THE REBELLION.

PROPOSALS FOR OATS AND HAY.

DEPOT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
CORNER OF EIGHTEENTH AND G STREETS,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31, 1863.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office, until Monday, February 9, 1863, at twelve o'clock M., for furnishing the government with (200,000) two hundred thousand bushels of Oats and (5,000) five thousand tons of hay.
Hay to be good merchantable timothy, put up in bales, and delivered at (2,000) two thousand pounds to the ton.
The oats to be of a good merchantable quality, put up in bags of about two bushels each.
Oats will be received by weight, at (32) thirty-two pounds to the bushel.
Sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the government.
Delivery to be made in the city of Washington, within (30) thirty days from the date of the contract.
PROPOSALS.
Proposals will be received for (500) five hundred tons of hay and upwards, and for (50,000) fifty thousand bushels of oats and upwards.
The propositions for the hay and oats may be upon the same paper, but must be made entirely distinct from and without reference to each other.
The full name and post office address of the bidder must appear in the proposal.
If a bid is made in the name of a firm, the names of all the parties must appear, or the bid will be considered as the individual proposal of the party signing it.
Proposals from disloyal parties will not be considered, and an oath of allegiance must accompany each proposition.
Proposals must be addressed to Colonel D. H. Rucker, Quartermaster, United States Army, Washington, D. C., and endorsed "Proposals for Oats and Hay."
GUARANTEE.
The ability of the bidder to fill the contract, should it be awarded to him, must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, whose signatures must be appended to the guarantee.
The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of the Clerk of the nearest District Court or of the United States District Attorney.
Bidders must be present in person when the bids are opened or the proposals will not be considered.
Bonds equal to amount to half the sum to be received, on the contract, signed by the contractor and both of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder upon signing the contract.
As the bond must accompany the contract it will be necessary for bidders to have their bondsmen with them, or to have bonds signed in anticipation and ready to be produced when the contract is signed. Blanks for bonds can be procured upon application being made at this office, either personally, by letter or by telegraph.
FORM OF GUARANTEE.
We, ——, of the county of —— and State of ——, and ——, of the county of ——, and State of ——, do hereby guarantee that —— —— is able to fulfil the contract, in accordance with the terms of his proposition, and that should his proposition be accepted, he will at once enter into a contract in accordance therewith.
Should the contract be awarded him we are prepared to become his securities.
(To this guarantee must be appended the official certificate above mentioned.)
INSPECTION, DELIVERY, &C.
All Oats and Hay contracted for under this advertisement will be rigidly inspected, and each sack not prove of a good, sound merchantable quality will be rejected.
Payment to be made upon the completion of the contract, or so soon thereafter as the Depot Quartermaster shall be in funds.
Any informality in the bid, or non-conformance with the terms of this advertisement, will insure the rejection of the proposal.
Delivery to be made at the railroad depot, or at one of the government wharves, in the city of Washington.
The Depot Quartermaster reserves to himself the right to reject any or all bids that he may deem too high.
D. H. RUCKER,
Colonel and Depot Quartermaster.

PROPOSALS FOR 20,000 BARRELS OF FLOUR.
Sealed proposals are invited till the 10th day of February, 1863, at 12 o'clock M., for furnishing the Subsistence Department with 20,000 barrels of Flour.
Bids will be received for what is known as No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3, and for any portion less than the 20,000 barrels. Bids for different grades should be upon separate sheets of paper.
The quantity of flour required will be about 500 barrels daily, delivered either at the government warehouse in Georgetown, at the wharves or at the railroad depot, Washington, D. C.
Payment will be made in certificates of indebtedness or such other funds the government may have for distribution.
The usual government inspection will be made just before the flour is received.
No bid will be entertained from parties who have previously failed to comply with their bids, or from bidders not present to respond.
The barrels to be new and head lined.
Bids will be accompanied with an oath of allegiance, and directed to Col. A. BECKWITH, A. D. C. & C. S. U. S. A., Washington, D. C., and endorsed "Proposals for Flour."
