MEDICAL.

A CAUTION TO LADIES—MADAME RESTELL, FEmale Physician, 162 Chambers street, deems it her duty to caution ladies against impostors who appropriate her advertisements, word for word, merely substituting some ignorant and wholly irresponsible person as "Madame" or Doctor. These persons have spurious medicines and other pernicious compounds to palm off on the unwary or easily duped as well of their means as of their health. That ladies may avoid these impositions Madame Restell feels called upon to give this caution.

A CELEBRATED PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL PROfessor can be consulted personally or by letter on all diseases and conditions peculiar to females. Ladies from a distance furnished with nice rooms and board. Communications sacredly confidential. Address box 1,829 Post office, Philadelphia, Pa.

DR. HUNTER'S WONDERFUL MEDICAL DISCOVEry cures diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and nauseating effects of all other remedies; cures in half the time than other six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb, unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known that medical men in every department of medical knowledge begin to appreciate it, for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient, who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. It is one dollar a vial, and cannot be had of any other party than the Doctors old office, No. 3 Dominick street, New York city, since 1854. Eight rooms and a private entrance.

DR. WATSON, HAVING HAD AN EXPERIENCE OF more than thirty years, is enabled to guarantee a cure in all cases, without change of diet, or restriction from business.
