VOL. XII.---No. 49. HONOLULU, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1876. WHOLE No. 621.

WHO'S PRESIDENT?

THE RESULT STILL IN DOUBT

THE DOUBTFUL STATES CLAIMED BY BOTH PARTIES.

By the arrival of the American schooner W. H. Meyer on Friday, the 24th Nov., fourteen days from San Francisco, we have dates to the 10th ult. We present a summary of the news regarding the election, which is the one engrossing topic. The excitement everywhere is said to be intense.

NEW YORK, November 8th.—The Graphic says the result must be depend on one or two Southern States in which both parties are sure to claim that illegal influences have been at work to cheat the people of their honest choice. In this event, the American people will be called upon to exercise patience, moderation and wisdom. The nation will demand that politics be done, no matter who is helped or hurt. A popular execration would be infinitely more perilous than the defeat of any man or any party.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8th.—The Tribune's New Orleans special, dated 10:20 p. m., says: A prominent planter of Concordia Parish gives information that twenty-four negroes were killed at Fayette, near Natchez, Mississippi, on election night. He states that the penalty was consummated utterly without provocation. The Jackson Clarion recently advised that "the enthusiasm of the young men must not be restrained." The telegraph wires were cut previous to the massacre.

A gentleman just from St. Martinsville, La., says that a leading colored man was murdered last Sunday evening at Francis Bridge, for expressing Republican sentiments.

NEW YORK, November 8th.—The following has been received from the National Headquarters of the Fifth Avenue Hotel: Governor Stearns, of Florida, telegraphs to-day from Tallahassee as follows: There is no doubt of our majority in this State, if we can secure an honest canvass. The indications are that evidence is to be freely resorted to, so as to prevent any returns from remote points in the interior. One special train from Tallahassee last night for the Chief-Justice, to collect the returns from western counties, was Ku-Klux'd a few miles south of the town and the train was thrown from the track, which was torn up and blockaded in several places.

NEW YORK, November 8th.—The Tribune's special from Washington says: The only place in town to-night where there has been enthusiasm is about the Headquarters of the Republican Congressional Committee. Throughout the evening news of the most encouraging character has been received from Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida. The large crowd present was kept in excellent spirits. At the Democratic rallying place there has been increasing despondency. No reassuring despatches reached them, at 10 o'clock the crowd was very small and quiet. The most depressing news for them was the various despatches which Republicans received, claiming North Carolina. Republicans here who are fully acquainted with the various counties of that State, say the figures printed this morning have an exceedingly favorable aspect for the Republicans. The night-clerks were lost a night did, except that the Republicans are claiming 185 votes for Hayes with more confidence, and the Democrats have received nothing which enables them to dispute it.

WASHINGTON, November 8th.—A well-known Democratic telegraph from New Orleans here to-night that there is a fine chance for a row there, as the Republicans claim the State and say they mean to keep it.

NEW YORK, November 19th.—The Times says: Though the official returns which would place the matter beyond controversy have not yet been received there is no doubt that Hayes has been elected President. At our special reports received during the past twenty-four hours from the disputed States in the South render it certain that they have gone Republican. When the official count is completed, it will be seen exactly how large the majorities are, but at present they can only be estimated. Our latest despatches give a Republican majority of 2000 in Florida, a Republican majority of 5000 in Louisiana, at least, and a Republican majority of 6000 for Hayes in South Carolina. Wisconsin had been persistently claimed by the Democrats, but they have conceded the State now, and it stands unchallenged in the Republican column. Despatches from Oregon and Nevada also confirm previous reports of 1000 to 1500 Republican majority in Oregon and 1061 Republican majority in Nevada. The 21 States which the Times has steadily held to as being the correct presentation of Governor Hayes' vote in the Electoral College are again present. Our later despatches make some change in our record of membership of the next Congress. The Fourth District in Alabama has elected a Democrat. The Ninth District of Illinois has chosen a Republican, and the Tenth a Democrat. The Second and Fourth Louisiana Districts have chosen Republicans, as if the Thirty-second New York a Democrat. Judge Spaulding has been defeated by a small majority. In the Nineteenth Illinois District, William R. Anderson, Independent Democrat, is defeated by the regular Democratic candidate. In the Eighteenth District of Pennsylvania, the re-election of Stinger, Democrat, is claimed by the Democrats and in the Tenth District of Virginia, the Democrats claim the election of their candidate. Conceding this, the figures stand: Republicans, 161; Democrats, 167; to be elected, 3.

