COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1882.

The past week has been a busy one, particularly along the waterfront. The steamer company of the Pacific Company's line, the most active of Wednesday last, has, as we write to press, (owing to her lading more via Kapaula, a large part of her cargo consisting of sugar, 32 passen[illegible] and brought her 300 tons. This vessel will sail for the Coast to-morrow, and will take about 1,200 tons of sugar.

The 22d of each month has been, since [illegible] the regular date of departure from Honolulu for San Francisco, so that hereafter we shall be favored with two steamers each per month, a boon that will be universally appreciated. The other large steamer, the Bulkhead Castle, discharged a large consisting principally of Chinese merchandise.

The market is now well stocked with Chinese goods, there and manufactures, for trading in the "ring" arrangements, some of which, the prices of sugar work and making have not been reduced. The Bulkhead Castle sailed hence for Shanghai direct on Saturday last, to return.

A different aspect to parts of sugar the week [illegible] has this week opened to the end of the year [illegible] appreciation.

Several lots of old crops were offered for sale by Messrs. Allen and Robinson, and the prices had fallen to reach the owners. The most important sale of 1,[illegible] was that of the property known as the "Grove plantation." It realized $41,[illegible]. To answer a special credit sale will be held, comprising a handsome collection of new goods. This sale has been postponed from last week.

The local market of Sydney has advanced in Honolulu during the month of May was 10,[illegible] cases.

The latest quotations from the Coast show the [illegible] The market the week comprises 1,[illegible] pigs to Sydney. The prices have been [illegible] quite demand [illegible] sugar and sugar. Cargo lots sugar [illegible] for under prices to large. The supply to present [illegible] the demand will more increase as the [illegible] season will soon be at its height, when, the demand will be very heavy.

The very active during the week was the Bulkhead Company, from San Francisco.

The steamers during the Commercial and Kilauea, for San Francisco, S. S. S. Champion and the [illegible] Rosario, for Portland; the Bulkhead Castle, for Shanghai; the Jamie Tennant, for the Island, and the Morning Star, for Kamehameha.
