THE HAWAIIAN GAZETTE.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO HAWAIIAN PROGRESS.

VOL. XIII.—No. 43. HONOLULU, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1877. WHOLE No. 667.

To an Absent Wife.

BY A. S. PAPONTIE.

The moth—the sun breeze seems to bring
Joy, health, and freshness on its wing—
Bright flowers, by one all strange and new,
Are gleaming in the early dew—
And perfumes rise from every grove,
As incense to the clouds that move
Like spirits o'er you sapphire clime—
But I am sad—they art not here.

The moon—a calm, unbroken sleep
Is on the blue waves of the deep,
A soft beam, like a fairy dream
Is floating over hill and stream,
And every a broad magnolia flower
Within its shadowy woodland bower
Is gleaming like a lovely star—
But I am sad—thou art afar.

The sun—on earth the sunset skies
Are painting their own Eden dyes—
The stars come down, and trembling glow
Like diamonds in the waves below;
And the same unseen spirits, the breezes
Seem whispering bid the groupy trees,
Breathing in music round the spot—
But I am sad—I see them not.

The midnight—with a soothing spell
The far tones of the ocean swell
Kill as a mother's cadence mild,
Low bending of her sleeping child,
And in each wandering breeze are heard
The rich notes of the mocking bird.
In every a wild and wondrous lay—
But I am sad—thou art away.

I wait in dreams—low, sweet and clear,
Thy own dear voice is in my ear,
Around my cheek thy tresses twine,
Thy own loved hand is clasped in mine,
Thy cheek is pressed on my breast—
I have all my heart holds dear—
And I am happy—thou art here.

Softly Falls the Rain.

Softly, softly falls the rain,
Thirsty streams up their sense of green;
The very grass is upward springing;
The little birds in concert singing,
A welcome to the well ring shower—
Rejoicing in notes of joy again,
A blessing on the summer rain.

The hot, dry earth, all silent lies,
And yearn while her russet vest,
The parched draught to replace drinking,
As drop by drop the shower is sinking,
Like jewels in her wearily breast—
And soon her blessing to the skies,
Like faith in holy ecstacies.

Each little flower lifts up its head,
As star amid the spangled grass,
To more breath the hot wind fainting,
But soon again from Nature's painting,
To mingle the showers that lightly pass—
Breathing from people scared and dead,
Incense by love and beauty fed.

The wearied winds are laid to sleep,
The shallow brook no longer grieves,
But pauses in its downward flowing,
To sing beneath you trees, are going,
A lilting strain to dewy leaves—
And nature in that hush so deep,
Smiles while the skies above her weep.

VARIETY.

At Dunsinane.—By a Western Poet.

The engine groaned,
The wheels did creak,
The steam did whistle,
And the boiler did leak.
The boiler was examined,
They found it was rusted—
When all on a sudden
The old thing busted.

At what time of day was Adam created?—A little before Eve.

A man born to command isn't much different from one made to order.

The Sandwich Isles have no standing army. It don't stand worth a cent.

The question of the hour—Who shall marry Brigham Young's widow?

The man who said he was "out on a lark" was easily out on a swallow.

Gail Hamilton is thirty-nine, and calculates to remain so about five years.

A lonely Kentuck bachelor wants to adopt a girl baby, not less than eighteen years old.

A dog ran down the street yesterday celebrating a tin wedding on his tail.

Dean Swift said, with much truth, "It is useless for us to attempt to reason a man out of a thing he has never been reasoned into."

Whatever else may be said against the Chinese, no one can truthfully say that he ever saw one who parted his hair in the middle.

"I never felt so frightened in my life," she said to her love. "I turned as white as your shirt front—the—the impending—"very much whiter."

A boarding house keeper advertises to furnish "gentlemen with pleasant and comfortable rooms; also, one or two gentlemen with wives!"

Policeman. "Now, then, move on! there's nothing the matter." Boy in crowd: "Yer needn't tell us that; you wouldn't be here if there was."

