COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, DEC. 1, 1875.

We are without late foreign news than what was furnished last week, the only arrival from San Francisco having been that of the Emeralda, 13 days passage.

The B.C. Wylie has sailed for Bremen with a large and valuable cargo, including oil, bone, hides, syrups, ivory, &c. Among her cargo there was some eighty tierces of old slaughter house tallow, horns, hoofs, &c., which were formerly not considered here worth saving, but which are all sought for in the old country now. These odds and ends, worthless as they may seem here, all help to give our home-bound packets full freights.

Among the departures are the ship Gatherer, in ballast for Portland, Oregon, to load wheat, wholesale Atlantic and Bremen.

Ship Emerald, which was damaged by fire last summer, will be sold at noon to-day.

Foreign Commercial Items.

The Sugar Market.—In spots no sales have been made the past week of Box sugars, for export, at $7.47 and $7.48 per quintal, and 500 tierces, for manufacture, at $7.46 to $7.47 per quintal.

In refined sugars the only sale has been made of 1200 pounds Arctic, for export, at about 9c. per pound, gold.—N.Y. Standard.

The New York sugar refiners are in trouble. The duty on imported sugar is about one hundred per cent. for the benefit of a few plantation owners in the Southwest. There is now a bill before Congress for the reduction of $20 per hundred pounds, in order to enable them to compete in foreign markets. The Treasury Department has lately decided this to $2.27, at which rate the refiners say they cannot carry on the business, and they want not merely the entire abolition of the whole amount of the duty, but a large bounty besides. They, in the people must be taxed a hundred per cent. to put the pockets of those who raise sugar, and then to put a bounty on sugar refining. There is no such thing as a free market, and we see no reason why the particular class who want the benefit of the manufacturer of any other article—say sewing machines or agricultural implements, at wholesale. But the majority of legislators is overwhelming.

MEMORANDA.

Report of the bark Delia, Livingston, Master.—Left Tahiti on the 1st of November, at noon, with winds to NE; had winds to NE and moderate breezes to the line, which was crossed November 13th, in long 134° 20' W. Keeping moderate winds to lat 7° 0' N, when we had two days calm and heavy rain, shifting the NE trades, light, on the 18th, to S and E, and to north and light winds, making a passage of 15 days. Brig Pioneer, of Honolulu, left Papeete the same day for Honolulu, to load lumber for this port.

Report of the bark Rover, W. Alley, Freeman, Master.—Had moderate S and SE winds for entire passage. Sighted western end of Molokai on the morning of the 22d, and came into port next day.

Report of the bark Triton, Bepplingham, Master.—Sailed from Honolulu December 20th, 1874, and cruised on the Line for sperm whales but without success. Touched at Tahiti for refreshments, and sailed from there for the Arctic Ocean direct. Sighted Cape Thaddeus on the 12th of May, 1875, found but a small quantity of ice, and saw very few whales; passed through Behring Strait June 12th, and commenced working June 14th and left off July 17th, taking in all about 800 whales. Took our first whale off Cape Navarin Bay, bark a whale off Remote Reef and a 40 barrel whale off Cape Serdtse Kamen, and killed 40 whales off Point Hope, making 12 whales all told. On the 7th of October took a gale from the NE, which lasted ten days, losing the boat and gear, of which I had experienced in the Arctic Ocean. We came through the Straits Oct. 20th, 1875, and had a long passage, having southerly winds from lat 42° until sighting the islands. Arrived at Honolulu November 23d, with 800 bbls sperm oil, 2,700 lbs whale, 200 bbls whale oil, 14,000 lbs bone.

BIRTHS.

In Honolulu, on the 29th Nov to the wife of I. B. Peterson a daughter.

Berlin, October 27th.—The German Parliament met to-day. The Emperor William was absent on account of indisposition. His speech was read by Herr Delbruck, Minister of State. His Majesty says so far as human judgment can discern peace is more assured now than at any time during the twenty years preceding the reconstruction of the Empire.

