All the above mentioned articles must conform in every respect to the sealed standard patterns in this office, where they may be examined and additional information received concerning them.

The manufacturers' establishment or dealers' place of business must be distinctly stated in the proposal, together with the names, address and responsibility of two persons proposed as sureties. The articles will guarantee that a contract shall be entered into within ten days after the acceptance of said bid or proposal.

Proposals will be received for the whole or any part of each kind of the articles mentioned for.

The privilege is reserved by and for the United States of rejecting any proposals that may be deemed extravagant.

Deliveries to commence within twenty days after the acceptance of the proposals, and one-third of the quantity contracted for must be delivered within one month from said date of acceptance, and the remainder within two months of said date of acceptance, or sooner if practicable. Bidders will nevertheless state in their proposals the shortest possible time in which the articles bid for can be delivered by them.

All articles will be subject to inspection by sworn inspectors, appointed by authority of the United States.

Payment shall be made on each delivery, provided Congress shall have made an appropriation to meet it, or as soon thereafter as an appropriation shall be made for that purpose. Ten per cent of the amount of each delivery will be retained until the contract shall be completed, which will be forfeited to the United States in case of failure on the part of the contractor in fulfilling the contract.

Forms of proposals and guaranties will be furnished upon application to this office, and none will be considered that do not conform thereto.

Proposals will be endorsed "Proposals for furnishing army supplies." A. MONTGOMERY,
Major and Quartermaster, U. S. A.
