PERSONAL.

ACCEPT MY EARNEST HEARTFELT GRATITUDE. I am sorry that Aimee, to whose friendship I solely owe so many revengeful enemies, has left me for reasons of my impatience at an incognito of seven years duration, and of a strict tutor relative to the formation of merely prudentities (M. H. Ac.), to their fierce teeth. The Almighty will bring the devices of my enemies to naught! I cannot advertise thus again.—E

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—OFFICE OF THE COMmissioners of Taxes and Assessments, 32 Chambers st, New York, January 10, 1860.—Notice is hereby given that the assessment rolls of Real and Personal Estate of the city of New York for the year 1860 are now open for public inspection, and will continue open until the 30th day of April next inclusive. All taxpayers are earnestly requested to call and examine the same, in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of their assessments by reason of being clergymen, or for military services, and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction or exemption previous to the closing of the rolls on said 30th day of April.

The following section of the act of April 14, 1859, is published for the information of taxpayers:—

Section 10. During the time the books shall be open for public inspection, as heretofore provided, application may be made by any person considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to have the same corrected. If such application be made in relation to the assessed valuation of real estate, it must be made in writing, stating the ground of objection thereto, and thereupon the Commissioners shall examine into the complaint, and if, in their judgment, the assessment is erroneous they shall cause the same to be corrected. If such application be made in relation to the assessed valuation of personal estate, the applicant shall be examined under oath by the said Commissioners, who shall be authorized to administer such oath, or any of them, and if in their judgment, the assessment is erroneous, they shall cause the same to be corrected and fix the amount of such assessment as they may believe to be just, and declare their decision thereof within thirty days after such application shall have been made to them. No reduction shall be made by the Board of supervisors of any assessment on real or personal estate imposed under this act, unless it shall appear, under oath or affirmation, that the party aggrieved was unable to attend within the period prescribed for the correction of taxes, by reason of sickness or absence from the city.—Laws of 1858, chapter 302, section 9.

NOTICE TO WEIGHERS OF HAY.—NOTICE IS HEREby given that all persons are forbidden from giving certificates as to the weight of hay in the city of New York subsequent to the first of May next, without being authorized by the Mayor, and also that licenses for weighing of hay and keeping hay scales pursuant to the following act of the Legislature relative to bale hay and hay scales, will be issued on and after the aforesaid day of May next, on application at the Mayor's office. By order of the Mayor

J. C. BURNHAM, First Marshal.

Dated New York, April 11, 1860.

AN ACT IN RELATION TO BALE HAY AND HAY SCALES. Passed April 3, 1860

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:—

Section 1. Every person who shall put up and press any bundle or bale of hay for market shall mark or brand, in a legible manner, the initials of his name on some board or wood attached to such bundle or bale of hay

Sec 2. No person shall put or conceal in any such bundle or bale of hay any wet or damaged hay, dirt or stones, wood or other materials for the purpose of increasing the weight of such bundle or bale.

Sec 3. The Mayor of the City and County of New York is hereby authorized and empowered to regulate, license, and from time to time fix the number of hay scales in said city, and for cause, to revoke any license given by him; and all persons in said city are prohibited from giving certificates of weight of hay, except those who have received such license, who shall be required to make legible on each bale the gross weight thereof.

sec. 4. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be subject to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each offence.

sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE—I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of said original law.

Given under my hand and seal of office, at the City of Albany, this ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty. D. R. FLOYD JONES, Secretary of State.
