OFFICE OF THE MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILROAD Company, Boston, Oct. 1, 1857.
Sealed proposals will be received at this office up to 12M. of November, at 1 o'clock P. M., for a loan of $3,100,000, payable as follows:—
19. Ten per cent on November 14, which first instalment the company will retain without issuing bonds therefor until the last instalment is paid.
18. Fifteen per cent January 1, 1858.
18. Twenty five per cent March 1, 1858.
18. Twenty five per cent May 1, 1858.
18. Twenty five per cent July 1, 1858.
100.
For which the company will issue eight per cent convertible bonds with semi annual coupons dated 1st October, 1857 and having twenty five years to run.
In order to give the numerous holders of small amounts of our stock an opportunity to subscribe, a sufficient number of the bonds will be for five hundred dollars each, the remainder for one thousand dollars.
Other things being equal, a preference will be given to the smaller bids by our home individual stockholders, who are especially invited to share in the loan, but the company reserve to themselves the right to consider the responsibility of the parties making the proposals as well as the price offered. With these exceptions they will award the loan, if the whole be taken, pro rata, to the highest bidder.
Notes of the company or bonds maturing between this date and July, 1858 will be received in payment for this loan, with proper adjustment of interest.
For the protection of these bonds and of those maturing in 1860, and subsequently, a first mortgage upon the property and franchises of the company has been executed to J. Morris Forbes, Nathaniel Thayer and H. H. Hunnewell, Trustees, containing a proviso that a sinking fund shall be paid to said Trustees annually, sufficient to absorb the principal thereof before maturity which shall be invested in this issue of bonds as long as they can be bought at or under ten per cent premium—otherwise at the discretion of the Trustees.
The proposals will be opened at the office of the Company on the 19th day of November next, at 1 P. M., in the presence of the above named Trustees, who accept the trust with the understanding that they will at that time resign it to any suitable parties nominated by a majority of the shares of the bonds.
J. W. BROOKS, President.
ISAAC LIVERMORE, Treasurer.
[Extract from an act of the Legislature of Michigan, approved February 13, 1855.]
Section 1. The people of the State of Michigan enact, That the Michigan Central Railroad Company, by a vote of its directors or a majority thereof, may increase the stock from time to time, to an amount necessary to cover the cost of the construction, completion, equipment, operating and keeping up of their road and its connections, and to lay down a double track for the same, and both within and without said State; and also to issue their bonds from which to pay any debts incurred or to be incurred for such purposes in such sums and at such rates of interest as such directors or a majority thereof may determine; and the said stock and bonds to sell and dispose of at such rates as they can, and as said directors or a majority thereof may approve; and said directors or a majority thereof may, under such regulations as they may adopt, confer on the holders of such bonds the right to convert the principal due thereon into the stock of the company.
