HUNT'S REMEDY.

THIS REMEDY WAS ORIGINALLY PREPARED by an eminent physician for a case of Dropsy in Mrs. Hunt's family. John Hunt, aged about 45, of a stout and plethoric habit, was seized with a sudden attack of genuine dropsy, which in a few days threatened his life. The usual remedies had all proved ineffectual, and none thought the patient would last fifteen days. The dropsy was external and expansive, the weight of an ounce-ball sent the water increased rapidly. He was entirely unable to move in bed, and was literally a prisoner to his bed-ridden state. In a desperate case, desperate remedies must be applied. The case of dropsy continued until by advice of the physician attended to, the present remedy was tried. In consequence of its peculiar nature it was necessary to prepare it with great care, and in order to insure this it was compounded in the family of Mr. Hunt to prepare and compound it.

The remedy was administered, and almost from the moment of its reception a decided improvement became apparent. The kidneys became active, the dropsical fluid commenced to decrease, comparatively of the legs rapidly subsided, the lungs were freed, and resumed their healthy and vigorous action; the flesh of limbs resumed its elasticity, instead of remaining, and he was rapidly convalescing, when unfortunately by an accidental improvidence he gave up the remedy for a short time.

It was unfortunate, for the curative process was arrested, the kidneys flagged in their action, again became torpid, the water increased with frightful rapidity and he was again found himself at a very alarming stage. The remedy was again had recourse to, and by its persevering use the disease was a second time subdued. But the malady appeared and severe case, and it took all the strength of the remedy combined with care and time, to eradicate the effects of the disease. But through a persevering use of it a permanent cure was effected, and he resumed his active out-of-door occupation within a short time, a well man.

This was the manner in which the Remedy was brought into notice, and since then, for a period of twenty five (25) years the medicine has been prepared after the same approved formula by Mrs. Hunt, and now is one that physicians in their private practice, for this and similar complaints.

It has been well and favorably known and extensively used about that time for all classes, both with and without the advice of physicians, and has been the means of saving from a premature grave and frightful disease, and untimely death, many of our most estimable and well-known citizens.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20.

The Democratic Platform.

Adopted by the Democratic Presidential Convention, at St. Louis, June 29, 1876.

We the delegates of the Democratic party of the United States, in National Convention assembled, do hereby declare the administration of the Federal Government to be in urgent need of immediate reform. We hereby enjoin upon the nominees of this Convention and of the Democratic party in each State a zealous effort and cooperation to this end, and do hereby appeal to our fellow citizens of every former political connection to undertake with us this first and most pressing patriotic duty. For the Democrats of the whole country we here reaffirm our faith in the permanence of the Federal Union, our devotion to the Constitution of the United States with its amendments universally accepted as a final settlement of the controversies that originated civil war, and do hereby record our sincere confidence in the perpetuity of republican self-government, in the absolute supremacy in the will of the majority the vital principle of republics, in the supremacy of the civil over the military authority, in the total separation of Church and State for the sake alike of civil and religious freedom, in the equality of all citizens before just laws of their own enactment, in the liberty of individual conduct unvexed by sumptuary laws, in the faithful education of the rising generation that they may preserve, enjoy and transmit these best conditions of home happiness, into the hope that we behold the noblest products of a hundred years of changeful history.

But while upholding the bond of our union and the great charter of those our rights, it behooves a free people to practice also that eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty. Reform is necessary to re-build and re-establish in the hearts of the whole people of the Union, which eleven years has happily rescued from the danger of a corrupt centralism, which after levying upon ten States the rapacity of carpet-bag tyranny has honey-combed the offices of the Federal Government with incapacity worse than fraud, inflicted the States and municipalities with the contagion of misrule, and tasked the prosperity of an industrious people with the paralysis of hard times. Reform is necessary to establish a sound currency, restore the public credit and maintain the national honor.

We denounce the failure for all these eleven years to make good the promise of the legal tender notes which exchanging the standard of value in the hands of the people and the payment of which is a disregard of the plighted faith of the nation.

We denounce the improvidence which in eleven years of peace has taken from the people in federal taxes thirteen times the whole amount of the legal tender notes, and squandered four times this sum in useless expenses without accumulating any thereby for their recuperation.

We denounce the financial imbecility and immorality of that party which during eleven years of peace has made no advance towards resumption, no preparation for resumption, but instead has obstructed resumption by wasting our resources and exhausting all our surplus income, and while annually promising to inaugurate a speedy return to specie payment has annually enacted from disappointment therefor.

As such a misdrawer we denounce the resumption clause of the Act of 1875, and we here demand its repeal.

We demand a judicious system of preparation by public economies, by official retrenchments and by wise finance, which shall provide the means with which to resume the whole world of its perfect credit and the perfect resources to meet any of its promises at the call of the creditor entitled to payment. We believe that such a system was devised, and shortly all, we trusted, to implement hastily for execution, creating at no time an artificial scarcity of currency, and at no time altering the public mind upon the withdrawal of that machinery of credit by which 95 per cent. of all business transactions is performed: a system open to the public and inspiring general confidence, would, from the day of its inception, bring healing on its wings to all enfeebled industries, set in motion the wheels of commerce manufactures and the mechanical arts, restore employment to labor and prosperity to the people.

