SALEM H. WALES, Recording Secretary.

EXCURSION TO PARIS AND HOLY LAND. Will you allow me through your columns to state, in reply to questions that are coming in from all parts of the country, that, although the above enterprise was started in Brooklyn, and a number of its citizens will join in it, yet it is not confined to that or any other place, but that the limited amount of room we have is open to any and all, under such restrictions as the committee have for mutual comfort adopted—viz: the applicants to be accepted must have a good moral character, good health and a fair share of good humor!

On this basis, and this only, we are rapidly making up what we think would be a good company.
Truly, yours,
C. C. DUNCAN, Manager,
117 Wall street.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF $23,000,000.

An act to create a loan for the redemption of the overdue bonds of the Commonwealth.

Whereas the bonds of the Commonwealth and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to $23,000,000, have been overdue and unpaid for some time past;

And whereas it is desirable that the same should be paid and withdrawn from the market; therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice (not less than forty days), as they may deem most expedient for the interest of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the 1st of February and 1st of August, in the city of Philadelphia; which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever for State, municipal or local purposes, and shall be payable as follows, namely:—Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years; eight millions of dollars payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-five years, and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer, and countersigned by the Auditor General, and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and to be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, &c., received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

Sec. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder: Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued shall be negotiated for less than its par value.

Sec. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now overdue, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the said loan now entitled to receive bonds shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

Sec. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees or other persons holding in a fiduciary capacity bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State, or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued by this act.

Sec. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust may, without an order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.

Sec. 6. That from and after the passage of this act all the bonds of this Commonwealth shall be paid off in the order of their maturity.

Sec. 7. That all loans of this Commonwealth not yet due shall be exempt from State, municipal or local taxation after the interest due February first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven shall have been paid.

Sec. 8. That all existing laws, or portions thereof, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
I. W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven. JOHN W. GEARY.

In accordance with the provisions of the above act of Assembly sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Treasurer, in the City of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, until 12 o'clock M. of the 1st day of April, A. D. 1867, to be endorsed as follows:—"Proposals for Pennsylvania State Loan, Treasury Department, Harrisburg, Pa. United States of America."

Bids will be received for $5,000,000, reimbursable in five years and payable in ten years; $8,000,000 reimbursable in ten years and payable in fifteen years, and $10,000,000, reimbursable in fifteen years and payable in twenty-five years, the rate of interest to be either five or six per cent. per annum, which must be explicitly stated in the bid; and the bids most advantageous to the State will be accepted. No bid for less than par will be considered. The bonds will be issued in sums of $500 and such higher sums as desired by the loaners, to be free from State, local and municipal taxes.

The over due bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be received at par in payment of the loan; but bidders must state whether they intend to pay in cash or in the overdue loans aforesaid.

No distinction will be made between bidders paying in cash or overdue loans.

JOHN W. GEARY,
Governor of Pennsylvania.
JOHN F. HARTRANFT,
Auditor General.
W. H. KEMBLE,
State Treasurer.
