A WORD TO THE WISE
—IS—SUFFICIENT

M. J. ROSE
—IS—
AGAIN ON HAND!
And better able than ever to turn out first-class Carriage Work of all descriptions.
HAVING JUST TAKEN IN HIS Majesty's State Carriage to renovate and polish up to be in readiness on his return to the Capital of the Globe, my artist—Mr. Cameron—the carriage painter, late of Philadelphia, feels confident that he can put on a finish as has never been seen in Honolulu; and feels assured, I will be justified in stating that I will not be responsible for any accident that might happen on that occasion; in fact all my Carriages that are painted by Mr. C. are liable to frighten any freshness horses; therefore I should advise all parties using Rose's make of Carriages coming to get a right grip on the cushions and thereby avoid an accident. I also wish to state that the
CLOSS AND FINISH
IS DURABLE.
And will last for years if the job is properly cared for, as I use only the very BEST OF VARNISHES and Horton & Sons' BEST ENGLISH VARNISHES.
Also, please bear in mind that I am the sole owner of the Best Harness
That has ever been made in this Kingdom. As a for mer Harness maker saith:
"I employ no prison labor."
And I say I employ none but the VERY BEST men that can be had in the Kingdom. I do not call your attention to my Harness, but invite all to call and examine for themselves. I am the only agent for A. McKinney, King, American General Store. Any one wishing to see the fine turn out may do so by going out on the Pleasure ride any afternoon after 4 o'clock, and, at a distance of more than half a mile, can see the splendid pair of cremas—the matrix of the variegated, the brightness of the dark gold plate, and the shining of the beautiful harness, the dancing eye of the cremas—in fact, it would cheat one, if he had lived some thousands of years ago when there was a good man (mentioned in the Bible) to have a coat made, fashioned in fact, the white trap robe as though it had been purchased by the man in partners of Aladdin's Lamp; it is so handsome; to be made by money maker. I am also building some very fine
Expresses and Famiyl Carriages
I also wish to call your attention to the fine stock of Carriage Materials,
That I have on hand for sale
