OFFICE OF THE McGREGOR WESTERN RAILWAY Company, No. 8 Wall street, New York, April 4, 1864. Subscriptions will be received at this office on Wednesday, the 6th instant, for $1,000,000 of the capital stock of the company for the purpose of extending the road on a main the point of junction with the Minnesota, Fairbault and Cedar Valley Railroad. The company have forty miles of road nearly complete and means in hand to construct and equip twenty miles more, making sixty in all, and leave the same entirely free from a floating debt. It is proposed by the present sale of stock to provide means for completing and equipping the remaining sixty miles, and to have the whole ready for business early in the spring of 1865. The road traverses the most populous and fertile portion of the State of Iowa, and has no competition for fifty miles on either side. In the judgment of the managers it is destined to pay large dividends to its stockholders from the moment of completion. It is believed that so favorable an opportunity to invest in a most promising railway security is rarely presented to the attention of capitalists. Pamphlets giving further information may be obtained at the office of the company, No. 8 Wall street.
