FIRST LIEUTENANCY WANTED—
By a thoroughly competent person, now at the seat of war in Virginia; who has been active service as a non-commissioned officer since May last; will furnish twenty recruits, or will pay from $75 to $100 for a position in some organized corps; best of reference will be given as to character and competency. Cavalry preferred. Address First Corporal, Company F, Twenty-third regiment New York Volunteers, Washington, D. C.

FOR SALE—A SMALL LOT OF REGULATION LINE Sword Blades, imported from Solingen, by WILLIAM E. FISCHER, 78 William street.

GENERAL BARRY'S ROCKET BATTALION,
Chief of Artillery, U. S. A.
The battalion will leave for the seat of war on the 30th day of November.
This battalion is organized at the request of the Commander-in-Chief, Major General McClellan, and Brigadier General Barry, Chief of Artillery, U. S. A., and accepted by the United States government.
Cavalry and artillery companies organizing, who are not sworn into the United States service, provided the recruits are suitable, will be immediately received and mustered into service; pay, clothing, fuel and rations provided from the day of enlistment.
To young men who have any military ambition this is a sure road to fame and distinction; for this terrible arm, the "war rocket," is the most destructive of all known weapons, either ancient or modern. Volunteers, to ensure acceptance, should apply immediately, as the orders for marching to the seat of war are imperative and cannot be delayed. For particulars apply at headquarters, 455 Broome street, New York city. T. W. LION, Commanding.

MILITARY INSTRUCTION IN CAVALRY AND INfantry may be had of an officer (a graduate), who has prepared over 200 field and company officers for the volunteer army. Apply between 5 and 6 P. M. at 33 West Twenty-second street.
