THE NEW NINE MILLION LOAN.
TREASURY DEPARTMENT, May 11, 1861.
Sealed proposals will be received at this Department until twelve o'clock noon of Tuesday, the 21st day of May, now ensuing, for the remainder of stock of the United States, to be issued under the act of Congress approved 8th February last, amounting to eight millions nine hundred and ninety-four thousand dollars. This stock will bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year, and will be reimbursable in twenty years from the first day of January last. The proposals must state the sum offered for each hundred dollars of stock, and must be for one or more thousands of dollars without fractions. One per cent of the amount offered must be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, or with an Assistant Treasurer at Boston, Philadelphia or New York, subject to the order of the Secretary of the Treasury, and the certificate showing such deposit must accompany the offer. The act reserves to the Secretary the right to decline bids not regarded as advantageous to the United States. The amounts payable under the accepted offers for this loan must be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States or an Assistant Treasurer at Boston, New York or Philadelphia, on or before the twenty-fifth day of May now current, but if any accepted bidder shall desire to deposit at any other point, his request will be considered. On the receipt here of the proper certificates showing such deposit, certificates of inscribed stock will be issued to the successful bidders, or their assignees, for the amounts to which they may be entitled, in sums of one thousand, five thousand and ten thousand dollars each, as may be required. Inscribed stock so issued will carry interest from the date of such deposit, and will be transferable on the books of the Treasury, agreeably to the regulations of the Department. Should any accepted bidder desire certificates of stock, with coupons of semi-annual interest attached thereto, they will be issued accordingly, in sums of one thousand dollars each, with coupons attached for interest from the first day of July next. Such coupon stock, instead of being transferable on the books of the Treasury, may be assigned and transferred by delivery. The interest on such coupon stock from the date of the deposit therefor to the first day of July next will be paid on that day to the accepted bidder, or his assignee or attorney, by the depository with whom the principal was deposited. The proposals under this notice should be endorsed on the envelopes "Proposals for Loan of 8th February, 1861," and addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury; or they may be put under cover to the Assistant Treasurer at New York, who will forward them to this Department. They should be sent in season to be opened and decided at the time above stated. The preliminary deposit of one per cent required from all bidders, will be included in the final deposit of successful bidders, and will be directed to be immediately returned to unsuccessful bidders.
S. P. CHASE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

NOTICE.
The time for receiving proposals under the foregoing advertisement is extended until Saturday, the 25th instant. Bidders may propose in the alternative for bonds of the description above set forth at any specified rate, or for an equal amount of Treasury notes, at any rate not below par. Such Treasury notes being receivable for public dues or convertible into twenty years six per cent bonds, or redeemable in two years at the option of the holder. If any bidder prefers to make a separate offer for bonds or Treasury notes it will be considered.
The offers regarded as most advantageous to the United States will be accepted. All amounts payable under accepted offers must be deposited with the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer on or before the first day of June next, or if preferred, one-third may be deposited on or before the first; one-third on or before the tenth, and the remaining third on or before the twentieth of June next.

NEW YORK, May 22, 1861.

COL. ALEX. MING'S REGIMENT,
"NEW YORK'S OWN."
Will be mustered and march to quarters immediately.
RECRUITS WANTED.
[Extract from the Sunday Mercury.]
Col. Alexander Ming is raising a regiment called the "New York's Own." He is an old and experienced officer, and is deserving the assistance of the State authorities and the Union Defence Committee. No parent can entrust their boys to better hands than the old Knickerbocker Colonel.
Col. Ming is one of the oldest and best known of our citizens. He has held offices under every national and city government since our "young remembrance," without solicitation or courting. His efforts to raise a new regiment, in defence of his country, we are sure, will receive the plaudits, not only of the city of New York, but of the Union.
Gen. Yates, Commissary General of this station, says to Gov. Morgan:—Col. Ming will be an energetic commandant, and will do well if organized. I will be gratified if he could find a place.
General William Hall to Governor Morgan:—I trust that Col. Ming will be crowded in, if possible. I have known him as an efficient officer for years.
General Sandford writes to Governor Morgan:—Col. Ming was an officer of the First Division, and held command of the Thirteenth regiment, and was considered an excellent officer.
From Mayor Wood to Governor Morgan:—Col.
