CASH MUSIC STORE—MUSIC AT HALF PRICE.—New York, January 1, 1855.—William Hall & Son, 239 Broadway, opposite the Park, have decided to reduce the price of their entire catalogue and stock of non-copyright music to an average of one-half its former prices. In order to afford this reduction, we are obliged to adopt the cash system, and we believe that our friends and the public generally will be even better served than heretofore, by a strict adherence to this principle. In regulating our prices, we have adopted our national currency, and have, as far as possible, made the prices in decimals. The price will be marked on every piece of music. The son copyrights thus: "Reduced price, —— cents," and the copyrights thus: "Copyright, —— cents." All the non-copyright music printed previous to this arrangement will be sold at one-half the old prices. A similar reduction will be made in instruction books, &c. Since the study of music has become an essential branch of education, a reduction in the price of sheet music has been demanded by the public, and we have no doubt that the plan we have adopted will increase our sales sufficient to warrant us in carrying out our enterprise to its fullest extent. Our catalogue already contains the works of the best European authors, and we will continue to reprint such as may hereafter be published, all of which will be sold at less than one-half the prices of the foreign copies. We will continue the manufacture of pianofortes, guitars, flutes, &c., and also the importation of every article of musical merchandise, and will sell for cash only, at greatly reduced prices. Orders from any part of the country, enclosing the money, will be promptly and faithfully attended to. WM. HALL & SON,
