OFFICIAL. OHIO STATE LOAN—$6,000,000. OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE SINKING FUND OF THE STATE OF OHIO, COLUMBUS, 28th August, 1860.

The State of Ohio desires to borrow the sum of six millions and four hundred thousand dollars, to be applied exclusively to the payment of that portion of the Public debt redeemable at the pleasure after the 31st day of December next; and to that end the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the State, under authority of an act of its Legislature, will receive sealed proposals at the Ohio State Agency, No. 25 William street, New York city, until 12 o'clock M. of the 25th day of November next, for the purchase of six millions and four hundred thousand dollars of the transferable Certificates of the Funded and Registered Debt of the State of Ohio, bearing interest from the 1st day of January, 1861, to be paid semi annually on the first days of January and July of each year, at the Ohio State Agency in the city of New York, with the principal reimbursable at the same place; and which, as to the rate per cent of interest and the time of final redemption, shall be in accordance with such of the three conditions following, as, on the opening of the proposals, the Commissioners may deem to be the most advantageous to the State; that is to say:—

1. Bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and redeemable at the pleasure of the State after the thirty-first day of December, 1890.

2. Bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and redeemable at the pleasure of the State after the thirty first day of December, 1870.

3. Bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and redeemable at the pleasure of the State after the thirty first day of December, 1880.

Each proposal must state distinctly for which of these classes of certificates it is made, the amount of either which is desired, and the price for each one hundred dollars of each class proposed to be taken, and must be accompanied by a certified check on, or certificate of deposit of, one of the banks of New York city, payable to the order of the Commissioners, for a sum equal to five per cent of the amount of certificates bid for, which sum shall be forfeited if the bidder shall fail, in case any of the certificates are awarded to him, to pay the residue of his bid at the time hereinafter specified for that purpose. No bid at less than the par value of the certificates, or for less amount than five thousand dollars will be considered; and each bid shall be deemed as made either for the whole amount herein, or for such pro rata amount thereof as, at the rate specified may be assignable to the bidder, regard being had to the other proposals.

Interest on the deposit, at the rate for which the certificates are awarded to him, will be allowed to each successful bidder, and adjusted on the delivery of the certificates, and each will be required to pay the residue of the amount bid by him on the 29th day of December, 1860, at the Ohio State Agency, in the city of New York, at which time and place the certificates awarded will be ready for delivery. Certificates of the Funded Debt of the State of Ohio redeemable on the first day of January, 1861, will be received in payment of any part of the loan hereby contemplated.

The deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them upon application at the Ohio State Agency on the day next subsequent to the opening of the proposals.

The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all of the bids if they shall deem it necessary in order to protect or promote the interest of the State.

Proposals for this loan must be enclosed in a sealed envelope directed to the "Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the State of Ohio," and endorsed "Proposals for the Ohio Loan."

In order to secure uniformity, and for the convenience of bidders, the Commissioners have prepared a form of proposal, which, together with a copy of the act authorizing the loan, and any information desired in the premises, may be obtained at the Ohio State Agency in New York city, or at the office of the Commissioners in Columbus, Ohio.
