OFFICIAL PROPOSALS FOR LOAN OF TEN MILLION DOLLARS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Sept. 5, 1860.

Sealed proposals will be received at this Department until 12 o'clock, noon, of Monday, the twenty-second day of October next, for ten millions of dollars of stock of the United States to be issued under the act of Congress of the 23d of June last, authorizing a loan and providing for the redemption of Treasury notes, at which time the proposals will be opened and decided on. The stock will be reimbursable in ten years from the first day of January next, and will bear interest at five per cent per annum, payable semi annually, on the first days of January and July of each year.

No offer will be accepted below par, and none for any fraction of one thousand dollars. Nor will any offer be considered unless one per centum of the amount thereof is deposited with a depositary of the United States, subject to the order of the Secretary of the Treasury. The certificate of such deposit must accompany the proposals. In all cases the offers must be unconditional, without reference to other offers, and must state the rate of premium offered.

The proposals should be endorsed on the outside, "Proposals for Loan of 1860," and be addressed, "To the Secretary of the Treasury, Washington, D. C."

The best bidders under the foregoing conditions, for the aggregate sum of ten millions of dollars, will be immediately informed by mail of the acceptance of their offers, and they must deposit the amount so accepted, with the premium thereon, with the Treasurer of the United States, or the Assistant Treasurer at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Charleston, New Orleans, or St. Louis, on or before the twenty second day of November next. Should successful bidders desire to deposit at other points, their wishes will be duly considered on being stated to this Department.

Certificates of inscribed stock will be issued in sums not less than one thousand dollars each to the successful bidders, or their assigns, for the principal so deposited, carrying interest at the rate of five per centum from the day of such deposit. Such stock will be transferable on the books of the Treasury, agreeably to the regulations of the Department.

Should any of the successful bidders require certificates of stocks, with coupons of semi-annual interest payable thereon from the 1st of January next, such certificates will be issued with such coupons attached in sums of one thousand dollars each; and such coupons will be detached, instead of being transferable on the books of the Treasury, may be assigned and transferred by the delivery of the certificates. The interest on the interest gained stock from the date of the deposit to the 1st day of January next will be paid to the successful bidder or his attorney by the depositary with whom the principal was deposited.

The preliminary deposit of one per centum, required upon all proposals under this notice, will be included in the deposits of principal and premium made by successful bidders, and will be immediately directed to be returned to the unsuccessful bidders. HOWELL COBB, Secretary of the Treasury.
