COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, DEC. 22, 1875.

The arrival and departure of the steamers from San Francisco, both of which brought considerable merchandise and freight, has made business quite lively on the wharf. As the term of service of the old line has expired, and its last boat has reached Australia, we shall hereafter have but one steamer each month from San Francisco.

Bark Clara Bell arrived on the 20th, 20 days from San Francisco, with merchandise to A. J. Cartwright, Esq. She will return with despatch to the same port.

On the 16th, the bark D. C. Murray also arrived from the same port, with freight and passengers to C. Brewer & Co. She will now load with a return cargo.

Schooner Bonanza will sail tomorrow for San Francisco, freighted chiefly with sugar.

Bark Agenoria sailed on Saturday for Portland, taking out part of her original cargo from England.

We find in San Francisco papers the following items relating to whalers still off:

The whaling bark Helen Mar, which sailed on the 24th, below her own cargo of 1300 bbls whale and 80 bbls sperm oil, and 200 bbls whale and 40 bbls sperm oil of the Mount Wollaston's cargo, for New Bedford. The bark Orphan will follow in a few days with a larger cargo and the remainder will be shipped to New York by the Young America.

The whole ship St. George was chartered for Honolulu to-day. It is the intention to remain north of the Line for a few weeks, cruising for Humpbacks and 60 to 65 degrees to the south, and return here next winter. The departure of this vessel leaves seven whalers in port, most of which will soon clear out. There is only one vessel to arrive.

MEMORANDA.

Colombo.—A letter received here dated London, Nov 15, says:—The Haw ck Ka Moi, Capt Blackmann, left Bremen for Honolulu, Nov 1st. During the night of the 9th, when off Beachy Head, she came into collision with the ship Superb, Capt Law, inward from London for Port Phillip. The latter put back to the Downs and anchored, with others equal to most marine ever met either for damage, while Ka Moi lost her bowsprit, etc, and proceeded for other repairs (Deal) to-day. Two of the crew Ka Moi jumped on board the Superb during the collision and remained. FRANCIS BINGHAM.

Report of Bark Clara Bell, F P Shepherd, Master.—Left San Francisco on Thursday, Nov 25th, with light wind from the W which lasted 24 hours, then hauled to the SE and W with fair, sufficient bauling to NW and very light for another 24 hours; then more S and W and finally SSW very strong with heavy cross sea. For the next six days did not make any progress toward the islands. Then the wind hauled to the SW, round to N & NE and E and settled to SE, and very light with a glorious Hawaii to Sorcher, Dec 12th, 40 miles distant. There had light baulling for ends until arrival; have been five days around these islands.

Report Hawaiian brig Pomare, Hatfield, Master—Left Bonabona, Nov 14th with light from NNW with calm, on the 22nd in latitude 11 20 N and 140 30 W encountered a strong gale from NNW with heavy squalls and rain, which lasted 36 hours. Hauled to Equator which was crossed Dec 1st in 135 W; then S and W and light winds from NW; Dec 12th south and of Hawaii have N W thence to port and light westerly winds.

Report of Haw ck M Desmond, Smith, Master—Left Hawaii Island Oct 8, had heavy N E gales down to Bering Straits, with passed through Oct 18, and went into Plover Bay on the 23rd. Left on the 31st and passed through Fox Islands Nov 5. About the middle of November, near lat 40 N, long 170 W, encountered a heavy N E gale, which lasted 48 hours. Off good water heavy seas, above 170 E, hauls, lost a part of bulwarks, sprung fishpiece, started ship aback in upper works. From thence to lat 28 had strong S E winds, and from thence to port light S E variable winds and calms. Dec 11, lat 30 N, long 140 W, met the brig Pomare, 28 days from Bonabona, with oil, for San Francisco. Dec 17, lat 28 N, long 128 W, met the brig Kaiulani, 7 days from Kaneohe, for San Francisco.

