NOTE.—All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and exhibit the total amount of each bid; and no bid will be acted on unless it embraces all articles required at a post.

The periods and quantities of each delivery will be: one-fourth 1st June, 1st September, 1st December, 1859, and 1st March, 1860.

The sugar and coffee to be delivered in strong barrels, full hooped. The beans and salt in barrels, and the soap and candles in strong boxes of convenient size for transportation. Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty two quarts to the bushel. The candles to have cotton wicks.

All provisions tendered for delivery under this advertisement will be thoroughly and rigidly inspected at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses must be paid by contractors until they are deposited at such storehouse as may be designated by the agent of the department.

Any variation from the terms of the contracts will be considered sufficient and good reason for rejecting the article or articles so varying.

The Commissary General reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities, or dispensing with any or all articles required at any post, at any time before entering into contract; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one third subsequent to contract, on giving sixty days previous notice

All bidders are required to accompany their proposals with ample evidence of their ability to fulfil their contracts. They must also furnish the names of their securities, whose responsibility must be certified by the District Attorney, or by some person well known to the government; otherwise their proposals will not be acted on.

Advances will not be made in any case, and evidence of inspection and full delivery must be received at this office before any requisition will be made upon the treasury for payment, which will be effected in such public money as may be convenient to the points of delivery, the places of purchase, or the residence of the contractors, at the option of the Treasury Department.

No drafts on this office will be accepted or paid under any circumstances.

Each proposal will be sealed in a separate envelope, and marked "Proposals for Furnishing Army Subsistence."
GEO. GIBSON, C. G. S.

NOTE.—Editors will not be paid for inserting in their papers this advertisement unless authorized to do so by the Commissary General of Subsistence.
