M. J. ROSE
—IS—
AGAIN ON HAND!
And better able than ever to turn out first-class Carriage Work of all descriptions.
HAVING JUST TAKEN IN HIS Majesty's State Carriage to varnish and polish up to be in readiness on his return trip from around the Globe, my artist—Mr. Cameron—the carriage painter, late of Philadelphia, feels confident that he can put on a finish to have never been seen in Honolulu and Sandwich Isles. I wish it distinctly understood that I will not be responsible for any accident that might happen on that occasion; in fact all my carriages that are painted by Mr. Cameron are to be finished in the highest honors in the colors I should advise all parties seeing Rose's make of Carriages coming in on a light grade on the sidewalk, and thereby avoid an accident. I also wish to state that the
GLOSS AND FINISH
—IS DURABLE.—
And will last for years if the job is properly cared for, as I use only the very BEST OF VALENTINE' and Hayden & Sons' BEST ENGLISH VARNISHES.
Also, please bear in mind that I am thoroughly at home of the Best Harness
That can ever be made in this Kingdom. As a fine harness maker said:
"I employ no prison labor."
And I say I employ none but the VERY BEST that can be had in the Kingdom. I wish to call your attention to two sets just turned out by A. Wilder, Esq., American Consul here. Any one wishing to see this production, by leaving an order, can see the Finest set the first afternoon after 4 o'clock, and at a distance of more than half a mile, can see the splendid pair of crowns—the finest of the varnish, the arabesques of the silk gold plate, and the shining of the mounting of the detailing eyes of the sun.—In fact, it would confound one. If we had lived some thousands of years ago when there was a great man translated to be alive in a golden chariot, in fact, the whole long series as though it had been produced by the magic powers of Aladdin's Lamp. It is too handsome to be sold—by mortal man. I am also building some very fine
Expresses and Familyl Carriages
I also wish to call your attention to the fine stock of