Report of Haw ck Mikado, Moore, Commander.—Weighed anchor at San Francisco at 12.12 a m on the 10th Dec, discharging pilot at 1 a m, and shortly afterwards had to stop the engines for fifty two hours to repair machinery, and finally made a fair start at 5 a m. During the night of the 15th, the main yard was carried away in the attack, thus rendering the square sails on the mast most perfectly useless for the remainder of the passage. Weather on the whole fine, with southerly weather. No NE trades. H T GRAHAM, Master.

Report of the Pacific Mail Co's Steamship City of San Francisco, 2000 15-100 tons, I. M. Lachlan commander.—Left San Francisco December 18th, at 1 o'clock p m with 42 cabin and 27 steerage passengers, 18 bags mail and 284 tons cargo. Experienced moderate weather till Wednesday, the 22d, when had strong head winds and hazy squalls, also cold (for us) weather; thermometer ranged from 60 to 64 F. Friday the 17th at noon passed a bark supposed to be the D C Murray. Arrived at Honolulu December 19th at 2.30 p m.

Report of the bark D C Murray, A Fuller, commander.—Left San Francisco Tuesday Nov 30th, at 11 a m in tow of Sol Thomas. First 3 days cut weather very unsettled with plenty rain and fresh winds from S with very S W sea. The next 3 days fine weather with light winds from N and working to the East. Next 7 days wind moderate between East and SE with fine weather and occasional light squalls, and then it hauled to SW, calm and baffling. Dec 17th we were passed for a whether, supposed to be the City of San Francisco bound the same way.

DIED.

TRUEMAN.—In Paris, France, at the Convent of the Sisters of Hope, November 5, of cancer in the stomach, Maria Teresa Thompson, of San Francisco and lately of Honolulu, aged 54 years.

At Makawao Maui, on the 17th of this month, the infant daughter of David and Emma Crowningburg, aged 1 year and 9 months.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.

☞ A mail will be despatched for San Francisco on Thursday, by the schooner Bonanza.

☞ Bark Jane A. Falkinburg had a short passage of twelve days to Astoria from this port.

THE LAST EVENING SALE.—Mr. Bartow will hold an evening sale of goods suitable for Christmas and New Year's presents, to-morrow evening.

☞ We are indebted to Captains Fuller and Shepherd for favors in the newsline; also to the purserS of the Mikado and City of San Francisco.

☞ Bark Tappareth sailed from Hong Kong November 8th, with cargo and passengers to Mr. Aswan of this city. She will be due here early in January.

☞ By notice in our advetising columns, it will be seen that the 21st Annual Meeting of the Sailors' Home Society will be held on Monday next, at 11 o'clock.

☞ Bark Mary Bell Roberts had a fine run over to San Francisco, arriving there after a passage of 15 days. She would leave again about Dec. 24, and be due here January 10.

☞ The new twenty cent coins are causing considerable comment in the American papers, and public opinion is generally against their circulation, on account of their being so nearly like the quarters.

MASONIC.—The regular monthly meeting of Le Progres de l'Oceanie, No 121, A. F. and A. M., will be held next Monday evening, when the officers elected for the ensuing year will be installed. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend.

CIRCUIT OF KAUAI.—The steamer Kilauea will leave this afternoon at 4 o'clock (not 5 as previously advertised) for the circuit of the Island of Kauai, and also touching at Niihau. This addition to her usual programme will be acceptable to those who wish to send to or visit Niihau.

THE BAND.—We are glad to learn that the band has received the new instruments, which will be used for the first time on Christmas. There are 30 pieces in all, but at present only 28 musicians. They will play at the Palace at 12½ P. M on Christmas and on Emma Square at 7½ P. M; and we predict a rare holiday treat for the public.

☞ Among the passengers by the City of San Francisco, en route to Australia, were His Ex. Sir George Bowen, Governor of Victoria, and Sir Julius Vogel, Treasurer of the New Zealand government. These gentlemen, during their short stay in the city received every attention due to their rank, and left quite pleased with all they saw and met.

MEA HOU.—The publisher of the native newspaper Kuokoa, has issued a really valuable picture representing the seven Kings of Hawaii, from Kamehameha I to Kalakaua. It is designed for a premium to be given to all those who pay the annual subscription in advance. The picture is one which every Hawaiian will prize.

