THE NEW BOOK BY THE AUTHOR OF "ALONE"—THE HIDDEN PATH,
BY MARION HARLAND.
One elegant 12mo, price $1 25.
From the New York Evening Post.
The following notice of this work, which we find in the Richmond Enquirer, is doubtless from the generous pen of Mrs. Anna Cora Ritchie, and contains a just tribute to the literary talents of the most successful female writer which Virginia has yet produced:—
Let this noble production (we use the adjective in its fullest sense) lie upon the table, enliven the hearth, be the household companion, of every true-hearted Virginian. Foster this gifted daughter of the South with the expanding sunshine of approbation, the refreshing dews of praise—stimulate undeveloped germs, which has never yet "opened its inspiration" to walk in her steps, emulate her achievements and share her honors—let Virginia produce a few more such writers, and the cry that the South has no literature of its own, is silenced for ever. "The Hidden Path" is a work that North or South, East or West, may point to with the finger of honest pride and say, "Our daughter sends her message to the world—pours its balm into wounded hearts—traces for wavering, erring feet the 'Hidden Path,' which leads to the great goal of eternal peace."
J. C. DERBY, Publisher, New York, and for sale by all booksellers.
