PENNSYLVANIA STATE LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF $23,000,000.

An act to create a loan for the redemption of the over due bonds of the Commonwealth.
Whereas the bonds of the Commonwealth and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to $23,000,000, have been over due and unpaid for some time past;
And whereas it is desirable that the same should be paid and withdrawn from the market; therefore,
Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice (not less than forty days) as they may deem most expedient for the interest of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the 1st of February and the 1st of August, in the city of Philadelphia; which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever for State, municipal or local purpose, and shall be payable as follows, namely:—Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years; eight millions of dollars payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-five years, and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer and countersigned by the Auditor General, and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, &c., received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.
Sec. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder: Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued shall be negotiated for less than its par value.
Sec. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now over due, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the loan now authorized to be issued, shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.
Sec. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees or other persons holding in a fiduciary capacity bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State, or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued for this act.
Sec. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust may, without an order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.
Sec. 6. That from and after the passage of this act all
