By Authority.

PROCLAMATION.

KALAKAUA, by the Grace of God of the Hawaiian Islands King:

Whereas, by Section 322 of the Civil Code, an ad valorem duty of ten per cent. may be levied upon all Gold and Silver Coins imported into Our Kingdom, And whereas, by Section 7 of an Act approved on the eleventh day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-six, entitled "An Act to Regulate the Currency," it is enacted, "That there shall be levied, collected and paid upon all silver coins imported into this Kingdom from any country with which we have not any treaty to the contrary, a duty of ten per cent. ad valorem. Provided, that the said Section shall not come into operation until a Proclamation to that effect has been issued by Us, by and with the advice and consent of a majority of Our Privy Council, at a duly convened meeting thereof." Now, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, and by virtue of the power and authority thereby given to and vested in Us, and in exercise and execution thereof, and of every other power and authority in anywise enabling Us in this behalf, and by and with the advice and consent of a majority of Our Privy Council, given at a duly convened meeting thereof, held on the twenty-sixth day of May instant, Proclaim that immediately on the publication of this Our Proclamation the said Section of the said Act shall come into effect and operation, and that thereupon the duty of ten per cent. ad valorem imposed by the said Act and by Sub-Section 6 of Section 322 of the Civil Code, shall be levied, collected and paid upon all Silver Coins imported into this Kingdom from any country with which We have not any Treaty to the contrary.

Given at Honolulu, this twenty-eighth day of May, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

By the King: KALAKAUA R.

EDWARD PREMOR, Attorney General. 801
