AN ADDRESS WILL BE DELIVERED AT CLINTON Hall, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 27, at 8 o'clock, by J. Atkins, an English Mining Engineer (whose life has been divided in the English and slave State mines), on the comparison of the physical and pecuniary condition of white laborers of England, of both sexes, and colored slavery in the South. Mr. A. hopes that as the English and Northern abolitionists are continually exhibiting to the world such horrid pictures of American colored slavery, the citizens of New York will come and hear something about English white slavery in the coal mines and out of them. Tickets 25 cents. For sale at the desk of the Mercantile Library and at the door of Francis J. Tucker, 167 Broadway.

P. S.—This address will not be delivered from pecuniary motives, but that the truth be known.

CENTRAL PARK ORDINANCES.—THE BOARD OF Commissioners of the Central Park do ordain as follows:—

No animal shall travel on any part of the Central Park, except upon the "ride," or equestrian road, at a rate exceeding five miles an hour. Persons on horseback shall not travel on the "ride," or equestrian road, at a rate exceeding six miles per hour.

No vehicle shall be permitted on the "ride," or equestrian road, the same being devoted exclusively to equestrians; nor shall any vehicle, horse, or animal of burden, go upon any part of the Central Park, except upon the "drive," and other carriage and transverse roads, and upon such places as are appropriated for carriages at rest.

No animal or vehicle shall be permitted to stand upon the drive or carriage roads of the Central Park, or any part thereof, to the obstruction of the way or to the inconvenience of travel, nor shall any person upon the Central Park solicit or invite passengers.

No hackney coach, carriage, or other vehicle for hire shall stand upon any part of the Central Park for the purpose of taking in any other passengers or persons than those carried to the Park by said coach, carriage or vehicle.

No person shall expose any article or thing for sale upon the Central Park, except previously licensed by the Board of Commissioners of the Central Park, nor shall any hawking or peddling be allowed on the Central Park.

No omnibus, cart, dray, wagon, truck, or other vehicle carrying goods, merchandise, manure, soil or other article, or solely used for the carriage of goods, merchandise, manure or other articles, shall be allowed to enter any part of the Central Park, except upon the transverse roads.

No threatening, abusive, insulting or indecent language shall be allowed on the Central Park, whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

No person shall be allowed to tell fortunes, or play at any game of chance at or with any table or instrument of gaming, nor to do any obscene or indecent act whatever on the Central Park.

In case of an emergency where life or property are endangered, all persons, if required so to do by the Superintendent or any of his assistants, shall remove from the portion of the Central Park specified by the Superintendent or his assistants, and remain off the same till permission is given to return.

The above ordinances were adopted and passed at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Central Park, duly convened and held on the 23d day of September, 1859, and are published in obedience to the requirements of an act entitled "An act for the regulation and government of the Central Park, in the city of New York," passed April 17, 1857. The following section of said act is applicable to the above ordinances:—

Section 15. All persons offending against such ordinances shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and be punished, on conviction before the Mayor, Recorder, or any magistrate of the city of New York, by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, and in default of payment, by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

By order of the Board. AND'W H. GREEN, President of the Board of Commissioners of the Central Park. Dated NEW YORK, Sept. 23, 1859.

NAVY BEEF AND PORK.

NAVY AGENCY, NEW YORK, September 19, 1859.

Sealed proposals endorsed "Proposals for beef" and "Proposals for pork," as the case may be, will be received at this office until 12 o'clock noon, on Thursday the 29th inst., for furnishing and delivering free of all cost and risk to the United States, at the Navy yard at Brooklyn, within five days after the date of notification of the acceptance of bid. The beef must be from well fattened cattle. The pork must be packed from corn fed, well fattened hogs. The barrels must be entirely new and be made of the best seasoned heart of white oak staves and headings, and each barrel to be hooped with four iron hoops.

1,000 barrels of beef,
1,000 barrels of pork,

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation immediately, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the article proposed. This guarantee must be accompanied by the certificate of the United States District Judge, United States District Attorney or Navy Agent, that the guarantors are able to make good their guarantee.

No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee.

The beef and pork must conform to the usual inspection of the Navy Yard.

Full particulars may be ascertained upon application to the Commandant of the Navy Yard, or at this office.

GEORGE N. SANDERS, Navy Agent.
