from Lieutenant-General Sheridan. More rations will arrive to-morrow. Large numbers of citizens have been sworn in as patrol police. A special train arrived from Cincinnati this evening, in charge of a committee from that city, with

CAR LOADS OF PROVISIONS FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION.

They also brought a large sum of money for distribution. The committee will to-morrow establish the "Cincinnati Soup House," and feed all the destitute that may come along. They will also distribute 3,000 good warm blankets.

THE "JOURNAL" AND "POST"

issued editions of their papers this afternoon, and the Tribune will appear to-morrow morning, printed on a single-cylinder Taylor press, which has been put up during the week.

PRINTERS' UNION APPEAL FOR AID.

At a meeting of the Chicago Union Printers to-day, the President was authorized to issue the following letter:

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.

To the Subordinate Unions of the International Typographical Union: The disastrous fire of the past two days has totally destroyed every printing establishment in this city, throwing out of employment 800 printers. We want immediate pecuniary relief. All you can spare remit to Morgan G. Mills, care of A. M. U., the United States, or the Adams' Express Companies, Chicago. J. M. FARQUHAR,

President Chicago Typographical Union No. 16.

WHAT THE SUFFERERS NEED.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—Dispatches from H. T. Blow and other members of the St. Louis Committee in Chicago say cooked food, blankets, clothing and coffee, are specially needed there at present. Mayor Brown sent 5,000 blankets forward to-day, and will send a large quantity of bedding to-morrow. The Young Men's Society of this city subscribed $1,000 to-day, and other societies have been very liberal. Many of the interior towns of Missouri are raising money, and the contributions from those sources promise to be quite large.

THE BURTHPLACE OF PICKWICK.—This great monastic enclosure is Furnival's Inn, once the mansion of the Furnival family. "A valiant family," says Jesse, "from Girard de Furnival, who fought by the side of Richard Cœur de Lion, on the Plains of Palestine, to Thomas de Furnival, the companion of the Black Prince on the field of Cressy." Alas!

"The knights are dust,
Their good swords are rust,
And their souls are with the saints, we trust."

No more helm and tabard, lance and trumpets round the house of Furnival; but lawyer's deeds, blue bags and red tape. In 1383 the gallant, hard fighting Furnivals became extinct, and the Inn fell by marriage to the Earl of Shrewsbury. In the reign of Edward VI, however, an Earl of Shrewsbury sold it to Lincoln's Inn. The Inn was rebuilt in the reign of James I.; but a part of it having been destroyed by fire, and the rest grown ruinous, it was pulled down in 1817, and was rebuilt by Peto, whose complacent statue now figures in the centre. In the old building there was a chapel, near which stood a mulberry tree—a relic perhaps of James I., when loyal person's planted mulberry trees by the King's wish, to furnish food for silk worms, which were then being bred by the English silk manufacturers. But the chief memory that consecrates the Inn is neither of the mulberry tree nor of the Knights of Cressy; it is a later and more immortal memory. At No. 15, high up at the top on the right-hand side as you face the door-way, are the humble Chambers where Dickens was living when he wrote "Pickwick." He was newly married then, writing resolutely for the newspapers. Here his quick fancy devised that most delightful crowd of oddities, genial old "Pickwick," romantic "Snodgrass," daring "Winkle," the gallant "Tupman,' the swift but vivacious "Jingle," "Sam Weller," the incomparable; here with those vagrant pigeons from "Guildhall," strutting and fluttering at the window, Dickens must have sat roaring at his own fun, and the creations of a humor only transcended by him who created "Falstaff." Yes, there has been laughing in the Inn before me; for here at No. 3, down to the left as you enter the archway, that gay, light-hearted "Mercutio," Charles Matthews, set up as an architect, and many a bright castle he built. "I went out one day," says Matthews, "left a card pinned up, 'back in an hour,' but did not come back for five years."—[From Belgravia.]

A MAN in Boston, on getting soda, was retiring from the store without the usual ceremony that follows that operation. "Recollect, Sir," said the polite proprietor, "if you lose your pocket-book, you didn't pull it out here."