ALL TO GO OVER AGAIN.—Brooklyn, November 8.—Henry Ward Beecher's written charge against Theodore Tilton has been referred to the Examining Committee of Plymouth Church, to be acted on as the Committee see fit, there has arisen considerable doubt among the congregation, and the general opinion is strongly against that the whole council will be recalled. It will be several weeks before the Committee begins its work of investigation. It is learned that they have been directed to review all the evidence in the case, both that which was presented in Court and that which was excluded. This labor will certainly involve considerable time, and it may be many months, therefore, before anything like a report is reached.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.

☞ Ship Emerald will be sold at noon to day by Mr. Barrow.

☞ Schooner Bonanza will be due from San Francisco in all the coming week, with a later mail.

☞ The sailboat race has been postponed till December 20, when, it is to be hoped the yachtsmen may be favored with a stiff breeze and fair skies, and all come in satisfied.

☞ During the past week rain has been quite abundant, falling copiously on three days, and giving the fields a good soaking. The souther is evidently not yet over, though the change on Sunday led some to believe the trades might set in then.

☞ We are requested to state that the regular monthly meeting of Honolulu Engine Co. No. 1, will be held this (Wednesday) evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will come before the meeting.

WATERSPOUTS.—These phenomena are not common around these islands, but two were seen from Molokai, Kauai on the 23d of November. They occurred some ten or more miles at sea in the channel, and afforded a very fine spectacle to those who were so fortunate as to witness them.

☞ The remains of the late Hon. C. Kapaakea and his wife Keohokalole,—parents of His Majesty, Prince Leleiohoku, and the Princesses,—were last evening transferred from a tomb in Kawaiahao Cemetery to the Royal Mausoleum. The transfer was made under a military escort, with torches, between the hours of eight and nine P.M.

☞ The steamer City of New York, the last of the three "Cities" built for the mail service between San Francisco and Australia, arrived at New York from Chester, Oct. 16th, and would leave that port early in November for the Pacific. The other two of the "Cities" are probably in San Francisco, ready to take their places in the line, as wanted.

☞ Steamer Kilauea having been repaired resumed her trips on Tuesday, not leaving on her regular day, Monday, on account of its being a holiday. The repairs were very thorough, and it is thought that her boilers and machinery will last 10 or 12 months, or until a new vessel can be built, under provision made by the Legislature which meets in May next.

FAMILY MARKET.—This popular resort of housekeepers, changed hands last week, having been sold at public auction by Mr. Bartow. The building, fixtures and goodwill of the establishment were knocked down at $1562, Mr. G. Waller being the purchaser. The new proprietor intends to carry on the business, and make this market more popular than it has heretofore been.

COLLISION ON SHORE.—Two native seamen, who were enjoying their holiday on horseback, riding at a breakneck speed and probably pretty drunk, collided with such a shock that both horses were killed almost instantaneously. The riders escaped with some very severe bruises. The accident occurred in King street, near Rawlin's soap factory. The question now is, who pays for the animals?

☞ Music this evening at the Hotel by Berger's band, when the following pieces will be played:

The Mulligan Guard, March	Benson.
Overture, Opera, The Blindmen of Toledo	Mehul.
Finale & Cavatina, Opera The Barber of Seville	Rossini.
Margenblatter Waltz	Strauss.
Grand selection, Opera La Sonnambula	Bellini.
Pastorale, Opera, Giselle Giralla	Lecocq.
Sounds from the Forest, Echo Fantasia	Kiesler.
Prince Imperial, Galop	Coote.

☞ The mail steamer, from the South,—the Vasco de Gama, Captain Rice—may be expected on Wednesday of next week. The new time table calls for her arrival here Tuesday evening; but if she arrives on Wednesday morning, she will do well for the first passage in the new service. This vessel comes from Sydney, and will connect at Kandavu, Fiji, with a boat from New Zealand, which brings the mails and passengers from that quarter. She will remain in port only a few hours, probably not over ten or twelve.