A HAWAIIAN CONCERT, will be given on Thursday evening at 7:30 at Kaumakapili Church in aid of the funds of the society worshipping in it. The young people have been hard at work rehearsing, and judging from their success on former occasions, will furnish a musical treat for those who attend. Tickets can be had at the bookstores.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Mr. McInerny advertises a fine lot of holiday goods, among which we notice the handsomest reticules, ladies bags, and the neatest little trunks for dolls' use that ever were landed on this beach. Those wanting beautiful books for old or young, costly or cheap, will find them at Whitney's. Those in search of nick-nacks and toys will look in at Thrum's and at "No. 10."

☞ There will be an interesting ceremony on Christmas afternoon—the christening of the infant princess, daughter of the Hon. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cleghorn. The service will be at St. Andrews Church, at 1 o'clock, and the child will be named VICTORIA KAWEKIU KAIULANI LUNALILO. The last name is given at the request of the father of the late king. After the ceremony, there will be a private reception at the palace, in honor of the event.

☞ Messrs. Foster & Co's new schooner, building for Messrs. Campbell & Turton, was launched on Thursday morning last. She is as pretty a craft as has ever been seen in port, and no doubt will sail as well as she looks. She will be named the Nettie Merrill, and will be commanded by the Crane which has for so many years stalked the beach of Honolulu and Lahaina. She is expected to be ready to leave for Lahaina on Monday, January 3.

☞ The steamers Mikado and City of San Francisco are said to be racing on their trip from San Francisco to Sydney. This may be the reason why a bag of mail matter, passengers' baggage, &c., are missing. An Australian mail bag is reported to have been left here. The dates of newspapers missing are those of the latter part of November. Were these boats subsidised by us, we might have cause for complaint but as we are served gratuitously, we must "grin and bear it." We shall probably get the missing packages by a return steamer.

A ROGUE'S ESCAPE.—Some weeks ago we noted the flight of Paducken, or Aseguy, as he was better known. It now appears that he secreted himself on the bark Clara Bell, and when three days out, made his appearance under the name of John Johnson. Captain Shepherd says that had he known who he was, he would have brought him back and given him to the authorities. On the passage over, he borrowed some money from the steward of the bark, who had helped to get him off, and gave to the steward a forged draft, signed by H. Nolte, and drawn on the latter's agents, who however declined to pay it. He is now at large in San Francisco, and has written down that he intends to go into business in that place. He has played false with everyone whom he could induce to confide in him. The natives who became his bondsmen will suffer most, as they will forfeit $2,200 and expenses attached. The career of this noted blackleg ought to be a lesson to everyone.

A CASE OF GIN.—Sunday morning the 12th inst., a native man was found dead in his bed at Panoa valley, near Honolulu, a large pool of blood which he had vomited on the floor indicating that he had died from internal hemorrhage. This was accepted as the fact, from the known circumstances that he had been ailing for years and complained of a pain in the breast. After his burial it began to be reported among the natives that there had been a drunken spree on the premises where the deceased resided, and a row in which he had been ill-used. On Monday, Deputy Marshal Dayton, in his capacity of Coroner for this district, had the body exhumed and examined by Drs. R. McKibbin, jr. and F. B. Hutchinson, and a coroner's jury empanneled to enquire into the facts. The inquest lasted nearly two days, and resulted in a verdict to the effect that deceased came to his death from heart disease, accelerated by kicks and blows received by him in a drunken spree from one Charles Kanaan. There was a good deal of hard swearing by witnesses on the inquest, but the fact came out that a case of gin, purchased by a foreigner for Charles Kanaan for $12, was at the bottom of the mischief. The foreigner was on Wednesday fined $100 for furnishing the gin, and Charles Kanaan was charged with being the cause of the death of the man on whom the inquest was held.—P. C. A.

Late Foreign Items.

By the Steamers Mikado and City of San Francisco, we have San Francisco files to the 10th inst.

Several disasters of ocean steamers, both in the Pacific and Atlantic are chronicled, as also deaths of notable men.