CHICAGO, November 10th.—The Inter-Ocean says: There seems no room for further doubt that R. B. Hayes is President-elect of the United States. The election has been so close as to make the result one of unparalleled uncertainty, but gradually the clouds have lifted, and the Union army has been found in possession of the field. We are exceedingly glad this morning to place the figures before our readers, which tell them that their efforts have not been in vain, and that for four years more the country will be in the hands of those who have done so much to preserve and strengthen it, and make it respected among the nations of the earth.

The Tribune's editorial does not present any new feature. It believes (before) Hayes, 185 Electoral votes, Tilden, 174.

NEW ORLEANS, November 8th.—An official despatch to U. S. Marshal Pinson from Madison parish, one of the Republican strongholds, accessible by telegraph, states the vote has been counted and a Republican majority of 2136 was obtained, states that since the count the Democrats have seized several of the ballot-boxes, which, with their contents, have been destroyed. This plan will probably be followed in Republican strongholds all over the State as soon as Nicholls' advice is known.

NEW YORK, November 10th.—The Tribune regards the situation as unchanged, and still considers Hayes elected by vote.

NEW YORK, November 9th.—The Democratic Manhattan Club posts a bulletin conceding 1500 Republican majority in Florida.

Official advices are received that the Democrats are Ku-Klux-ing counties in Florida, to destroy returns from remote Districts. It is feared that serious fighting has already begun.

NEW YORK, November 9th.—The bark Norma arrived to-day, and reports that November 4th, in latitude 22:21 north, and longitude 27:2 west, she passed a large man-of-war heading west, apparently in distress, supposed to be the Franklin.

WASHINGTON, November 9th.—The excitement here is unprecedented and intense, and large crowds are at the newspaper and telegraph offices. In the Executive Departments no business is doing. Every one is awaiting definite returns from any one of the States regarded as doubtful.

NEW YORK, November 10th.—The World says: For all honest Republicans, the present situation in Louisiana is as full of responsibility as ever rested upon self-governing men. We call upon such men to confront it calmly and measure it deliberately with us to-day, in the light of words deliberately uttered by an acknowledged leader of the respectable Republican opinion in this great City of New York less two years ago [Alluding to Evarts.] There the American people are brought face to face with the portentious peril of which Evarts less than two years ago showed us so clearly the dark outlines, looming up then in the future. If the people of Louisiana have elected Tilden Electors, and the Governor of Louisiana, of whose character no honest man in the Union entertains any doubt, with the Attorney General and a Returning Board of that State dishonestly appoints Hayes' Electors in the face of these palpable facts, and Hayes, by the votes of these Electors so appointed is made President, there is no remedy in law, and no way left open to maintain the truth and but institutions, as Evarts sternly said in January, 1875, but civil war, engaging passions and a vast multitude of men. Surely there can be no need of word from us in the way of developing the magnitude of this peril. It lays every honest Republican citizen in this country under instant obligation to bring the direction of moral pressure to bear upon the Executive of the State of Louisiana, to constrain him into the paths of truth and justice. Upon the Republican leaders in Washington and elsewhere this obligation weighs today with special force. Upon Hayes, in particular, it presses with all the weight of history and the hopes of the Union. Assuredly, he cannot wish to be what Senator Maroon calls a usurper.

LONDON, October 9.—A dispatch from Vienna says: It is stated in diplomatic circles that the European conference may be considered as abandoned. It is true Russia had officially accepted the English proposals of conference, but she did not expect success therefrom, as it would have been incumbent upon her to advocate conference proposals perhaps even more extensive than those which she has already made, and which have been rejected by Europe. The latest idea is, that the Ambassadors shall draw up and experiment the execution of a programme of reforms on the basis of the Berlin memorandum.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9th.—The Inter-Oceans' Washington special describes a scene of the most wonderful excitement. Forty-eight hours no business has been done, but shouts have filled the air, and the police have with difficulty prevented riots. The Democrats are greatly exasperated and discouraged at favorable news for Hayes comes in. They are beginning to cry "fraud" and accuse the Federal officials of Louisiana of suppressing returns.