THE VI APPLE.—We learn that there is a large tree of this fruit growing on the premises of Rev. J. D. Paris at Kealakekua, which is now in full bearing, and so heavily laden, that its limbs have to be propped up to support them. Those who have seen the tree estimate that there are over 3,000 apples on it. This settles the question as to whether it can be acclimatized here, and it should be planted in every part of the group. We have here no finer fruit than the vi, which can be eaten like an orange, preserved as a jelly like the guava, or cooked in pies like American apples.

THANKSGIVING IN HONOLULU.—In accordance with the proclamation of President Grant, Thursday last was observed by Americans and others residing in this city as a day of Thanksgiving. Religious services were held in the Fort street church, and Rev. Dr. Damon delivered what has been termed a continual discourse, comprising an outline sketch of the American Republic for the first hundred years of its existence. It was a very instructive discourse, illustrating the growth of American ideas, and how those ideas have become incorporated into the political systems of other nations. We are glad to learn that it will be published at an early day. The singing by the choir, as usual on such occasions, was very fine, closing with the American National hymn, "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of Liberty." His Majesty the King, was present, accompanied by Col. Allen and Mrs. Allen.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS COURT.—This tribunal, sitting at Washington, is rapidly disposing of the cases brought before it, rejecting not a few of the claims for damages. On the other hand, awards are given to heirs of deceased claimants, with interest on their claims. We notice that a claim of J. C. Merrill & Co., was rejected in October. "The Court has issued a notice that after Nov. 1 no case will be heard upon the second call of the calendar in which the testimony has not been presented and a printed brief furnished, but all such cases will be postponed until the third call of the calendar. The court is making a rigorous effort to complete its work before the 23d of January, when its authority expires by limitation." The claims of Americans and Hawaiians living here, not yet entered, can only be acted on by a special act of Congress, which will no doubt be passed.

ANGORA GOATS.—The Santa Rosa Democrat, in speaking of a flock of Angora goats, says that in the band were five hundred thorough-bred Angoras, that will clip five pounds each, on an average, in February, and the proprietors, Messrs. J. W. and E. L. Reed, informed us that they had the Spring clip sold in New York for $1.30 per pound. Messrs. Reed purchased the band from E. B. Marsh of San Francisco, and paid $22,000. Mr. Marsh paid $27,400 for the same band. There are five thorough-bred Adalic bucks in the band, two of which were presented to a Mr. Chenery of this State by the Sultan of Turkey; also eight thorough-bred Cashmere and Thirteen Angoras, from the celebrated Alexander Blue Grass Farm, in Kentucky; also sixty-four full-blood merinos, from the same place—making the most celebrated collection of this kind on the Coast, or in the United States, quality and quantity considered. The Sacramento Union says that an Angora goat-breeder obtained $1, a pound for his clip, taken off last Spring. There may be something in this business after all, though few have faith in it.

Brigham Young Called From a Sick-bed to the Penitentiary.

SALT LAKE, August 29th.—In the Brigham Young alimony case this morning, the Court ruled that the original order not being a payable, and no motion being made by his attorneys to vacate the same, it was the manifest duty of the Court to enforce it. That the original order was correct and should be upheld; that Young flatly refused to obey; therefore, the Court was bound to enforce, and ordered Young to be imprisoned until the sum of $9,500 and costs are paid.

Brigham's counsel gave notice of appeal, and offered a bond staying the execution of the order, or that he be imprisoned in his own house. As there is no appeal from the original order allowing alimony, therefore there can be no appeal from the order enforcing it. The opinion of the Court is long and elaborate, and replete with authorities. It is regarded by learned members of the bar as the ablest ever delivered in Utah.

The U. S. Marshal, with deputies, immediately arrested Brigham, who was in bed at his residence. At the request of the Marshal two physicians examined Young this afternoon, pronouncing him too sick to be removed without endangering his life. He refuses to pay the money, and will be taken to the Penitentiary as soon as he is able to be removed.

This decision in no wise bears upon the question of recognizing polygamy.