Vice President Wilson died in the Capitol at Washington Nov. 23, and his funeral took place in the city on the 26.

Congress convened on the 6th of December, and organized by choosing Mr. Kerr of Indiana as speaker of the House of Representatives.

The President's Message was delivered in both houses on the 7th. It occupies four and a half columns space. It can be found in the San Francisco Weeklies of Dec. 9.

W. M. Tweed, the great political thief of New York City, escaped from jail on the 6th of Dec. and is supposed to have gone to South America.

Orders were received at the Brooklyn Navy Yard Dec. 9, to stop all enlistments for the Navy until further orders from Washington. It is believed that enough men are secured for the present exigency of the service. A gradual reduction in the department of the Navy Yard will take place.

A bill has been introduced into Congress granting to W. Cornell Jewett and associates, charter rights for a telegraph ocean cable communicating between the Pacific Coast of the United States and Asia. It grants to them all the rights, powers and previleges necessary to lay and use as well as operate an ocean cable on the Pacific Coast of the United States, from some port or ports in Asia, touching at selected ports on the Pacific Ocean. The associates of Mr. Jewett are not named in the bill.

European.

England has purchased 177,000 shares of the Suez Canal stock for £4,000,000—all that the Sultan of Egypt owned.

Germany.

New York, December 2d.—A Berlin telegram says an interview has taken place between Gortchakoff and Bismarck, which it is believed has resulted in a declaration by Bismarck of approbation of the purchase of the Suez Canal by Great Britain.

A special from Berlin says: It is considered probable in St. Petersburg that Russia will propose an International Conference on the Suez Canal, and if her demand is refused will claim freedom of action in the East.

France.

New York, December 7th.—A special from Paris says: The Bonapartists are plotting a coalition with members of the Republican party to effect the overthrow of the Government. On the question of Senatorial nominations in the Assembly, members of the Right and Left have agreed on the nominations of 44 Senators. Twenty-one Senators remain unchosen.

PARIS, December 9th—In the Assembly to-day the balloting began for the election of seventy-five Senators, who are to hold their office for life. The Due d'Audiffre Pasquier, President, and M. Martel, the first President, of the Assembly, were elected—no other candidates obtaining an absolute majority, which is necessary.

On the first ballot the Left developed a surprising amount of rating strength, their candidates receiving an average of 245 votes each, against 317, the average number thrown for those members of the Right, who were astonished at the result.

Spain.

LONDON, December 1st.—A special despatch from Madrid says the reply of Alphonso's Government to the Washington Cabinet note, goes to show that the Spanish nation is pledged to the work of the gradual emancipation of the slaves in Cuba; to a measure permitting a greater freedom of commerce with the Antilles; to guarranteeing to foreigners an immediate judicial hearing in cases where they are arrested and charged with violation of the Spanish Colonial laws; and to the complete measure of legal redress for the former, accomplished by Spain in moments of hastiness. The Madrid ministerial document, which is couched in a meek spirit, will reach Washington to-morrow. There is the greatest anxiety regarding the reception by the American Cabinet of Spain's last despatch.

MADRID, December 7th—Midnight.—The message of President Grant occasioned great excitement. A complete summary of the Cuban section was cabled to Senor Calientes, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and an informal meeting of the Ministry was held to-night. Its great verbosity startles Spanish statesmen. The day's delay in sending the message is regarded suspiciously, and the belligerency disclaimer will be variously discussed in to-morrow's newspapers. Duplicity will probably be charged, and the ultra organs intimate threats of the Carlists' recognition. The newspapers are issuing extras, and the streets are crowded. The excitement is equal to that shown over the Virginius affair.

LONDON, December 10th—6 A. M.—A Madrid despatch to the Standard says that Thursday morning's papers express the opinion that the portion of President Grant's Message relating to Cuba is no more alarming than his former remarks on the subject. The Conservatives thinks his language serious, but the general impression in political circles is that his Message is favorable. The Epoca thinks that intervention is not really intended, and believe Europe would not allow it.

Further reinforcements are preparing for Cuba.