Reform is necessary in the mode of Federal taxation, to the end that capital may be set free from contract and labor lightly burdened.

We denounce the present tariff levied upon nearly 4000 articles as a masterpiece of injustice and inequality, and a false pretense. It has impoverished many industries to subsidize a few. It produces surplus that might purchase the products of American commerce from the first to an interior rank upon the high seas. It has cut down the sale of American manufactures at home and abroad, and depleted the returns of American agricultural industry followed by half of our people. It costs the people five times as much as it produces to the Treasury; obstructs the process of production and wastes the fruits of labor. It promotes fraud, fosters smuggling, enriches dishonest officials and bankrupts honest merchants.

We demand that Custom-house taxation shall be only for revenue. Reform is necessary in the scale of public expense, federal, State and municipal. Our federal taxation has swollen from $50 000 000 in 1860 to $400 000 000 in 1870; our aggregate taxation from $104 000 000 gold in 1860 to $730 000 000 currency; or in one decade from less than $3 per head to more than $18 per head. Since the peace the people have paid to their tax gatherers more than thrice the sum of the national debt, and more than twice that sum for federal revenue.

We demand a rigorous frugality in every department and from every officer of the Government. Reform is necessary to put a stop to the profligate waste of public lands and their depletion from actual settlers by the party which has squandered 200 000 000 of acres upon railroads alone, and out of more than thrice that aggregate has disposed of less than one-sixth directly to tillers of the soil.

Reform is necessary to correct the omissions of a Republican Congress, and the errors of our treaties and our diplomacy which have stripped our fellow citizens of foreign birth from receiving the Atlantic shield of American citizenship, and have exposed our brethren of the Pacific Coast to the immigration of a race not springing from the same great parent stalk, and, in fact, by law denied citizenship through naturalization.

We denounce the policy which discards the liberty-loving German and tolerates the revival of the coolie trade in Mongolian women, imported for immoral purposes, and Mongolians held to perform servile labor contracts, and demand such modification of the treaty with the Chinese Empire, or such legislation by Congress within constitutional limitation, as shall prevent further importation or immigration of the Mongolian race.

Reform is necessary and can never be effected but by making it the controlling issue of the elections, and lifting it above the two false issues with which the office-holding class and the party in power seek to smother it, to wit: First—The false issue with which they would enkindle sectarian strife in respect to the public schools, of which the establishment and support belong exclusively to the States, and which the Democratic party has cherished from their foundation, and is resolved to maintain without partiality or preference for any class, sect or creed. Second—The false issue by which they seek to light anew the dying embers of sectional hate between kindred people, once unnaturally estranged but now united in one indivisible Republic and common destiny.

Reform is necessary and civil experience proves that efficient commercial conduct of the Government business is not possible if its civil service is subject to changes at every election, and be a prize fought for at the ballot-box as a brief reward of party zeal instead of pots of honor assigned for proved competency and held for fidelity to the public employ; that the dispensing of patronage should neither be a tax on the time of all our public men, nor the instrument of their ambition. In this the professions of the Republican party are belied in the performance, as history attests that the party now in power can work out no practical or satisfactory reform.

Reform is necessary, even more in the higher grades of public service. The President, Vice-President, Judges of the Supreme Court, Senators and Representatives and Cabinet officers, these and all others in authority, are the people's servants. These offices are not a private perquisite. They are a public trust. When the annals of this Republic show the disgrace and censure of a late Vice-President, a late Speaker of the House of Representatives, making his ruling as a presiding officer contribute to his private gain, while the Senators are profiting secretly by their votes as law-makers; five Chairmen of the leading committees in the late House of Representatives exposed in robbery; a late Secretary of the Treasury forcing balances to the public accounts; a late Attorney General misappropriating public funds; a Secretary of the Navy enriching near-kin or enriching friends by presents levied off the profits of contractors connected with his department; an Embassador to England censured in a dishonorable speculation; the President's Private Secretary barely escaping conviction upon trial for his guilty complicity in frauds upon the revenue; a Secretary of War impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors—the demoralization is complete that the first step in reform must be a change in the administration of the Government and the selection of honest men from another party lest the disease of one political party organization affect the body politic and lest by making no change of men or party we get no change of measures and no reform. All these abuses, wrongs and crimes, the productions of sixteen years' ascendency of the Republican party, create a necessity for reform confessed by Republicans themselves, but their reformers are voted down in conventions and dislodged from the Cabinet. The party's mass of honest voters is powerless to resist the 85 000 office-holders, its leaders and guides. Reform can only be had by a peaceful civic revolution. We demand a change of parties that we may have a change of measures and of men.