"Talk about Mr. Rice's coming to Boston with his poor clothes when a boy," says Jack Adams, "why, when I came to Boston I hadn't a rag of anything on."

"Madam," said an impertinent boarder to his landlady, "your butter is too aristocratic for my democratic taste. It is one of the cases in which oleomargarine is preferable to rank."

A husband recently cured his wife of divers ills by kicking the servant girl, and allowing his wife to wait him of it. He says she was up in an instant, forgetting all her complaints, while he has never had to pay a cent for "help" since.

Two squaws in Tacoma gave a boy a dollar to get them a bottle of whisky one day this week, and the boy forgot what he went for. The squaws did not get the whisky or see the boy again. Good little boy. He will grow up to be an Indian agent.

For genuine enthusiastic economy, commend us to the Salt farmer, who killed owls without wasting ammunition. When he saw one sitting on the ground, he walks around it two or three times, and the owl went to head off trying to follow his motions. Fact!

An old lady who was about to breathe her last received a call from an acquaintance ignorant of the mortal illness. The answer sent down from the chamber of the departing sufferer was memorably unique. "Madame—sends her compliments to Madame—, but begs to be excused, as she is engaged in dying!"

The following "Greed to Lake Ontary" is considered to be worth wide dissemination:

"Green an' thy waters, green as bottle glass
Behold them stretch thar
Fine mountaings and Gewago hass
Is off yaleed thar!
Thar the red Injin once took his delights
Fisht, fit and bled;
Now most of the inhabitants is white
And vary red."

Old Girard is reported to have had a dispute with one of the rich men of the Penn city.

"I can buy you and sell you again, Girard," said the angry merchant.

"And I can buy you and keep you," was Girard's rejoinder.

Deposits from any portion of the United States, Europe or the Hawaiian Islands, may be sent by mail or express, in coin or currency, or by draft on any business or banking house. A pass book with proper entries will be immediately returned for the same. Remittances in currency will be credited in gold at current rates. The signature of the depositor should accompany the first deposit. Deposits can be made by any one, but can only be withdrawn by the signature of the Party in whose name the account is opened. Married women and minors can make deposits in their own names, and may withdraw the same, upon their own receipts, upon the same conditions as other depositors. No entrance fee or charge for bank books.
The securities for all loans made by this bank, are scrutinized with great care by the Board of Directors, and consist almost exclusively of first class Real Estate with large margins; United States, State, County and City Bonds, &c. All stocks or other securities of doubtfully fluctuating values are carefully excluded. The policy of the Bank, being to obtain first, absolute security for return of the principal, thereafter a rate of interest consistent therewith. Our unusually large and increasing Capital and reserve Fund, no portion of which can be withdrawn by stockholders until all demands of depositors have been paid in full, taken in connection with a careful and conservative management, facilities to depositors a guarantee of safety as well as remunerative dividends.
Deposits can under ordinary circumstances be withdrawn, as a whole or in part, without notice (instead of six months' notice being required as formerly) as specified in articles 3d and 4th printed conditions of agreement with depositors. Non resident depositors who wish to withdraw their deposits, or a portion thereof, and desire to have the same sent to them by the Bank, may do so subject to the By-Laws, by sending a proper order accompanied by the pass book, with instructions as to the manner in which they desire the money to be remitted. Said remittance however will be at the expense and risk of the depositor. Blank orders for this purpose will be furnished by the Cashier.
Term deposits remaining three full calendar months, will be entitled to dividends of interest. Said dividends are declared, and payable in January and July of each year, and if not called for in one month, will be credited to the account and bear interest as a deposit from date on which they were declared. No dividend computed on fractions of dollars or for fractions of months. Dividends declared by this Bank for the past and previous terms, have been at the rate of 6½ per cent per annum; for the present term and hereafter will probably not exceed 6 per cent.
For further particulars see printed conditions of agreement with depositors which will be afforwarded to any address upon request, a copy of which is also appended to each pass book.
