Great sale of pictures, "International Art Institution," comprising works of the highest order of art, of the Dusseldorf, Munich, Dresden and other schools, consigned to William Aufermann, Esq., director, and for the past three years on exhibition at the corner of Broadway and Fourth street. This collection, now presented to the public, is one of the rarest and most valuable ever exhibited in this country. Among these great works are specimens by Lancelevr, Carl Hubner, Jacobs, Grun, Schrader, Eschke, Achenbach, Steinbruck, Schlesinger, Grun, Martini, Lichtenberger, Lachenwitz, Pullen Sonderland, Scheuren, Hunzinger, Hillmacher. Also, fine examples by the French school by Monvoisin, Juliette Bonheur, De Sonhie, De Dreux, Tanneur, Lanfant de Metz, Pecrus, Couturier, Dupre, Jules Caron, Breton, Rosier and others. Also of the schools of Holland and Belgium, by Kock Kock, E. Verbockhoven, Robbe, Ten Kate, De Vrder, Dillicos, Ruyter, De Byland, Madame Renner, Carolus, Plumot, Woutermartens, Quineaux, Verwee, &c., together with some fine examples of the English schools by Shayer, Pyne, Hill, Williams, Beattie, Adams, Barland and others of equal celebrity. Included in this collection is the last portrait of Baron Alexander von Humboldt, taken from life by Professor Schrader, which so pleased the great savan that he addressed to Mr. Aufermann the following letter, the original of which may be seen at the gallery:—
SIR—How should I not be moved, my dear Mr. Aufermann, by all the kindness and honor shown to me in the United States of America. My portrait, by our great historical painter, Professor Schrader, combines in the happiest manner great physiognomical truth with depth of feeling and the most laborious technicality.
Considering the increasing good will bestowed upon me in your country, I hope that the work of a dear friend will find favor in your exhibition.
Please excuse, because of my patriarchal age (durch mein Uralter), the illegibility of these lines.
I remain, dear sir,
Yours, faithfully,
ALEX. VON HUMBOLDT.
