The Coming Shah.

The Shah is coming from Ispahan!
Nothing so strange has happened to man
Since the days of wonderful Kitlis Khan,
Who dwelt where "the sacred river ran
Through caverns measureless to man,
Down to a sunless sea."

The Shah is coming from Ispahan
And the plains and gardens of Teheran!
From beyond the mountains of Kurdistan,
Where the sun comes up over Khorassan
From the far-off valleys of Kafiristan,
The western lands to see.

Nasreddin Shah is the name of the man
Who is coming to Europe from Ispahan—
From the home of the old Aryan clan
By Araxes and the far Strabon—
To see what the modern Aryan man
Has done by the western sea.

Nasreddin Shah is a wise man
There some who have ruled in Ispahan
Do their subjects better than persons,
Build telegraphs, and lose a plan,
To poverty join as well as brains,
In his land by the Caspian Sea. —Selected.

Petition to His Majesty the King.

TO HIS MAJESTY, LUNALILO:

SIR—We the undersigned, mechanics, tradesmen, and others, interested in the material welfare of your Kingdom, and our country, would respectfully present to you, asking therefor, the earnest consideration of your Government, some of the views commonly held at the present time in the community, at large, concerning the interests of the Kingdom.

We believe that the prosperity of the nation, is at the present time, identical with that of the sugar planters. The sugar plantations, in our humble opinion, pay one-half, or more, of all the wages paid in the country, to their field laborers, farmers, coopers, blacksmiths, engineers, sugar boilers, managers, &c., besides furnishing work which keeps our iron works, keg and barrel factories, blacksmith and wheel-wright shops in motion, and furnishes the freight, both to, and from Honolulu, which keeps a large fleet, of coasters in motion, and gives employment to a large number of men in Honolulu, in handling said freight. They put into circulation the money which enables the country tradesman to keep his shop open by giving him a market for his goods, which otherwise he would not have. They are a benefit to every district in which they are started, by making a market for labor, offering remunerative wages to every man inclined to work, and gradually dispelling such evils as are caused by an idle life. We would respectfully represent that the past year was one of great disaster to all the planting interests in the country, by reason of the drought in some places, and floods in others, that in consequence of these, the production of sugar was greatly lessened, and that now we are entering upon a new year, with another crop, just coming in, and that the price of sugar is lower than it has been before for many years, and in our opinion such a succession of disasters will probably prove fatal to many, if not a majority of the planting interests. That such disaster will tend seriously to hamper Your Majesty's Government, by cutting off the revenue, and will prove a source of great embarrassment to Your humble petitioners.

We believe that the only relief from this impending danger lies in a Reciprocity Treaty with the United States, by means of which Sugar, and other articles, the production of these Islands, will be admitted to the United States free of duty. If this could be accomplished, we believe that an era of unexpanded prosperity would dawn on the land. That all classes of property would rise in value, that more capital and labor would be attracted, that new capital would be created here from profits of enterprise. That new branches of industry would be opened, that the revenue of the Kingdom would increase, and that Your Majesty's Government would receive an accession of strength which it could derive from no other source. Therefore Your petitioners would humbly pray that all the energy of Your executive Government may be directed towards a consummation so devoutly to be hoped for. We remain,

Your Majesty's most obedient servants,

[illegible]

Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

A. HERBERT, - - Proprietor.
THIS HAS BECOME THE MOST POPULAR Institution of this city. It is the one which recommends as most to the favorable consideration of strangers. Every one who arrives in Honolulu indulges in an expression of surprise to find so large; so elegant, and such a well-appointed Hotel.
Travelers from all parts of the world, who have stopped here, assert unanimously that there is no house of public entertainment on the Pacific coast or in the British colonies which surpasses in point of comfort and elegance the New Hawaiian Hotel.
The building is lighted with gas. The Dining Room is a spacious hall, and can seat 200 persons. The Parlor is furnished very luxuriously, and has a superior toned piano for the entertainment of guests. There is a Billiard Saloon, provided with three of Strahle & Co.'s patent cushion tables. The Bed Rooms are all furnished with spring mattresses and tasteful sets of furniture, with cold and warm and shower baths attached.
There are no extra charges for conveyance of guests between the steamers, in coming or going, and no extra charge for removal of baggage or other extra service.
